I am satisfied from reliable testimony that defendant's character is good - He is now at work that has been for a long time supporting his wife and child.

I recommend that defendant be released to placed quietly here, & that sentence be suspended.

The officer concurs with me in this recommendation.

says that on the 9th day of October 1884 at the City of New York, in the County of New York,

William A. Steffenberg, nowhere, did feloniously make, forge and utter the aforesaid false, forged and fraudulent instrument in writing, purporting to be a check on the Fifth Avenue Bank, for the sum of thirty-five dollars, with the intent to cheat and defraud.

That said defendant presented said check to deponent on said day and stated it was a good and genuine paper and deponent believing his statements thereupon gave him the sum of thirty dollars in exchange for said check, and credited one George Orwah with five dollars at the request of defendant.

That the Bank officers informed deponent clerk that the check was worthless, and said defendant nowhere in open Court admits forging the same.
