After hearing the testimony taken in the trial of the witness named Harry Friedman (who was acquitted), I think it will be impossible to convict the witness named Abraham Sokol. In fact, I believe Sokol would also be acquitted. I therefore recommend that Sokol be discharged on his own recognizance.

and personal property, and in order to induce them, the said Horace, John, Edward, Horace, William, Dexter and Daniel, to sell and deliver the same to him on credit, in and by a certain written statement and paper writing signed by him the said Samuel, in his own proper handwriting, and by him, the said Samuel then and there delivered to the said Horace, John, Edward, Horace, William, Dexter and Daniel : That the said Samuel was then able and had sufficient means to pay for the said goods, chattels and personal property, and was then in solvent circumstances; that according to the inventory by him taken, of his business in the month of December 1883, his sales during the said year 1883, amounted to the value of at least One hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars; that he had at the time of the taking of the said inventory, goods, wares and merchandise of the actual value of at least thirty thousand dollars; that he had good outstanding accounts, showing debts owing to him of the value of at least twenty thousand dollars, and owed not more than thirty thousand dollars; and that at the time of taking the said inventory, ^{he} had a surplus of at least twenty thousand dollars; that on the said second day of February 1884, he the said Samuel Steinweg was safely worth at least eighteen thousand dollars, and owed not more than twelve thousand dollars; and that his liabilities did not exceed the said sum of twelve thousand dollars, including money borrowed by him: Which said statement and paper writing ^{was} ~~was~~ delivered by the said Samuel to the said Horace, John, Edward, Horace, William,

Dexter, and Daniel, is in substance as follows, to wit:

"Sales $125.000. Merchandise at actual value $30.000. Accounts good $20.000. Owe $30.000. Surplus $20.000. The above figures are the inventory of December 1885, at a low value however: I am to-day safely worth at least $18.000. Owe only $12.000. borrowed money included in liabilities"

Samuel Steinweg."

And the said Horace, John, Edward, Horace, William, Dexter and Daniel, then and there believing the said false and fraudulent representations and pretenses, so made as aforesaid, by the said Samuel and being deceived thereby, were induced by reason thereof to sell on credit to the said Samuel and to deliver to him certain goods, chattels and personal property, to wit:

Twenty-four thousand seven hundred and fifteen yards of flannel, of the value of twenty-five cents each yard; two thousand six hundred and fifty-eight yards of muslin of the value of nine cents each yard; eight hundred and forty-three yards of canton flannel of the value of ten cents each yard; two hundred and twenty-eight yards of jeans of the value of eight cents each yard; thirty-six yards of cloth of the value of one dollar each yard; twenty yards of silk of the value of two dollars each yard; four blankets of the value of two dollars and fifteen cents each; and two comforters of the value of two dollars and thirty-four cents each, of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said Horace, John, Edward, Horace, William,

Dexter, and Daniel; and the said Samuel did then and there feloniously and fraudulently purchase on credit and receive and obtain of and from the said Horace, John, Edward, Horace, William, Dexter and Daniel, and from their possession the said goods, chattels and personal property, by color and by aid and by means of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Horace, John, Edward, Horace, William, Dexter and Daniel, of the same and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use.

Whereas in truth and in fact he, the said Samuel at the time of the making of the said false and fraudulent pretenses in the manner aforesaid was not able and did not have sufficient means to pay for the said goods, chattels and personal property, and was not then in solvent circumstances; but was in truth and in fact then and there wholly insolvent and unable to pay his just and lawful debts; and whereas in truth and in fact his sales during the said year 1883, did not according to any inventory of his business, by him taken in the said month of December 1883, amount to the value of at least one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars; and he did not at the time of the taking of any such inventory have goods, wares and merchandise of the actual value of at least thirty thousand dollars, and he did not have good outstanding accounts showing debts owing to him of the value of at least twenty thousand dollars, and did owe more than thirty thousand dollars; and at the time of taking the said inventory, nor at any time herein mentioned ~~he~~ ^{did} the said Samuel ~~did~~ ~~not~~ have a surplus of at least twenty thousand dollars; and whereas in truth and in fact he the said Samuel Steinweg, on the said second day of February, 1884, was not safely worth at least eighteen thousand dollars, and did owe more than twelve thousand dollars, and his liabilities, including money borrowed by him, at the said last mentioned time greatly exceed the said sum of twelve thousand dollars; and whereas in truth and in fact all the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Samuel to the said Horace, John, Edward, Horace, William, Dexter and Daniel, were in all things utterly false and untrue, as he the said Samuel then and there, to wit, at the time of the making of the same, in manner aforesaid, well knew. And so the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say that the said Samuel, the said goods, chattels and personal property, in manner and form aforesaid ~~did~~ feloniously, steal; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment do further accuse the said Samuel Steinweg of the same crime of Grand Larceny in the first degree, committed as follows:

0774

The said Samuel, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said second day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, twenty-four thousand seven hundred and fifteen yards of flannel of the value of twenty-five cents each yard; two thousand six hundred and fifty-eight yards of muslin of the value of nine cents each yard; eight hundred and forty-three yards of canton flannel of the value of ten cents each yard; two hundred and twenty-eight yards of jeans of the value of eighteen cents each yard; thirty-six yards of cloth of the value of one dollar each yard; twenty yards of silk of the value of two dollars each yard; four blankets of the value of two dollars and fifteen cents each and two comforters of the value of two dollars and thirty-four cents each, of the goods, chattels and personal property of Horace B. Claflin, John Claflin, Edward E. Eames, Horace J. Fairchild, William S. Dunn, Dexter N. Force and Daniel Robinson, then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the people of the State of New York and their dignity.
