John Porter the complainant of No 65 East Broadway being duly cross examined says

I last counted the money half an hour before I entered the house in Washington Square Park and put the money in a handkerchief - I did not stop to drink any thing - I met defendant Ella about 6 o'clock it was dark she is colored I laid down on the bed and she said Ella took the money - I was on the bed about one minute - she took the money from the handkerchief when she ran in another room - the first time I saw the prisoner Mary Dudley was at that time I recognize the following named persons viz Sophia Hamilton, Christian Jasper and George W.
 Smith as the persons who were in the room when said Ella - went to the room where said Mary Dudley was sitting - she put the money some where or other says — I was playing cards with Sophia Hamilton — Christina Jasper and the boy Smith were looking on — I heard some one run past my door down stairs two or three minutes thereafter the panel of my door was broken and complainant came in — Ella Height was not there after he burst the door open Christina Jasper was going in my bedroom — as soon as he burst open the door he said where is that girl pointing to Christina saying bring her here he said I won't my money — I told him to go where he lost it and if he did not go out I would go for an Officer — he went out and was gone about 15 minutes — came back with an Officer - I had resumed playing Cards - I was then arrested - Ella Height did not come into my room - she went down stairs - I heard some one running down stairs I supposed it was Ella Height - Ella gave me no money - I know nothing about the Larceny -

The room occupied by Ella Height is opposite my room - about four feet distant from my room - The noise of the running which I heard before the door was burst open came from the direction of the room where Deft said he lost his money -
