The defendant, William Callahan, above named demurs to the indictment presented by the Grand

City and County of New York, J. William H. Rooney, being duly sworn doth depose and say that he is the attorney of the defendant herein: that on the 19th day of June 1885, said defendant, through deponent, demanded an examination of the charge on which he is held herein, and has since been indicted, and on said demand Police Justice O'Reilly sitting at the 1st Police Court at the Tombs, held said defendant to bail in the sum of five hundred dollars pending such examination: That said examination was set down for, and was held on the 24th day of June 1885: that notes thereof were was bound over for the Grand Jury: that on the 26th the early part of the succeeding, viz the present, week: That deponent learned on the 30th day of June 1885, that the complainant herein had been summoned before the Grand Jury for that day: That deponent immediately called on said stenographer, and was informed by him that he had not as yet written out said examination, and he same had not been sent to the Grand Jury, or this Court: but that by mistake of another clerk of said Police Court, the complaint and other papers herein had been so sent.

That deponent called upon the District Attorney as soon as possible, and notified him of said mistake, but said District Attorney was unable to interfere in the matter or correct said mistake, because the Grand Jury had already acted upon the case of said defendant.

Deponent further says that the case of the defendant was greatly prejudiced by reason of being acted on by said Grand Jury, without said examination being before it, as deponent verily believes, and deponent therefore charges that said indictment was improperly and illegally found by said Grand Jury, and should be set aside.

Michael Cannon
Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.
Court of General Sessions. Part 7.
Before Judge Cowing. July 16. 1885.
William Dougherty, sworn and examined, testified: Where do you live? In Brooklyn. Were you in this city on the 3^d of July? Yes sir. Did you see the defendant on that day? I do not know as I have. Did you lose a frock coat on that day? Yes. What was the value of it? About a dollar. State the circumstances under which you lost it? I was tight when I lost it. Was it yours? Yes. Where were you? The officer said Mulberry St. Do you know who took it? No sir.
Have you seen that coat since? Yes sir, I have got it on. When did you first see it after you missed it? The next morning in the station house. Did you identify it as yours? Yes. certainly. I do not know who took it, but it was taken by somebody without my permission. Cross Examined: You say you were drunk, is that so? Yes sir. Whereabouts were you, what part of the city? I could not say where I was when I lost the coat. What is the last hour you recollect that day where you were? About eight o'clock in the evening.
I don't know where I was at five, six or seven o'clock. I was in Brooklyn in the morning.
Had you drunk in Brooklyn? No sir.

The last time I recollect being sober on that day was about 8 o'clock. I must have gone to sleep when I was drunk; the last I recollect was seven or eight o'clock in the evening. This was on the 3^d of July. I don't recollect where I was when I lost my senses. I don't recollect whether I took off my coat and made a pillow of it. I don't know whether I had my coat when I went to sleep.

John L. Krauch sworn. I am a police officer of the Sixth precinct and arrested the defendant. I was passing by Mulberry St about 11.30 at night on July 3, Friday evening. I saw Mr Doherty lying in the hallway. I passed on up Mulberry St. and he had a coat on him in the hallway of No 29. So coming back the coat was missing. and I woke him up and asked him where his coat was. He was too drunk to answer me. I shook him up, and I saw the prisoner walking out of some hallway into a saloon. So after that I walked in and took the prisoner out of the saloon and asked him where he had this man's coat? He said, "no." I looked and he had this man's coat on his back, and he had the one he has on now at the same time. I asked him where he got the top coat from and he said his sister gave it to him. I brought the prisoner and the complainant into the station house, and there the complainant identified his coat. The complainant said he lost money. I searched the prisoner and found none on him. Cross Examined. I saw the complainant lying in the hallway.

Michael Cannon sworn and examined.
On the evening of the third of July I met a friend on the corner of North and Mulberry sts. about six o'clock in the evening and went to the saloon 27 Mulberry st. to have a glass of beer and we stayed there talking for about a couple of hours at the bar. A young man came in with a coat on his arm and he asked if any one wanted to buy a coat and I says, "Let me look at it," and when I looked at it I asked him how much he wanted for it, and he said he wanted half a dollar. I says, "All the money I have is half a dollar and I want to ride uptown and down again with ten cents of it." I gave him forty cents for the coat and put it on my arm. I had it only ten minutes when the officer had a man arrested on the other side of the street. Going down I was standing at the corner

0260

He came over and asked me where I got the coat? I did not know what he meant. I said, "I got it from my sister." His one I did get from my sister, had the other one over this. He said, "you lie, come along with me." He brought the two of us to the station house; there he took off the coat, and this gentleman recognized it as his coat. He said there he lost nine dollars and all that was the ten cents I kept out of the half dollar. I never was arrested before and I am seventeen years in the city of New York. I never was in a criminal Court before. I always worked hard for my living. I am twelve years steamboating, and most of the time I worked for the Stonington line. I could not say who the boy was I bought the coat from. I never saw him before. I got a bargain in the coat. I should judge it was about eight o'clock when I was arrested. I was in the saloon 27 Mulberry street. Have you got any witnesses here? No sir. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny, and the prisoner was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.
