24
 The People v. John McManus } Court of General Sessions, Part I Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree. Before Recorder Smythe. Feb. 15, 1883.
 Andrew L. Wallace sworn and examined.
 I reside at present in 86 Bowery. I am a clerk in the employ of Kerr & Co.; they are in the hotel business; on the 1st of Feb. I was in charge of the office there; there were two overcoats in that office that day; the value of my coat was fifteen dollars and I judge the other was worth forty dollars. The coat, which was not mine, was in my care and custody at that time. At what time on that day did you last see these overcoats? I took my own off when I came into the office at one o'clock in the afternoon and the other one was there at that time. I missed them in the afternoon. I should judge about five or six o'clock. I found one of the overcoats since in Simpsons on Chatham St.; it was the most valuable of the coats - not mine; my own coat I found in a pawn shop in Mott St. about the 4th of the month. My coat was found the day before yesterday. Mr. Waight identified his overcoat. There were two coats that were hung up in the office at one o'clock on the first of February? Yes sir.

Cross Examined. My coat was worth fifteen dollars when I purchased it. When did you buy that overcoat? About two months ago. I have had it in use during this winter. The other coat did not belong to a guest in the house; he was a friend of one of the proprietors of the house; he left the coat hanging up. You do not know of your own knowledge what he paid for that coat do you? Except what I heard I knew it was a new coat and had not been worn only once. I was there when he left it there. I judge the value of the coat to be forty dollars. I have bought overcoats and know something of the value of them; it was a brand new coat.

James O'Connor sworn and examined testified. Where do you live? No 86 Bowery, the same place as the last witness. I am not employed at that hotel. I was there on the first day of February and saw the prisoner that day. At what hour did you see him that day? Between the hours of one and two o'clock. Did you see any property in possession of the prisoner at the bar at that time? Two overcoats; he had one overcoat and some other man who was with him had another overcoat. What were they doing? They went to the office; he went to the office; he took one overcoat and the other man took the other. I saw them talking together and they went out together. You are quite positive that this is one of the two persons that you saw do that? Yes sir. Were you in the hotel at the time? Yes sir. I was not in the office, I was in the reading room. I could see the office right straight up from there. Did you see these two men come in? Yes sir. They came in together. Yes sir. How did they get the overcoat?

They asked me if there was any dominoes? I told them, yes; they went up to the office. Who asked you if there was dominoes? That man at the bar. The prisoner asked you if there was any dominoes? Yes sir. What else did he say? He did not say anything else. What did the other man do? He came up and said he could not get any. Did you tell him where the dominoes were? Yes sir. Where? In the office. Did they both come to the office from the reading room? Yes sir. What happened then, did they come back again to where you were? Yes sir. and they had a conversation and they walked back and the next thing I seen they had the overcoats. How did they carry the overcoats? They put them on them. Each man put the overcoat on? Yes sir. What did they do? They walked out. With the overcoats on their back? Yes sir. John Crook, sworn and examined, testified. You are a special officer of the Sixth precinct? Yes sir. I made the arrest of the prisoner. Tell the jury what you know of this matter of your own knowledge? I arrested them. When did you arrest them? On Sunday the 4th of this month. Did you search them? I woke Mr. M^c Mannus out of bed, he was undressed, and I arrested him on the information I got from Mr. Wallace. Did you have any conversation with the prisoner? Yes. The day he was brought in this Court to plead he gave me information by which I recovered Wallace's coat. He said Daniel Reddy was with him and he pawned the coat at Simpson's in Chatham square for six dollars and Reddy pawned

Wallace's coat for three dollars in Mott St. I went to these places and the coats were recovered.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

Officials have any power of discrimination in the premises, a life so young, should not be forever blighted, by being consigned to the ordinary State Prison, where a hardening, instead of a reforming process, is sure to be the result. Should a conviction be had in his case, I earnestly hope you will do whatever may be in your power, to have him sent to some reformatory, in which even, the brand of States Prison Bird, would not forever follow him, thwarting thereafter, every laudable desire, and effort to re-establish himself among his fellow men, and making it impossible for him to become a useful member of society.

Hon John R. Fellows {
Asst Dist Attorney } Dear Sir

Referring to the case of the young man, McMillan of whom I spoke to you a few days ago in the Court House, I desire to enlist your good offices in his behalf, so far as you may be able and willing to use the same in a manner which shall be consistent with your duties as a public officer. I write from a very sad home, where his Mother is nearly heart broken, where a Sister is bowed to the very dust in grief and shame, and where a heretofore happy family is stricken as with death, by this terrible blow. I do not know the extent of the charges against, nor will I attempt to excuse his act, but do respectfully submit, that if the proper

The People
v.
Thomas Melville

Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Judge Cowing. Feb. 20. 1883.
Indictment for assault in the first degree
John Doolley sworn and examined, testified
Where do you live? No 195 Mulberry St.
What is your occupation? I own an express wagon. Do you know the prisoner, Melville?
Yes sir. Did you see him on the 5th of Feb.
last? Yes sir. Whereabouts did you see him?
I seen him up in the room - in the girl's room that fetched me there; he bursted open the door. Where was this girl's room? No 56 Bleecker St. Did he get inside the room? Yes
sir. What occurred, if anything between you after he got inside the room? Nothing; he said he wanted to get his clothes and go away. I got up and I says, "Dont be mad with me - dont have any hard feelings against me. What did he reply to that?
He did not say anything. He went over to the drawer and said he was going to get his clothes. He ran with a razor when he struck the drawer and he says, "you son - I'll cut your throat," and as he did he made a dash. I put up my hand and he cut me right here (in the left hand). Had done nothing; he said it was his girl. I did not try to strike him.

