THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE
IN AND FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE
VS
HERBERT BOWEN.

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

STATEMENT OF CASE.

HERBERT BOWEN, otherwise known as "Daisy" Bowen, is indicted for committing the vile offence of CRIME AGAINST NATURE with one John G. Cranfield, at 251 West 32nd Street, on March 24th, 1892.

WITNESSES:
Edward V. Gormley,
William A. Finn.

EDWARD V. GORMLEY, an officer of the N. Y. S. P. C. C., will testify:

That while at No. 251 West 32nd Street, on March 24th, 1892, he was solicited by the said defendant "Daisy" Bowen to go into another room with himself (defendant) or with the above named Cranfield, where they would remove their clothing and carnally know Witness. That witness paid Three Dollars to the said Cranfield, who admitted being the proprietor of the establishment; but he (witness) declined to take any part in the "entertainment". They (defendant and Cranfield) thereupon removed all their clothing and went through several disgusting acts of carnally knowing each other in the presence of Witness.

That he was also present at 251 West 32nd Street, on the 26th day of March, 1892, and assisted in making the arrest of the inmates of the house, among whom were the defendant and the said John G. Cranfield.

WILLIAM A. FINN, an officer of The N. Y. S. P. C. C., will testify:

That on March 23rd, 1892, he visited No. 251 West 32nd Street, and was then and there solicited by one John G. Cranfield either to take himself (Cranfield) or the defendant (Bowen), generally called "Daisy", into the rear room, where they could have a "lovely" time for the sum of $5.00. That he paid Cranfield $4. for the privilege of taking the defendant (the said "Daisy") into the room referred to where "Daisy" divested himself of nearly all his clothing, exposed his person and solicited Witness to do likewise that he (defendant) might carnally know Witness. That the said Cranfield admitted being the proprietor of the place and said that $2. of the sum paid was due him for room rent and that the remaining $2. was for the defendant, "Daisy". That Witness declined to do as requested, and soon after withdrew from the house.

That another visit was made to the house on March 25th, 1892, when both the defendant and Cranfield again solicited Witness to go to bed with either of them for the purpose of carnally knowing each other, which Witness again declined to do and promised to call again.

That on March 26th, 1892, Witness obtained a "Disorderly House" warrant, and accompanied by Officer Gormley of The S. P. C. C. and several police officers, raided the premises No 251 West 32nd Street, and arrested the inmates, among whom were the defendant, the said Herbert, or "Daisy", Bowen and the said Cranfield.

Court of General Sessions. Pitt
Before Judge Cowing April 19, 1892
Indictment for assault in the second degree.

William Von Puttkamer, sworn and examined.
I live at No. 33 Bedford street in this city.
I am the Treasurer of the Salvation Army, the food and shelter department, open for helping the poor. They have a place of meeting at 33 Bedford St. where I live above the shelter. It was on the 5th of April that this trouble occurred with the defendant about half past one in the afternoon; there was no meeting in the lower rooms; we use the lower rooms for shelter; it is an ancient church. It is the old Berean Baptist church, corner of Downing and Bedford Sts. We allow poor people to come in and sit down and read; we have sleeping apartments there too. The defendant has been lodging with us three nights; he was there two nights before this trouble. On this night he was in an intoxicated condition, he was sitting in the reading room. My attention was called by the waiter and another man named Robert Little, who is a witness here, that the man was making a nuisance on the floor, urinating on the floor. I saw him doing it, he was just in the act of committing the nuisance. I went up to him and tried to arouse him; he was in an intoxicated condition. I said, "go and leave the place;" because intoxicated people are not allowed there. He resisted and called me names and said he would not go out. He told me he had been missing some money. I told him to put his hand in his pocket and see if he had any money. He took out a paper of chewing or smoking tobacco. I led him by the arm to the door turning him out, and as I led him back he turned around, he lifted missiles and stones from the street and turned back and threw them at me. I was standing in the door way with my back turned to him, he came back again into the floor and there I put my left hand upon him and he would not turn round. In the same moment I tried to put my right hand. I felt little fire running through my arm, and at the same moment I felt a kind of tremor. I could not open my hand, so that some man present had to open my hand. I saw at once I was stabbed. It was a small severe cut the doctor said. The fingers are numb, I cannot move them now. I can hardly use the hand, it did not bleed. Tell me about the nature of the wound? I felt this like fire running through the arm, my hand derelict up like a cramp or spasm. I said I was stabbed. Some man opened my hand and told me to go right down to the doctor. In the mean time policeman Kelly's attention was called to it, and the man being across the street in the saloon he was arrested. Going to the police station I fainted in the street, and in the Police Station they had to call an ambulance from St. Vincent's hospital and the doctor feared lock jaw. I did not go to the Hospital; the doctor came there; he put one stitch in, that was on the 5th of April; over two weeks ago, the wound is just closed, yet I am hardly able to do anything with my hand. I can hardly write, and that is my business. I have told you all that I recollect. When I took him by the arm I simply took hold of him. I did not strike him any blows.

