Police Court—Second District.

City and County of New York.

ss:

Henry Teschnacher.
age 39 Hotel Keeper.

of No. 305 West Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the premises No. 305 West Street, 5th Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a dwelling house and which was occupied by deponent as a Hotelwere BURGLARIOUSLY

~~and by means~~ Entered through an open door of the saloon in said premises, with intent to commit a crime therein, and in the night time ~~and~~ making an inner door, and an outer door to get out of the said dwelling, on the night of the 3rd day of February 1882 and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Four Oil Lamps, of the value of Seventy-five cents the property of A. D. Kingsland and J. Sutton and in deponent's care and charge as lessee

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Thomas Cross

(now known) for the reasons following, to wit:

That about the hour of ten O'clock P.M. of said day deponent locked and securely fastened the door leading from the saloon to the street and also fastened with a cross bar an inner door leading from said saloon to the hallway of said premises, and that at said time the said lamps were in a box on a shelf in the hallway of the second floor of said premises. That about the hour of eleven and three quarters O'clock deponent was awakened by an officer who had found open the said door leading from the saloon to the street: that Deponent again locked and fastened the said door and was again awakened about four o'clock by officer Daniel Egan who informed Deponent that he had arrested said Perry with the said property in his possession and that he, said officer, saw said Perry come out of the front hall door with the said lamps, and that Deponent, upon examination of said premises, found <sup>that</sup> the said door leading from the saloon into the hallway was open.
