PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

VERSUS

Bernard McManus

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself, and that my reasons are that previous to the occurrence of which I have complained herein, the defendant and myself worked together and were very friendly in our intercourse; that at the time of this occurrence we both had been drinking together and quarrelled. The defendant and myself worked in the stable where the defendant got the pitchfork with which he cut my hand and he was that day actually engaged therein.

I respectfully say that I was not seriously hurt merely in the hand, and I believe I has been already sufficiently punished therefor.

I therefore respectfully recommend the defendant to the Clemency of the Court and District Attorney. James Hennessy September 13, 1888.

Indictment for abduction.

Mary Smith sworn and examined. I live at 527 East 16th Street and was working in March of this year at McCobbs chocolate factory 22nd Street and Second Avenue, Mary Crawley was working there too, I saw the defendant in the latter part of March of this year in 11th St. between Avenue A and B, Mamie Crawley went with me to the house, I was standing down at the door and the defendant came down and told me to go upstairs, I went upstairs with her and Mary Crawley was standing by the lounge upstairs, I went into the room on the first floor back; there were three rooms there, a kitchen andtwo bed-rooms, I went into the kitchen first; there were three men in the bed-room; the defendant told me to go inside, I stood at the door and the three mencame out, two of the men hit me on account of my not going in with them; the defendant had not time to say anything to me when the three men rushed out; they were standing by the lounge; she locked the door when I came in and put the key in her pocket, then the three men came out they wanted me to go in with them and I would not go in, they did not say anything till they grabbed me, I commenced to holler, I did not know what they were going to do, one hit me in the face and the other kicked me, then Mrs. Miller kept this Frank back from hitting me and she put the two men out, she put Mamie Crawley out and she locked the door then and Frank got up and asked me to go into the bed-room with him for a minute, he wanted to talk to me, I did not want to go in but Mrs. Miller got hold of me and told me to go in, she would give me a dollar if I went in, then Frank told me he would give me five dollars, I commenced to holloa, he commenced to tear my dress and threw me on the bed, and there I was seduced in the bed by this man, he had carnal intercourse with me, Mrs. Miller was in the kitchen at the time, then I got up and Frank gave me fifty cents and he went out, I kept the fifty cents; then I felt kind of sick and she sent little Hannah down to the lager beer saloon and got some brandy for me, I laid down on the lounge and staid there till eight o'clock, then I got up and went home; it was six o'clock in the evening when I got to her house, Mary Crawley stood in the hall and she came in after Frank had left, Mary left the house with me. When I went to the house first Mary Crawley went upstairs first, then Mrs. Miller came down stairs and told me that Mamie was busy upstairs, sewing something, Mrs. Miller did not tell me what her name was, I did not hear anybody address her, Mrs. Miller told me to come the next day and I did at twelve o'clock; that was while I was working at the factory, Frank the man that I have spoken of as being in bed with me the day before was there and Mrs. Miller, Mary Crawley went with me, Mrs. Miller let me in, she told me to come in, I went in the bed-room with Frank and had intercourse with him again, I saw him give Mrs. Miller money before I went to bed, a dollar; I did not hear him say anything to her & Mrs. Miller didnot say anything to me the day before about Frank when she told me to come back, Frank went away and I staid about ten or fifteen minutes afterward and then I went out with Mamie back to work, I went to this house a few days after with Mamie, there was a strange man