Affidavit—Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY
OF NEW YORK, ss.and 31 years. Mary Hogan of No. 224 Elizabeth Street, Funist Dealer being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 6 day of March 1884 at the premises No 224 Elizabeth in City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession, of deponent and person of deponent with intent to deprive the time and lawful owner of these and benefit thereof the following property, viz:A pocketbook containing good and lawful money of the United States consisting of one bill of the denomination and value of five dollars, and several bills of divers denominations and values to the amount of about fifteen dollars and several coins of divers denominations and values in all to the amount and of the value of twenty seven cents in all to the amount and of the value of twenty dollars and twenty *seven cents*the property of deponent and her husbandJames Hogan and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Gaetana Zottarellifrom the fact that on the above date at or about the hour of three o'clock P.M. ~~on the above date~~ the said Gaetana entered deponent's store situated at the said premises, and immediately before she entered deponent had said pocketbook containing said money in her hand and put the same in the pocket of the dress then and then worn on the body of deponent. That deponent exhibited some oil cloth to said Gaetana and while doing so the said Gaetana approached closely to deponent and immediately after said deponent left said place deponent discovered upon putting her hand into said pocket that the said pocketbook containing said quilt was stolen from her. Deponent further says that from the time the last said said pocketbook containing said quilt was stolen until the time she discovered the same to have been stolen no person other than said Gaetana was near the body of deponent and she therefore charges that the said Gaetana did take and carry away said property from the person and possession of deponent and asks that said Gaetana may be dealt with according to law.