Cross examined. When I put my hand on him the second time to turn him out I felt that I was stabbed. I grabbed him with my left hand on his right shoulder. I was going to grab him with the right hand and the moment I tried to put my hand on his body I felt it on my body. I did not see the knife. I am treasurer and peace-keeper in this place. Have been connected with the Salvation Army since 1883. I am second in charge, the first in charge is called the staff Captain. It is my duty to see that the parties who come in there behave themselves. We do not "fire" people out of there. I tell them to go and if they refuse to do so, I call the attention of the police officer and they are removed. We do not use force to any man. I did not see the defendant come in. I saw him making water on the floor. I first asked him quietly to get up and he refused. I gently propelled him to the door and he refused. I did not use any force. I have not the knife but I understand it was handed to the officer.

William Pickering, sworn and examined. I live at 33 Bedford Street at the present time and I am connected with the Salvation Army as waiter on the poor people that come there for meals. I was there on the 5th of April, the date ~~between~~ the alleged occurrence between the complainant and the defendant. The prisoner was under the influence of liquor, which we term very drunk.

He was sitting in a chair, and while in that position he committed a nuisance on the floor by urinating. It was not my duty to remove the man from the building, but to report the case to the special officer in charge, which I did. The complainant was on duty in the absence of the Staff Captain. He went forward immediately and kindly remonstrated with the man for doing this action on the floor. The defendant immediately turned round very ugly, the same as a drunken man would, and wanted to push the complainant away from him. The complainant took him by the arm and led him out of the building; when he got to the door he pushed him gently from the gateway, and the defendant turned round and threw stones at the complainant. He (the defendant) came back again inside the gate, and when he came back the second time the Baron (the complainant) kindly pushed him from the gate the second time, and when he was in the act of pushing him, from the gate he says, "Oh, I am hurt." I immediately gave orders to go for an officer to arrest this man for committing this action on our floor. I looked at the complainant.

hand. I found a wound there which would be produced by a sharp knife; it was an incised wound. I did not see the knife.

Cross Examined. I did not see any one cut the complainant but I saw him after it was done. He said at the gate, "I am cut." The charge for meals two cents up to ten cents according to what you eat. I have not seen the knife. Patrick J. Kelly, sworn. I am an officer connected with the Ninth precinct. I arrested the defendant in a liquor saloon corner of Bedford and Downing streets that is the corner opposite to where the complainant lives, right opposite to the Salvation army church. The defendant when I entered the saloon had a glass of beer in front of him at the bar. He was under the influence of liquor. My attention was called to him by this complainant saying he was stabbed. I says, "Who stabbed you?" He says, "I do not know." I says, "Where is he?" He says, "he is over in that liquor store." I went over there and I said to the complainant, "Is this the man?" He says, "yes, that is the man that stabbed me." I took him out of the liquor store. I says, "Where is that knife you stabbed him with?" He says, "I did not stab him. On my way to the station house within two blocks of the station house he gave the knife up to me. I looked for it today and it was misplaced some place. It was not a pocket knife; ^{it was} about six inches long. There was no handle to it, and the blade part of the knife was tapered very sharp on the point - the whole knife was about six inches long. Before I left the station house I searched for the knife; it has been mislaid or lost. I did not send the knife to the property clerk. It had no handle attached to it at all. What was the gripping portion of it? It was a wide space about the width of my finger. It was of the style of the French shoe makers without any handle, one solid piece of steel. I took the defendant to the station house and the complainant followed up behind; he fell in a faint or a fit. I looked behind me, and as I looked around there was half a dozen of men (brother officers) came in for their meals returning to the station house I called them and I gave the complainant in charge of them to look after him; they took him to the station house; he came too. I told the facts to the Sergeant. He asked me did he need an ambulance? I told him, "yes;" so he sent for an ambulance then..

