filed Feb. 1882.

24
 The People's Court of General Sessions, Part I.
 George Carr. Before Judge Gildersleeve. Feb. 24, 1882.
 Indictment for petty larceny and receiving stolen goods.

Susie Laddy sworn and examined. I am 12 years old, I go to school, I know what it is to take an oath, I know it is wrong to tell a lie, I live in Twenty eighth St; I was home alone in my mother's room, I have seen the prisoner before, he came into the room and asked me if there was not any clothes in the bureau and I said, 'no.' Then he went to the bureau and he looked; he did not ask me to go out, but I stayed there, I put the clothes in a bag; the clothes were in the bureau drawer, he opened the drawers, there was a hat there and he fitted it on him; he did not take the hat; he says it was of no use to him and he did not take it. Did you say anything to him? No sir. Did he take the things away? Yes sir. Who did the things belong to? To my brother, Peter Laddy. Did you ever get the clothes back? No sir. Did you know this man, was he in the habit of coming into your place? No sir, he was never in our room before.
 Cross Examined. I remember I was up at Jefferson Market. At the time the prisoner came into our room he had blue pants a blue vest, a white coat, and a black derby hat, and a red flannel shirt. I do not remember saying at Jefferson Market that he had a blue coat, I said he had a white coat, I have been sent to school since. It was about two o'clock when he took the clothes on Friday. My mother went to work in the morning; she did not come home till about half past five at night. Nobody came into the house from the time my mother left and this man (the prisoner) came except one of my brothers to dinner. My brother to whom the clothes belonged is seventeen years old; it was after he came home to his dinner that the defendant came and took the clothes; this was two hours after my brother came to his dinner, I think it was half past two. I saw Carr three times before this, I saw him in 28th st. at the rag store, on Thursday the week before; then I saw him at the corner of Eleventh Avenue and Twenty eighth st. where the saw mill is; then I did not see him again until he came to my house, I was sweeping the floor when the prisoner came into our room. Ann Liddy sworn. I was not home at the time these things were taken; the clothes were in the bureau in the morning when I went out to work; they were not there when I came back; the suit cost ten dollars. George Carr, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I was arrested on Monday morning the 6th of this month; on Friday the 3^d of Feb. I was at my brother-in-law's house till 12 o'clock, I went down to the house where I board 269 Tenth ave., I was there till about a quarter to one. Me and Paddy Murphy, the man that I board with, started to go down where I generally work in the coal yard between 28th and 29th sts. at the river I was not at this place, I did not take the clothes. Murphy and I were together till about three o'clock; then he was called away to go to work to put out a car of lumber at 28th St. I went down half an hour afterwards to where Murphy was working. I helped him to put out the car of lumber. I did not wear a red shirt that day and have not worn a red shirt in two years. Cross Examined. I work in this coal place of Tifford and Stokes Twenty ninth St. I worked that Monday seven hours, and the day before they say this offence was committed I worked four hours. I don't know Officer Osborne; he did not arrest me for stealing iron from the Hudson River Railroad Co. and I was not sent to the penitentiary for six months. I was arrested by officer Lloyd for stealing rope from a barge on 28th street. and got three months in the penitentiary for that and I was arrested at another time for stealing something from the Hudson River Railroad Co. and Judge Bixby sent me to the penitentiary for five months. I was also arrested for assault and battery and got four months. I have been on the Island three or four times.

Patrick Murphy sworn. I live in 29th South Ave., the prisoner lived with me for the last three or four months. I never saw him wear a red shirt. I saw him on this Friday they claim the robbery was committed; he left the house with me at one o'clock or a little after; we went down as far as the coal yard. in 29th st. and the North River; we then went to unload a car of lumber and got through about 4 1/2 or 20 minutes to five. I was with him all the time except 5 minutes, so that he could not have gone up and taken the clothes. Cross Examined. I have seen the prisoner work in a coal yard.
