That when this case was called the said Asst. District Attorney called the names of Mr. Gross and his witnesses and although Gross and his witnesses were present were present none of them answered to the call of their names.

3 That one of the defendants witnesses Max Goldberger who was sitting next to the complainant Gross, called his attention to the calling of his name but Gross paid no attention to it, and deponents verily believe that said Gross and his witnesses purposely and designedly refrained from answering, and the cause was then marked "not ready" by the said District Attorney.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

Defendant was quarrelling in my saloon. I ordered him out, and proceeded I put him out - I had a "Bully" in my hand. When he cut me with a putknife

He had been drinking. - There was a party of friends with Defendant - He has hitherto borne a good character and I know his family who are respectable people. I respectfully ask leave to withdraw my complaint.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Joseph Kennell
otherwise called
Jacob Kuhn

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse _____

Joseph Kennell, otherwise called Jacob Kuhn of the CRIME OF Perjury committed as follows:—

On the Seventeenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three at the City and County of New York, one John Royal was lawfully apprehended and arrested and was brought before J. Henry Ford Esquire then and there being a Police Justice of the City of New York upon a charge of misdemeanor in keeping a room to be used for gambling purposes and for the purpose of therein selling and offering to sell what are commonly called Lottery Policies: and thereupon the said J. Henry Ford Esquire Police Justice as aforesaid in due form of law proceeded to examine into the facts and circumstances of the said charge; and it appearing to him the said J. Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, from the said examination that a crime had been committed, and that there was sufficient cause to believe the said John Royal guilty thereof, he, the said J. Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, then and there in due form of law ordered that he

the said ~~John~~ John Royal — he held to answer the said charge, and that he be admitted to bail in the sum of Three hundred dollars, and be committed to the Warden and Keeper of the City Prison of the City of New York, until he give such bail.

And thereafter, to wit: on the 17th day of July in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Joseph Kennell, otherwise called Jacob Kuhn, late of the City and County of New York, aforesaid, personally appeared before the said J. Henry Ford, Police Justice as aforesaid, and as such Police Justice then and there being legally authorized and duly qualified to take bail for the appearance of the said John Royal upon the said charge, and then and there offered himself to be and become the bail and surety for the said John Royal, and to undertake that the said John Royal should appear and answer the charge aforesaid, in whatever Court it might be prosecuted; and should at all times render himself amenable to the orders and process of the Court; and if convicted, should appear for judgment, and render himself in execution thereof, or if he failed to perform either of those conditions that he would pay to the People of the State of New York, the sum of Three hundred Dollars.

And it thereupon became and was material that the said J. Henry Ford Esquire

Police Justice as aforesaid, should know the true circumstances and property of him the said Joseph Kennell, otherwise called Jacob Kuhn, in order that he might determine whether he would and should take and approve the said Joseph Kennell otherwise called Jacob Kuhn as such bail and surety.

And thereafter, to wit: on the day last aforesaid, in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Joseph Kennell, otherwise called Jacob Kuhn, duly presented and exhibited to the said J. Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, a certain affidavit in writing duly signed and subscribed by him the said Joseph Kennell, otherwise called Jacob Kuhn, under the name and style of Jacob Kuhn, in his own proper handwriting, concerning his sufficiency to be and become such bail and surety, and touching and concerning the amount and value and locality of his property: And the said Joseph Kennell, otherwise called Jacob Kuhn, was then and there in due form of law, sworn by the said J. Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid / the said J. Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as agoresaid then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer an oath to the said Joseph Kemell otherwise called Jacob Kuhn on that behalf/ and did then and there take his corporal oath before the said J. Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as agoresaid, touching and concerning the truth of the matters contained in his said affidavit in writing:

And the said Joseph Kemell otherwise called Jacob Kuhn, being so sworn as agoresaid, then and there, upon his oath agoresaid before the said J. Henry Ford Esquire Police Justice as agoresaid/ and then and there having such full and competent power and authority as agoresaid/ in and by his said affidavit in writing, feloniously, knowingly, unlawfully and corruptly did falsely swear, depose and say, amongst other things, in substance and to the effect

meaning of house and lot No. 436 East 114th Street worth Ten thousand dollars clear.

Whereas in truth and in fact the said Joseph Kennell otherwise called Jacob Kuhn at the time of taking the said oath and making the said affidavit in writing was not a resident and free holder within the County and State of New York; and at the said time was not worth Six Hundred dollars exclusive of property exempt from execution, and over and above the amount of all his debts and liabilities: And whereas in truth and in fact the property of him the said Joseph Kennell otherwise called Jacob Kuhn, at the said time did not consist of the house and lot number 436 East 114th Street, and the said house and lot, at the said time was not worth Ten thousand dollars clear: As he the said Joseph Kennell, otherwise

0568

called Jacob Kuhn then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say: That he the said Joseph Kennell, otherwise called Jacob Kuhn, on the day and in the year last aforesaid, before the said J.
Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, and then and there having such full and competent power and authority as aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, of his own most wicked and corrupt mind, and by his own act and consent, upon his oath aforesaid, in and by his said affidavit in writing, knowingly, unlawfully and falsely did feloniously commit wilful and corrupt perjury, to the evil example of all others in the like case offending, to the great displeasure of Almighty God: against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

The false representations made to Mr. Seamans by Keppler were, that he was a brother of Mr. Joseph Keppler of "Puck", and had been connected with both "Puck" and "Judge", and gave Mr. Keppler as his reference. He claimed that he was an artist and had been regularly employed on "Puck" but was not at present, but was doing work occasionally for them now. Knowing Mr. Keppler of "Puck" to be good Mr. Seamans supposed his brother would be, and on the faith of that representation he sold a machine to him. Keppler represented that the machine was for his own use, but as matter of fact he sold it the same day for $55, which can be proved by Mr. Browne of Clinton Place. Keppler agreed to pay $100 for the machine. It can be proved by Joseph Keppler of "Puck" that he does not know him at all, never was employed on the paper, is not his brother and never has had any connection with the paper. He made similar representations to Mr. Thompson, of Thompson's business college on Fourth Avenue, at about the same time, and obtained a Type Writer there, which he sold in Philadelphia for $78, the original value of which was $40. He also endeavored to get an Encyclopedia from Appleton's, upon the same representations, at about the same time.

These facts can be established beyond doubt, and make, in my judgment, a clear case for conviction.
