George P. Thomas makes the following statement to Inspector Byrnes I have known Mrs Beck for about 3 or 4 years. I first made her acquaintance by selling her two pictures value about 28 dollars I did not know her character until after I sold her the pictures and when I learned that she was the person who swindled Babbitt. I was a bit alarmed about the debt she owed me, but I eventually got all my money except one dollar she still owes me, I sold her some furniture for Manges a furniture dealer on 3rd ave. he collected his bill through the Courts. in the latter part of August I was passing the Corner of Putnam & Nostrand Ave. when I was accosted by the daughter of Mrs Beck who said to me Her mother wanted to see me I then went into the Beck's House 307 Putnam ave. when I had a short interview with her and made an appointment to meet her in her House the next morning before leaving she loaned me twenty dollars when I called the next morning she made a proposition to me that if I should appear as a witness for her in her suit against Simpson & Co.

The People of the State of New York

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse George P. Thomas, of the crime of Perjury, committed as follows:

On the twelfth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, a certain action for the recovery of certain chattels, and for damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of a wrongful detention of such chattels, was depending in the District Court in the City of New York, in and for the Second Judicial District of the City of New York, wherein one Ellen E. Peck was plaintiff, and John Simpson and Richard Roe, trading under the firm name of J. Simpson and Company, were defendants, and on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County of New York aforesaid, before Charles M. Clancey Esquire, Justice of the said Court, a certain issue theretofore joined between the said Ellen E. Peck, and the said John Simpson and Richard Roe, in the said action, then and there in due form of law came on to be tried, and was then and there in due form of law tried by a jury of the said County, duly summoned, empanelled and sworn for that purpose. And upon the trial of the said issue in the said action, the said George P. Thomas, late of the City and County of New York aforesaid, then and there appeared as a witness in behalf of the said Ellen E. Peck, plaintiff in the said action, as aforesaid, and was then and there duly sworn, and did take his corporal oath before the said Charles M. Clancy Esquire, Justice as aforesaid, that the evidence which he should give relating to the matter in difference between the said Ellen E. Peck, plaintiff, and John Simpson and Richard Roe, defendants, should be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. The said Charles M. Clancy Esquire, Justice as aforesaid then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said George P. Thomas in that behalf. And it thereupon became and was a material inquiry upon the trial of the said issue, whether the said George P. Thomas had ever sold to the said Ellen E. Peck two certain earrings, then and there in the said Court exhibited and shown [the same being a part of the chattels for the recovery of which and for damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of a wrongful detention of which, the said action had been brought as aforesaid] and whether the said George P. Thomas had got the said earnings from a lady in New York, and whether the said earnings were handed to him by an old acquaintance, that he had known for six or seven years, and whether the said George P. Thomas had taken said earnings from the said old acquaintance for the purpose of selling the same, and had brought back to her the money received for them after he had sold them, and whether the name of his said old acquaintance was Tousey, and whether such sale and the circumstances connected with it had occurred about a year from the October next ensuing, to wit: in the month of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty three: and whether the said Ellen E. Peck had given him the said George P. Thomas the sum of one hundred dollars for the said earnings.

And the said George P. Thomas, being so sworn as aforesaid, on the day and in the year first aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, upon his oath aforesaid, and on the said trial of the said issue, before the said jury so summoned, empanelled and sworn as aforesaid, and before the said Charles M. Clancy Esquire Justice as aforesaid: then and there wilfully, corruptly, knowingly, maliciously and feloniously did falsely swear, depose, say and give in evidence, amongst other things, in substance and to the effect following, that is to say:

They [the said earnings thereby meaning] look just like the earnings [the said earnings were exhibited and shown in the said Court thereby meaning] that I [I myself, the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] sold to Mrs. Peck the plaintiff [the said Ellen E. Peck thereby meaning] & it is nearly a year ago [thereby meaning that it was ~~then~~ nearly a year before the time of the trial of the said issue in the said action that he had sold the said earnings to the said Ellen E. Peck] To the best of my knowledge they are the ones [thereby meaning that the earnings so as aforesaid then and there exhibited and shown, were <sup>to the best of his knowledge</sup> the earnings which he the said George P. Thomas had sold to the said Ellen E. Peck]. I [I myself the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] got them [thereby meaning the said earnings] from a lady in New York. I [I myself the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] can't tell who she [the said lady in New York thereby meaning] was, but I [I myself the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] know who she [thereby meaning the said lady from whom he had got the said earnings] was

0030

They [thereby meaning the said earnings] were handed to me [to him the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] by an old acquaintance that I [himself the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] have known for six or seven years. I [himself the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] took them from her to sell [thereby meaning that he had taken the said earnings from the said old acquaintance for the purpose of selling the same.] and I [himself the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] brought her [the said old acquaintance thereby meaning] back the money [the money which he had received for the said earnings thereby meaning] when I [himself the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] sold them [thereby meaning the said earnings] That was about a year ago next month [thereby meaning that the sale of the said earnings and the circumstances connected therewith had occurred about the month of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty three] Tansy is the name I know her by [thereby meaning that the name of Tansy was the name <sup>of</sup> which he the said George P. Thomas had known his said old acquaintance]. She [the said Ellen E. Peck thereby meaning] gave me [I misread the said George P. Thomas thereby meaning] one hundred dollars in money for the diamonds [the said earnings thereby meaning].

Whereas, in truth and in fact the said earnings so exhibited and shown in the said Court did not look just like the earnings that the said George P. Thomas had sold to the said Ellen E. Peck, and whereas in truth and in fact it was not nearly a year before the time of the said trial of the said mine that the said George P. Thomas had sold the said earnings to the said Ellen E. Peck; and whereas in truth and in fact the said earnings so exhibited and shown as aforesaid were not to the best of the knowledge of the said George P. Thomas, the earnings which he had sold to the said Ellen E. Peck, and the said George P. Thomas had not got the said earnings from a lady in New York, and whereas in truth and in fact the said earnings were not handed to him the said George P. Thomas, by an old acquaintance that he had known for six or seven years, and the said George P. Thomas had not taken the said earnings from the said old acquaintance for the purpose of selling the same, and had not brought the said old acquaintance back the money which he had received for the said earnings when he sold them, and such sale and the circumstances connected therewith had not occurred about the month of October in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty three; and Tousey was not the name by which the said George P. Thomas had known his said old acquaintance. And whereas in truth and in fact the said Ellen E. Peck had not given the said George P. Thomas one hundred dollars in money for the said earnings.

And Whereas in truth and in fact, the matters aforesaid, so as aforesaid by the said George P. Thomas, sworn to, said, deposed and given in evidence then and there, was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said George P. Thomas, then and there well knew.

And so, the Grand Jury aforesaid do say that he the said George P. Thomas, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, in manner and form aforesaid, stand there, upon the trial of the said issue in the said action, feloniously, wickedly, knowingly and maliciously and falsely, did commit Wilful and corrupt Perjury: against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
