: Before Hon. Fred-

For the Defendant; Frank Oliver Jr.

I live at No. 873 First Avenue. On the 28th of June 1887, I saw the Defendant William Charver about five minutes past six. I was coming home from work and there was a fight f going on in an alley way in 46th Street. After that fight was over, in which Glennon was killed, all hands went outside, and went on the corner of First Avenue and 46th Street the uptown side of the corner. Charver and Gaffney was standing near the gutter, and I went over to make peace with Gaffney as I had hit him in the ~~fight~~ in the Alley way. He wouldn't talk to me but he went back a little ways, and he pulled out a revolver and pointed it right to me. I jumped around the corner and he fired off the revolver pointing it to the lower part of my body, and he said; "If you dont go away, I'll kill you". I walked out from the corner again and with that he fired another shot, and he fired a third shot. I was over on the other side of the street when he fired the third shot. When I got on the North side of the street he fired a fourth shot; then the Police officer came and he ran. While the officer was running after him he fired the pistol off again at us. After firing this fifth shot he continued to run. Myself and the officer pursued him and he ran into a cellar, and he was caught by the officer in the cellar. I did not strike Charver, nor intend to strike him, nor did I lay my hands on him at all. I struck Morgan and Gaffney in the alley-way. It was about 35 minutes after Charver left the alley-way that he fired the first shot.

Cross-examination.

I was arrested once for stabbing. Charver was struck by Wall in the alley way. I went to speak to Charver when we got out on the corner, and he walked away from me, and I was following him up. I got as close to him as I could with for that purpose.

Q He was going away from you? A. Yes sir.

Q What did he say? A. First he said: "Go away from me I won't have anything to do with you".

Q Didn't he say "Keep away"? A. Yes sir. I didn't keep away because I didn't want to have any hard feelings

Owen Conovan, a witness for the People, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 23rd precinct I arrested this defendant on the 28th of June at the corner of 46th Street and 2nd Avenue in a cellar; he was in a wood house in the cellar. At about a quarter to six o'clock I heard pistol shots, I turned around and Charva, and I ran and when I got within fifteen yards³ of him he ran up 46th Street. When he got a short distance up the street he turned around and pointed the pistol to me and fired. I caught him in the cellar and found the pistol on him. There were five cartridges in the Pistol all exploded. The pistol was warm.. I saw him fire the third and fourth shots.

Cross-examination.

I found the pistol in the possession of the defendant in the cellar. I could not be positive if he pointed the pistol at me. If he did point it at me he would have shot me sure.

-- DEFENSE --

Cornelius Gaffney, a witness for the defendant testified:

I live at No. 401 East 76th Street. I was present in 46th Street the time of this trouble on June 28th. After the fight in the alley between Clifford and Glennon we went out into the street. I saw Charva come out and his hands and mouth were bloody. He had no hat on. He and I went up to his house, and he got a hat on and came back. Carroll's brother knocked him down. The complainant Carroll came up to him and he says; "You son of a bitch, go away from here". Charva had a large stone in his hand, and Carroll came around the corner. Charva fired two shots at the ground in the direction of Carroll. He fired three shots altogether but they were towards the ground. He didn't point the pistol to Carroll.

Cross-examination.

I was arrested for disorderly conduct several times but was never arrested for fighting . I served four terms in the workhouse. I wasn't working at the time this happened. I had been sick for about 4 months. I Charva lived in 59th Street and went as far as 49th Street and second avenue with him and lent him my hat to go home with.

William Mulligan, a witness for the defendant, testified:

I live at No. 303 East 73rd Street. I know these parties in this action. After the fight in the alley which has been mentioned, Charva came out of the yard, and as he got out into the street between two trucks, Carroll's brother punched him. Charva was sitting down at the gutter, and Clifford picked up a stone, then Carroll went over and pulled Charva by the lapels of the coat, and began to talk to him. Carroll ran with a stone towards Charva, and Charva then fired a shot from his pistol down at the ground. Then Carroll ran out towards the gutter and Charva fired another shot down to the ground in the direction of Carroll. Then Carroll ran around the corner and Charva fired another shot down to the ground. I didn't see any other shot fired or hear it.

Cross-examination..

I was in the penitentiary twice for Petit Larceny and was arrested once for malicious mischief, and got three months in the workhouse.

John Banny, a witness for the People testified:-

I live at No. 249 East 43 Street. I have never been in State's Prison or in Blackwell's Island. I remember the 28th of June. I have heard Carroll say that he would like to ~~kill~~ Charva. Carroll started off towards Charva, and Clifford had a stone in his hands. Carroll got hold of Charva by the lapels of the coat. Charva was backing away, and Carroll wanted him to stay there. When Charva turned around and saw Clifford with the stone in his hand he fired the first shot, and when they ran around the corner ~~Henry~~ fired another shot in the direction of Carroll. The pistol was pointed towards the ground.

Cross-examination.

I was arrested once for lying on a stoop asleep. I was also arrested for standing on the corner.

