To Hon Judge Leving
Dear Sir

Annie Gottschalk could only give me ^{but} one name with the address that of Mr Sanders - 110 - 3rd Ave Butcher whom I know, to be an honorable man - Annie came from an Intelligence Office with good recommendation about Jan 1st & staid 2 mos - was house keeper as his wife is dead
She had opportunity to steal, especially money She was honest so far as he knows & he believes her honest. he let her go as he thought she became slack about her work

The Motion at the Torob says she is a great liar - She caught her in 1/2 day foolish Story - as Annie had told her she had a bank book & $40 - in the Bowery Savings Bk - I called there & found it was not so -

Ewald Kaestner a young man introduced to me by Annie's Lawyer - a young man with honorable intentions who wants to marry her I think the Bank book business was cooked up for her intendeds special business and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Annie Gottschalk (now here) from the fact that said defendant was in deponent's employ as a domestic and on the night of said day defendant disappeared from said premises immediately thereafter deponent missed said property, subsequently deponent was informed by Officer James McGuire that he found a portion of said property in said defendant's possession which deponent has since seen and fully identified as her property stolen as aforesaid

Mrs. Hattie J. Einstein
