State of New York City & County of New York } of

L. A. Newcome being duly sworn Says I reside at - No 44 Lane in the City of New York on or about July 10th 1880 I was retained to watch the House No 24 East 24th Street for the purpose of discovering the character of its inmates and the nature of the business carried on there Between the date of my retainer and Sept 25th 1880 I have had the house under surveillance the house in question is kept by Mrs St. George and is so kept for purpose of Prostitution on the 20th of July 1880 I in company with a friend of mine rang the door bell and was admitted by Mrs St. George to whom I said that I had made an appointment with some girls to meet us there and asked if we could be furnished with rooms for enjoying their company. She said yes.. and asked us to take a seat in the parlor where we remained for nearly half an hour. I then called Mrs St. George and told her that our lady friends had evidently disappointed us and asked if she had no girls in the house. She replied that she had one. and called her in. She answered to the name of Penny. Before she came in I asked Mrs St. George what price she charged for her rooms and services in procuring girls. She replied I charge $2.00 when a couple occupy a room for a short time and $5.00 when they remain all night - I then talked with Fanny who urged me to accompany her up stairs for the purpose of illicit connections she told me that her charge would be $5.00 and that I could find her there any time. I called on asking Mrs St George for her - upon the pretext that we desired two girls or none. we then left saying we would return upon some other day on the 13th of August 1880 in company with James Hughes No 317 East 21st Street New York I again visited No 24 East 24th Street and was shown into the parlor where Mrs St George soon entered she recognized me and shook hands I asked for Fanny to which she replied she was out of town but would be back next week I then asked her to furnish us two girls she said yes she would be glad to do so but the house is now having another story put upon it is all in disorder and I cannot accommodate you tonight we told her we would come again and retired on the 22nd of September in company with James Hughes I called at the Same House Mrs St George opened the door and showed us into the parlor. She said she was sorry but she had no girls for us, that all her rooms which were fit for use were then occupied except one, which had just been engaged by a gentleman who had gone out to bring his lady to pass the night. You see gentleman said she. I have to be very careful, people that keep houses of this sort in such a neighborhood dare not keep the gas turned up. I am watched all the time by the neighbors and if they see anything out of the way they will proceed against me. I would like to accommodate you with girls but my upper rooms are not done yet and all my lower rooms are taken so I cannot do anything for you tonight. I asked for Jenny and Mrs St George said she was still out of town. I then asked her if she could not direct us to another house of prostitution [saying a house like yours] where we could be accommodated. She said go to Mrs Ockermans No 154 East 22nd Street. She keeps a nice house of this kind and don't have to be so careful as I am. She gave me one of her cards bearing her name and address and at her dictation I wrote upon it the address of the House which she gave me. She told me to present it at the door and we would be admitted we went to the addresses indicated and on presenting the card were admitted and taken to a parlor where we found a number of women, who immediately surrounded us and urged us to accompany them to their bedroom. They said their charge would be $10⁰⁰ for each upon the pretext that this was too high we left them and the house.

0249

0251

During the time I have watched the house 24 B. 24th St. it has been frequented during the afternoon and until late at night by men and women who usually entered in couples some remaining a short time while others remained until the next morning.

the following property, viz:

Material for cloaking consisting of black beaver and trimmings for fifty six cloaks said Silberstein being a tailor, did receive from one Cohen foreman for said firm the property in question with the instructions and understanding that said goods when made up into cloaks were to be returned to deponent's firm. That said Received as a loan thereon the Sum of fifty four dollars and Seventy five cents as deponent is informed and verily believes such belief being based on the three pawn tickets representing said

Silberstein as a loan on said property

Therefore deponent charges said Silberstein with having taken stolen
