This man was arrested in April last by Detective Mr F Frink for false pretence. It was connected with the Standard Theatre. His father came forward & he was dis^g by the magistrate - The detective believes he will ~~live~~ pursue a criminals life, he says his father at that time said he had given him a good deal of trouble & he was getting tired of it.

He was married very young & has a wife and child over 2 years of age.

Since his arrest in April he has been living as near as I can find out, by the kind of business for which he was arrested

He has shown us he has no prospect of making an honest living, unless his father or some friend takes him by the hand, (admitting that his de-