there, I do not know his name, I did not go to bed with him but Mamie did, I saw the man give money to Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Miller told me I could make seven or eight dollars a week and she would give me three or four dollars a week to stay away from work, I did not back to work I staid there. After this third day I did not go back to work in the chocolate factory but I went home nights; when I was working in the chocolate factory I took home my wages and when I worked for Mrs. Miller I took money home, I staid three months in East 11th Street with her, I went there every day and met men there every day and had intercourse with them every day, I saw those men pay money to Mrs. Miller, I heard them call her Mrs. Hoffman; this went on till June; she moved from 11th St. to 522 East 16th, opposite where my mother lives, I lived at home with my mother; she told me my mother that she wanted me to work, she used to be working on braid, she told Mama she was a decent woman and was giving me three ormfour dollars a week, that I suited her very much, Mama said all right, as lona as it was a decent place, I went every day over to Mrs. Miller's place and men came there while I was there, I had intercourse with these men and saw them pay money to Mrs. Miller, she went by the name of Miller, I went home nights to my mother, Mary Crawley was at 16th Street and at 11th Street all the time I was there, I went out in the street soliciting men and brought them into 16th Street and had intercourse with them after they paid money to Mrs. Miller; she only lived in 16th Street a month, she moved then to 415 East 9th Street, I went there with her and men came there and paid money to Mrs. Miller and they had intercourse with me, Mary Crawley was with me there and brought men to the house, Hannah Miller the daughter of the defendant was living there at the time, I remember the 20th of July, she came home from the country on the 20th of July, a Friday, Mary Crawley was there too. A man named Newman came in, Miller and Newman had a conversation; he said that he wanted a room, she says, all right; he paid her two dollars, he went in a bed-room next to the parlor and me and Mamie Crawley went in the room with him; he had intercourse with both of us and after that he went away; the Defendant went under the name of Miller in 9th St. While I was there I brought in men from the street and they paid money to Mrs. Miller and I had intercourse with them, that lasted a month in this house; she sent us out in the morning and she did not tell us she was going to move and when I came back she was gone, I did not see her since. One of the officers of the Society arrested me and Mary Crawley in the street, Officer Gardner went with me to look for Hannah Miller in Tompkins Park, we did not find Mrs. Miller. I left Mrs. Miller's house in the morning about nine o'clock and came back about half past one and found that her furniture and all were gone, I did not know where she moved to and did not see her till I saw her in Court, Mr Gardner and I went out one evening and we saw Hannah Miller about two or three weeks after the house was shut up, we went up to Hannah and we went up to the room of Mrs. Miller in Avenue B between 12th and 13th Sts., we saw Mrs. Miller; she asked me who the man was and I told her that he was my hus-band, that was Officer Gardner; she said no, she did not believe it, then she asked me if the man co me there with me and I did not answer her, she asked Mr Gardner did he want to go to bed and she would give him her room, so she asked him for the money, Mr Gardner said before she ever spoke to him, "we had better be ~~get~~ going; she said no, we had better stop a while, she would give him her room, she asked him for the money for the room, she asked him for a dollar and said he would have a nice time with me; then Gardner arrested her. When I told Mrs. Miller that Gardner was the gentleman who was going to marry me she said "oh yes, marry for a night or for an hour," she did not use any other word that I remember. I will be sixteen years old the 28th of next October.

