People vs. Frank Ketchman

from

Q He said so.

A Yes sir.

Q What did he say - the defendant said what. A. The party that had gone into the trucking business had got drinking, and the store that he was doing work for would not put up with the truckman that was drinking so much, and they had those tickets left over, that Railroad Co. don't redeem them; he had them on hand for sale.

Cross Examined.

Q At Hayden's house when he came there first. A. Between half past seven and twelve I was there, sir.

Q Was the interview with you personally? A. Well, we both, not personally to me excluding Mr. Hayden.

Q After you and Mr. Hayden -
A Yes sir.

Q You were both present. A. Yes sir.

0935

Capt
McDonald

Q Was this in presence of the prisoner
At No. the prisoner was down stairs.

By the Court Q Did he (Otis) see those tickets.
A I asked him if he would like to see the prisoner. He said he would. I brought him up stairs in my room. Mr. Otis asked him how he came to get possession of those tickets? He said he got them from a man in Jersey. I then asked him who the man was. He said he could not think of his name. I said he had best tell me and I will go and arrest him. He could not think of his name. That is all.

By Mr. Paris Q Did he tell you where he was. A. Jersey is all that he could tell me. During the conversation he stated to Mr. Otis,
"that is your property, you have not lost a ticket, I have swapped them".
I then asked him to explain to me how he could get 769 tickets in his possession if he had swapped Mr. Otis' tickets for these? He says, "I do not know, I do not know; I got them tickets from a man in Jersey, and gave him Mr. Otis' tickets." That evening Mr. Otis and me went over the tickets. The next morning in Court the complaint was taken against him for that amount of tickets.

By the Court Q The 769 or the 400.

A No sir - forty eight dollars was the amount.

By Mr. Parrie Q You examined those tickets.

A Yes sir, they have been in my possession since the 22nd of March.

Q Where did you get those tickets.

A I found this bunch with the marked ticket amongst the four hundred which was brought to the station house by Mr. Jerow and the officer. That stamped ticket was amongst the 400 that was brought from Mr. Hayden's house. Then there was 369; the balance outside of those was delivered to Mr. Otis by order of Judge Patterson, the following Monday morning or Sunday morning.

and those were taken as exhibits for me to produce here in Court as evidence to the amount of $48.75.

By the Court Q The difference between those bundles you delivered by order of the Police Justice to the complainant.

A Yes sir.

By Mr. Parris Q Are both those bundles portions of those that were brought from Mr. Hayden's house. A. Yes sir, they are all portions of the 400 ~~because~~ because 369 were kept separate.

Q Were those kept separate.

A Yes sir, those were kept separate in my possession since the 22nd of March, and amongst those 400 was a stamped ticket with Mr. Otis' mark.

Q The first intimation that Mr. Otis had of having been robbed was when you told him. A. Yes sir, I called him in out of his wagon.

Mr. Parris: Those tickets I put in evidence your Honor.

Counsel I object to those going in evidence.

Q How many tickets are there.

A I could not tell you now; we counted them to make up the complaint.

When the clerk took the complaint against the prisoner at the Court, I did know the number, but I could not tell you now.

Counsel. I object to those tickets going in evidence for the reason that the numbers are not known.

The Court. Overruled. Exception.

By Mr. Parris Q Tell me how many tickets.

A I can count them.

The Court Two bundles of tickets enclosed in an envelope marked, "People's Exhibit A."

By Mr. Parris Q Did you have any other conversation with the prisoner, Captain?

A Nothing further, only that evening I do not think anything appertaining to the case.

Q That is all, is it, you have to say in regard to it. A. Yes sir.

Cross Examined.

Q Did the prisoner, use the word "swap," he had "swapped" tickets.

A The language was, sir, when Mr. Otis asked him how he came to get possession of those tickets, "Mr. Otis, you have lost no tickets at all, I swapped them tickets with