What did the defendant say at the station house? He did not say anything further.

Cross Examined. I have never been in the leather or cutlery business. I have not arrested many men for cutting others. I cannot distinguish between an American, German or French shoe maker's knife. This knife that I took to the station house did not look like a common table knife to me. I was at the corner of Laraine street, only half a block from where this thing occurred. It was not five minutes after this occurred when I arrested the man in the liquor store opposite the Salvation army headquarters.

Anthony Burgoyne, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. Have been in this country 36 years and am a native of France. I am a cutter and shoe fitter. I have never been in trouble before and have always been a law abiding citizen. I never raised my hand to man, woman or child. I remember the day previous to my arrest purchasing a knife corner of Bleeker and Green streets in a junk shop for one penny. Since my sight failed me I cannot work at my trade and I was selling vegetables. Had an order for $2.50 worth of dumplings. I pick them out in the country. I sell them to French families and French restaurants - one on 26th St. and two on 25th St. There was another Frenchman with me to pick the dumplings; we divided the money between us. I could not pick them all myself; so I took the other man to help me and deliver them before dinner. After we had them sold we went down Sixth Avenue. He told me that he wanted to go to the Salvation army headquarters lodginghouse to deposit his basket and bags. We both went down after drinking wine in the French restaurant where I sold a dollar's worth of dumplings. The wine which I took on an empty stomach made me sick. We went into the Salvation army place and he went around the lunch counter and deposited his basket there. I sat at the table. He came to me and asked me if I felt any better? I told him, no, I felt like vomiting. He asked me if a glass of liquor would do me any good? I said, no it would not, for I never drank any liquor in my life, maybe once in a year. He said, I feel hungry and I want to get some dinner. I said, "Why don't you eat in here?" He said, "What they keep in here is no food; I would sooner go to a good restaurant for a regular dinner;" so he went. I said, I don't feel hungry, I will wait for you till you come back. He was only out three or four minutes when I vomited on the floor unexpectedly. A young man saw me vomiting and ten minutes afterwards the complainant came to me and shook me by the shoulder telling me that I had urinated on the floor. I told him no, I had vomited. I did not urinate there. Then he took hold of me by the coat and the other man took hold of me on the left side and they lifted me off the chair and they carried me to the door and jerked me out. Then they shut the railing of the gate and the inside door and I was standing on the corner without a hat. Then this man cut himself in the hand came out inside the railing and threw my hat over the railing. I picked it up and stood on the corner waiting for my friend to come back.

fully fifteen minutes, and seeing that my friend was not coming back they were inside the railing on the Bedford street side laughing and mocking me. I said to myself, I might as well go in the liquor store and I will see my friend coming. When I was in the liquor store there was several men drinking. They asked me what happened in the Salvation army? I said I did what I explained already and they began calling me names. I did not pay any attention to what they said. Then they said that there were rars there every day and men were ejected during the night after paying for their lodging. I called for a glass of beer and started to get a cigar when I saw the complainant going out from the gate, turn around the corner towards Carmine St. I did not pay any attention to where he was going and stayed there by my glass of beer. He came in with the officer and pointed me out, saying that I had cut him in the hand. I did not cut him; he cut himself. I did not throw a stone or anything else at him. There was

Three or four boys throwing stones at one another, and some went behind the railing.

Cross Examined. I am two weeks now in the Imbo.

I paid seven cents a night for my lodging at the Salvation army rooms. I was waiting for my friend to come back, and I did not want to wait in the liquor store without ordering something. I did not go back to the place the second time. When the complainant threw my hat over the railing I went back for it.

It is not true that I picked up a stone and fired it. I heard the two witnesses testify to that, but it is not so. I saw the doctor at the station house, but I did not see the cut on the complainant. I was too far away at the desk. I never had the knife in my hand from the time I stopped picking dandelions until I handed it to the officer. I repeat that the wine which I took on an empty stomach made me sick.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree.

The defendant was sent to the penitentiary for four months.