Cross Examined. My mother is in Court. When the defendant was in 9th St. I staid out from home two weeks but during this time I saw my mother, I visited her in the day time, she went to visit me while I was staying in Mrs. Miller's house, she called about the 28th of July, I became acquainted with Mamie Crawley through a girl named Katie Ragan who lives at 510 East 18th St. I met Mary Crawley at Stuyvesant Park near Second Avenue, about two years ago, Katie and Mamie and I have been friends ever since, Katie Ragan has not been arrested. I had no talk with Mary Crawley about Mrs. Miller's house before she took me there, Mamie said the night that she went there that she left an umbrella and told me to stay at the door till she came down, she stopped up there too long and I called her and then Mrs. Miller came down to the door and said Mamie was busy upstairs and invited me up. I did not know the three men before and have never seen them since only Frank who was one of the three, his name is Frank Yale and he lives in 22nd St., I don't know the number; after the door was locked Frank did not hit me, it was the two other men that hit me, they were big men, Mrs. Miller put the two out, the two men only hit me, the three of them grabbed me first off, Mrs. Miller did not halloa but Mary Crawley and Hannah Miller did and I, as loud as we could, Mrs. Miller unlocked the door and put the two of them out and kept Frank, I staid there until about half past eight and went home, I did not tell my mother or anyone what happened to me, I had marks on my face where I had been hit, Mamie and Hannah spoke to me about it, a few days after my mother noticed it, there was a black mark, I never told my mother I had been assaulted. Mrs. Miller put Mamie out this night but she came in through the bed-room window, I was not in the bed-room into which Mary climbed but I heard the glass breaking, this was in the 11th St. house, it is a tenement house and Mrs. Miller occupied the kitchen and two rooms there. The man gave me money, I did not bring it home, I kept it. When Mrs. Miller put these two men out I tried to go out and during all this time I was screaming. This was about half past seven in the evening, I hallooed and tried to get out but she held me back; Mary and I do not often go to Stuyvesant Park but sometimes we walk on Second Avenue evenings near Stuyvesant Park. I met Mr. Gardner on Third Avenue near Second Street about nine o'clock in the evening. I left the chocolate factory in March and have not gone to work since, I worked for M5 Cortis last summer; the girl that ot me there went to Portland to see her mother and when she came back in four months I went away. I made no arrangement with Frank to meet me again after the first time I saw him. I was hurt and bruised by the ~~se~~ people who assaulted me and I felt sick. During the time that I visited Mrs. Miller's house I went to her house in 3rd St., it was a cream saloon and a house of prostitution, I did not visit any other house, I met a man in the 3rd St. house. I lived in Mrs. Mills house in East 16th St. for a month and during all that time I went out in the day time, I picked up men and brought them past my mother's house, I never had a talk with my mother about it, I never saw my mother on the street during the day. I saw Newman in 16th Street twice, and saw him altogether three times, I met him through Mr Hahn, Hahn is another man I have been acquainted with, Mr Newman introduced Mr Miller to me, I did not ask Newm to visit me, Mr Hahn gave me a letter and told Mamie ~~to~~ and me to go up to Newmans office, that he was very fond of young girls, I went to Newman's office on Second Ave, that was the first time I met Newman, after I had met him the first time I did not make an appointment with him to visit him again, we next met him on the street, he wanted to bring us to a bad house, me and Mamie, and we would not go, this ws the second time he saw me in the street, in July and the third time I saw him in Mrs. Miller's house, he was there when I came but not by appointment, he found out Mrs. Miller through Mr. Hahn, Hahn keeps in 15th Street and he told us he worked in a jewelry store, he had a place of business in 16th Street where he gave me this letter to Newman, he told me it was a shop, I did not go there; Mr Hahn came down to Mrs. Miller's house and he gave it to me and Mamie and that is where we got acquainted with Mr. Newman. The last time I saw Newman was on the 20th of July. He was alone, I had a talk with him; when we were through he gave us money. Katie Ragan and Mamie Higgins came in the kitchen and he wanted to know who those were and I told him; so he wanted to go out and get them in, so me and Mamie says "no, Mrs. Miller would not like it", so he asked Mrs. Miller and she said yes, bring them in the room, so he said he would not come to Mrs. Miller's any more on account of her being too dear, and that is all he said to me only he said he would meet me out doors. I occupied a room with him that time, he did not force me, I met Mr Newman last in 9th Street. I have been at the Society's home for some time, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, I have spoken about what occurred to me in these different places to Mr Stocking and Mr Gardner, I had no talk with any person with reference to what I was going to say here to-day, I will be at the Society's home six weeks to-morrow, I never left it, I have not been to Central Park I do not know if Mary Crawley has been to Central Park while I have been up there, I know she ran away from there, she was away about three weeks, she had been away from the house a day, I don't know where she was caught. I was dressed in the same way that I am dressed now when I visited Mrs. Miller's house on the 20th of July, I have on the same dress and hat. I was not present at the conversation which my mother had with Mrs. Miller when my mother came over to see her on the 28th of July, I was too much afraid of my brother and Mama to tell her about my going to Mrs. Miller's, Mrs. Miller toldme to say to my mother that I had my monthlys. Kate Ragan and Mamie Higgins came to this house in July and went to bed with men. I have talked with Asst. Dist. Atty. Jerome about this case. I was afraid of my brother and mother because they used to be too strict with me.

