Dear Sir,

In the case of "Grip" Ammen

to three facts which could not very well be brought out at trial. This Ammen together with "Farmer" Myron, whose trial
I believe is set down before Judge Cowing
for tomorrow (Thursday) & several others who have been sent to the "Island"
constitute a gang, who have made it their business, to make yachting on the Harlem River & Sound a very dan-

I own a yacht lying in the Harlem which this gang has broken into the

on three separate occasions since the

Mr. A. Conlan front of 121 2nd East River

And inasmuch as this "Famous" Flynn
in one of his raids on Ward's Island
a year or so ago, killed a man, for which act he was tried, but not convicted, it would be an extremely dangerous piece of work to come upon them while at work.

There is no doubt, about their being the perpetrators, as on Flynn were found paw tickets for coats which have been identified & he being caught robbing
a coal boat, by an officer of the 88 St Station, & this Ammens house containing many of the things taken from my boat & three others, <sup>positively</sup> who identified them in my presence. We have had an eye on the gang for some time & had given their names to the ward
detectives, which no doubt led to their arrest.
I write this that you may be better able to judge the measure of money due, in the hope that <sup>by your activity</sup> we will feel secure for some time to come. Very Respectfully,
George A. Robinson

Indictment filed November 8th, 1888.

Indicted for Burglary in the Third Degree.

New York, November 13th, 1888.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People, Assistant-District Attorney W. T. Jerome,

For the Defendant, E. E. Price.

ROBERT ROSENBERG, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:
I am a salesman and reside at No. 409 East 120th Street.
I own a yacht called The Idler; on the 12th of September of this year that yacht was lying in the Harlem River right opposite Randalls Island. About six o'clock on the evening of the 12th of September, I left the boat; at that time there was in the boat one lamp, one clock, four blankets, one pair of rubber boots and a quantity of clothing worth in the neighborhood of $50. When I left the boat I securely locked the cabin with a padlock and went ashore; there was nobody on board the boat. When I returned the next day I found that the padlock had been wrenched and broken off and the cabin door was open. I found that the articles which I have just mentioned were missing. Some few days after I went with an officer to the residence of this defendant and I found there the lamp and the rubber boots which were in the cabin of my boat when I locked it on the evening of the 12th of September.

Cross Examination.

I do not know where the defendant was arrested. He was not in the house at the time I went there.

CHARLES J. FAGAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 232 East 116th Street this City. I know the defendant by having seen him in charge of the police. I saw some clothing which was found in the house of the defendant and recognized by Mr. Rosenberg. I also saw Mr. Rosenberg identify some other property in the station house.

GEORGE DORAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police. I know that the yacht Idler was lying on the 12th of September, of this year in the 12th Ward of this City. The defendant was arrested and brought to me as I had the case. I went to the defendant's house with Mr. Rosenberg and we found there some coats, rubber boots, and a looking glass which were identified by him as property taken from his boat. The defendant lives at No. 327 East 106th Street.

Cross Examination.

There are four families living on each floor of the house in which the defendant lived; he lived there with his mother; I don't know whether there was any boarder living there with them or not.

DEFENSE.

CHARLES EHEMAN, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am nineteen years of age and I reside with my mother in 106th Street. On the day of my arrest I was coming home from work; I was working in Riley's plumbing shop in 125th Street. I did not break into Mr. Rosenberg's yacht; I don't know anything at all about it; I did not steal any lamps or any clothing or any rubber boots, nor did I receive anything from anybody who had stolen it.

Cross examination.

I have worked for Mr. Riley for six months. I was arrested once before and was fined $2. I never saw the yacht Idler; I know where Randalls Island is, but I never was on any yacht near there. I was out of employment at the time I was arrested.

Q I thought you said you had been working for Mr. Riley for six months? A I was laid off for a month.

Q What did you do during the month, did you stay around the house all day? A No, sir.

Q Didn't you take a row on the river occasionally?

A No, sir, I never did.

Q Did you see a lamp at your home? A No, sir; there was a boarder in the house. We had two lamps in our house but I remember that they belonged to my mother and one of them she had for ten years. We had two or three blankets but I do not know that we ever had any rubber boots in the house.

Q. What conversation did you have with the officer that arrested you? A I didn't have any conversation with him; he didn't say anything to me but simply took me to the station house.

GEORGE DORAN recalled.

I found four or five pairs of rubber boots in the defendant's house; I also found two fishing poles there in a closet.

The Jury returned a verdict of Guilty of receiving stolen goods, with a recommendation to mercy.