William Charva, the defendant, testified:-

I live at No. 309 East 59th Street. I was present at this fight in the alley way in 46th Street which has been spoken of. After it was over I went out of the alley way and I saw Carroll strike Morgan in his face with his fist, and also strike me in the face and knock me down and kicked me. Wall and Clifford also got at me and kicked and beat me. Carroll's brother also hit me. Then Gaffney and I went up 49th Street, and I left him then and went home to get my hat. I came back and stood on the corner and was there five minutes when Carroll and caught me by the lapel of the coat and says: "Go ~~w~~ away from here you son of a bitch". I told him to go away from me and he wouldn't . He did let go of me and then I saw Clifford running for me with a stone in his hand. I pulled out a revolver and aimed a it at the ground and fired two shots, not at him but at the ground. Carroll came running for me, and Wall came also and then I fired two shots more. I fired all the time at the ground, not at Carroll or anybody else.

Then Carroll went to the gutter, presumably for a stone, and I ran and he ran after me. I hadn't seen any policeman and the pistol exploded accidentally while I was running along the street. I didn't turn towards the Policeman and fire a shot. It went off accidentally. I bought the pistol that morning.
I had it with me when I was in the alley way and all the time afterwards.

Cross-examination.

Q. Why didn't you take the pistol out when Carroll and the rest were beating you after you came out of the alley? A. . I could not get a chance. The pistol was in my pocket. They were firing stones at me, and chasing me. .

Q Why didn't you take the pistol out then? A. I didn't want to use it at all. The policeman could see the blood on my face and nose. The pistol was loaded when I bought it. I bought it to use when I went o in the country. I once served a term of two years in state's prison for an attempt at Grand Larceny while under the influence of liquor.

Q What made you return to the corner of 46th Street, and second Avenue after you had been home? A. I went there to return Gaffney his hat.

John Charva, a witness called for the defendant, testified:-

The defendant William Charva is my son. He came out of prison on the 16th of January last, and had been working all the time and gave his wages to me.

Owen Conovan, recalled in rebuttal, testified:-

I didn't notice any blood upon the prisoner when I arrested him. There was no blood on his face at all.

The Jury found the prisoner guilty of Assault in the first degree with a recommendation to mercy.

Two Italian's Favorite Weapon.
Frank Casino keeps a saloon at 69 Mulberry st. Last evening Pasquale Chipperoni, with some other Italians, went into Casino's saloon and drank there. After some time Chipperoni said he was robbed of his watch and raised a disturbance about it. This exasperated Casino, who tried to throw him out, but Chipperoni refused to leave. Casino then proceeded to put him out, when Chipperoni drew a large dirk and plunged it into Casino's abdomen. Officer Jones of the Sixth Precinct arrested Chipperoni last night at 81 Roosevelt st. Today at the Tombs he was held by Judge C. Kelly to await the result of Casino's injuries.

Frank Cassiano, the complainant says, that the defendant stabbed him in the right side of the abdomen under the following circumstances to wit:

On the night of the 4th day of July, 1887, the defendant & a friend of his came in my saloon at No. 69 Mulberry street this city and got two drinks each, after they had done drinking the defendant went out, while his friend remained in the saloon; a short time after some one in the saloon asked defendant's friend where the defendant was, when he was told that he was sleeping on the stoop and he had better look for the defendant, as he might be robbed, with that they left the saloon to wake defendant. About five minutes after the defendant came into my saloon with a sharp instrument in his hand picking his teeth, and asked for his watch, saying some one had taken it; he then went out and came back three or four times. The fourth time he came in he asked us for our names, saying that he was going to fix us in the morning. I told him, "having spoken to him for the first time" that I would be the first one to give him my name, and the defendant said "No I want all your names" a dispute then arose, in which defendant said that he would kick our back side I asked him what he meant, and he replied that he would break mine first, at the same time taking for his hand from behind his back, in which he held the instrument, and stabbed me on the right side of the abdomen. whereupon I slapped his face.

Pasquale Lendo, says, that he is the bartender for the complainant; That on the night in question, the defendant and a friend of his came into the saloon, and ordered a glass of beer; they had two drinks each. after they had done drinking the defendant went out to the water closet & then went out on the stoop and fell asleep; sometime after we asked the defendant's friend where the defendant was and he said he was sleeping on the stoop, we told him to look for him, that he might be robbed; his friend went out to look for him, and found him on the stoop and began to shake him when defendant awoke, I asked him where his watch was and defendant said it is in my pocket all safe. his friend felt in his pocket. & could not find any watch, so his friend asked him who had taken it. the defendant replied that if the watch was not there, he had taken it or somebody in the saloon; a few minutes after defendant came in the saloon with a sharp piece of iron in his hand and asked for his watch, we told him that if he thought we took his watch he was mistaken; all this time the defendant was picking his teeth with this sharp instrument. He went out came back 3 or 4 times, asked for his watch; While we were all talking about the watch Russian the complainant ordered me to close up the saloon, which I started to do; while so engaged I heard a dissension and immediately after heard Russian exclamation "Oh! Virgin Mary I am killed,"

Gaetano Campolongo, can corroborate all the testimony given by Pasquale Lendo, and can also say, that he saw defendant strike the complainant but could not see what kind of an instrument he held, but he saw him make the threat.