Brother Gabriel sworn. I live 173 East 3rd St., I am a lay brother of the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, the rector of that church is Rev. Andrew Ziegler, I have seen him write every day, he has charge of the books, the registry of baptisms and everything. The paper now shown me is his signature, this instrument has the seal of the church on it, I saw Father Ziegler write that, he is living now at the church, he has been there four years, Rev. Mr. Preis was one of the assistant priests, he is stationed in Baltimore now in the Bohemian church .

Mr. Jerome: I offer the certificate in evidence.

The Court: You had better get the register, you have not proved the register yet. .

Mary Smith recalled. The first time that I ever saw Mrs. Miller was the time when Mary Crawley had left the umbrella there.

Mary Crawley sworn and examined. I live at 608 East 16th Street and know Mary Smith, I worked at the chocolate factory with her in March of this year, I went with her to Mrs. Miller's house in East 11th Street in March, Mrs. Miller told me a couple of days before that to come there, there was going to be a man there, I sat down and was talking to Mrs. Miller, I told her I could not wait, I came for the umbrella which I had left the night before, I said I had someone waiting for me down stairs and she said she would go down and tell them to come up; she went down and brought up Mary Smith; there were three men in the room when I first went in; when Mrs. Miller came up with Mary Smith they ran for her and two of the men hit her in the face, Mrs. Miller was trying to part them and she put two of the men out and kept one in, Frank Yale, then she put me out and I screamed, she locked the door and put the key in her pocket and then went through the bed-room window, I was in the hall about half an hour before I went through the bed-room window, I saw Mary Smith lying on the sofa and Frank was just going out then, Mrs. Miller was in the room, she said that Mary felt sick and she sent Hannah out for some brandy, Hannah came back with the brandy and gave it to Mary and Mary staid on the sofa until about half past seven, I did not hear Frank Yale say anything to Mrs. Miller but I saw him give her money, a dollar, Mary and I went home about half past eight, Mrs Miller told Mary not to say anything about what happened; she said she would not tell her folks; Mary told her that she never was in with anyone before, that she did not know what was the matter with her and Mrs. Miller told her to say that it was the monthlys; nothing else was said and then we went home , Mrs Miller told Mary to come back the next day, that the man wanted to see her the next day, Mary said that she did not know whether she would come back or not, me and Mary Smith went to Mrs. Miller's room the day after that, Frank Yale was there and he asked Mary to go in with him and she did , Mrs. Miller was in the same room where Frank and we were. Mrs. Miller asked him if he wanted to go in and he said yes, he gave Mrs. Miller a dollar before he went in the room, Mary and he were in there about half an hour I guess, he came out and said that he would see her the week after that, he said something else to Mrs. Miller but I did not hear what it was. After that we left our work and went to Mrs. Miller's she told us to be there the next day, there was going to be two men there, Mary Smith and I went and Frank Yale was there.

The witness was examined at great length as to her visits to Mrs. Miller's rooms in 9th Street and 16th St. and testified substantially to the same facts sworn to by Mary Smith.

Hannah Miller sworn and examined. I am ten years old, I went to a Sunday School picnic; on the 20th of July I came home from the country and went to my mother's house 415 East 9th Street, I saw Mary Smith, Mary Cawley and Mr. Newman there, he went in the bed-room with the two girls, I went out for brandy for Mary Smith, I went to a wine store across the street, I paid ten cents for the brandy and gave it to Mama and she gave it to Mary Smith; was she sick and laid on the lounge. This was at 415 East 9th Street, I go to the school corner of Avenue A and10th Street; Miss Ray is my teacher, I have been going to that school five or six years..

She went to work for this woman the first of April of this year, she lived in 527 and I lived in 522; my little girl told me that she hired her for cutting passamentre on dresses. When the woman moved from 16th Street to 9th Street she sent a little girl to me and told me that Hannah was going to the country and to let Mary stay with her two weeks, she was afraid all alone and Mary staid with her for two weeks; afterwards Mrs. Miller came herself to me and said she was afraid to sleep all alone in the house and Mary would be all right, I said, "be very careful of Mary not to let her out in the evenings to the boys because I did not want the child to be displaced on the street", she answered me that she would be careful of her and I gave her my daughter.

A Juror was withdrawn and the prisoner pleaded guilty to the indictment.

Testimony in the case of Lizzie Miller filed Aug. 1, 1895.