Cross Examined. Do you know a man named Thomas Gill? Yes sir. Do you know him to be the proprietor of Dramatic Hall in East Houston St.? Yes sir, 46 and 48 Houston St. Are you not there every night? No sir. Are you not there every evening? No sir. Have you been there during the past week? O. I have been there all this week. Were you employed there? No sir. Have you not acted as a sort of floor walker or Superintendent for the proprietor of Dramatic hall? No sir. Have you not acted in the capacity of putting people out of there? No sir, unless the man asked me to help him to take a drunken man out and I would do so. Do you know a girl named Katie Clark? Yes sir. Have you ever seen her in dramatic hall? Yes sir. Is she in Court today? Yes. Did you ever see the prisoner in Dramatic Hall? Yes sir. Don't you know that the room you were in with this girl was occupied and paid for by the prisoner? She told me that she left this man. Did you know it was his room? No sir. Did not you hear it was his room before you had this quarrel with him? No sir. How long have you been acquainted with each other? I knew him about a year. Do you know that the was keeping company with this girl Katie Clark? Yes sir. Did you ever see Katie Clark in Dramatic Hall? Yes sir. When did you last see her there? I seen her last Sunday. When did you last see her and the prisoner together at Dramatic Hall? About a month ago. I did not lock the door of the room the night I went into it with this girl but she did; the prisoner came home about three o'clock in the morning. I heard he was employed as a waiter. The girl told him to come round in the morning and get his clothes. I saw a valise there. John Brennan sworn. I am a special officer and I made the arrest of the prisoner; the complainant came to the station house. I did not look at his hand, it was tied up as it is now. I did not examine it at that time.

Kate Mulvey sworn and examined. I was in the room the night Dordley ^{was} ~~came~~ in there and I was there when Melville came in; the door was locked and he asked to get in Dordley said, "you cannot come in here; come in the morning for your clothes. That was said in a loud tone of voice. Then Melville burst in the room. I saw Melville go to the bureau as it were to get his clothes, then I and Katie Clark went towards the other door. As we went towards the door we seen Doozey make a rush towards the bureau; we heard him say, "O, I am cut, I am bleeding." Doozey rushed at Melville first. Cross examined. I am a girl on the street. I was not in the habit of sleeping there. Doozey did not have a club or stick in his hand. I have known Melville about two months that night was the first time I ever saw Doozey, but I have seen him very frequently since at Dramatic Hall. Katie Clark was sworn and examined. Her testimony was similar to that of the preceding witness. Melville burst the door in and went to the bureau. Doozey made an attempt to go to the bureau; he said, "I am cut, give me a rag." I saw Doozey's hand bleeding. Thomas Melville sworn. I never have been arrested before for anything. I paid for this room and knocked for admittance and Doozey said, "Come round in the morning for your clothes." I burst open the door, went to the bureau and Doozey came to me, and as he made threats to kill me, I threw up my hands and as I had the razor in my hand it must have cut him.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty
of the second count in the indictment.

The People Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Stephen Moore (Before Judge Lewis. Feb. 27. 1883.
 Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Counsel: The defendant offers to plead guilty to ~~petty larceny~~ - that is, taking the money, ~~not~~ from the person of the accused.

The Court: It is a question whether it is petty larceny or grand larceny in the second degree.
 Catherine Rooney, sworn and examined, testified. Where do you live? No 364, West Twenty first St. I am living there since Sept. I know the prisoner for about a month before this happened. I saw him on the 7th of Feb. in my own room that night. He was homeless and my boys brought him in to have a little bit and to give him a night's shelter. I fell asleep, he was with my little girl. I was awakened by feeling the prisoner's hand in my pocket. How much did you ~~find~~ in your pocket? I had $4.55. I was gathering it for my rent. When he took his hand out of your pocket what did you then do? I shouted, Steve, Steve, what are you doing? then he dragged me on the floor and he outraged my person. Then my little girl ran out to the yard. Did you miss your money after he took his hand out of your pocket?

That minute when I got extricated off the fellow. Cross Examined. This was half past six in the evening. I did not swear in the police Court that it was in the day time. I was not intoxicated. I did not write my name, but I put my mark to this affidavit. I swore in the police Court that it was half past six o'clock in the evening. How did the defendant get into your room? He was in the habit of coming back and forth; he got a bit to eat and was homeless and wanted shelter. His father is home in Ireland for nearly killing a man, he had to go away. I never seen one belonging to him. He said his father had to go home for licking a man. He has no home. His mother never could keep him; she is only living with a man. He was there two nights off and on; some nights he would go away and not come back the next day; he was there two weeks sleeping there altogether excepting three nights. There was a family in the rear building that he used to stop with and they moved away. I heard him say he slept there, I did not see the man go to bed in any house. This night I fell asleep because I was fatigued, it was not from drinking. My husband has not been living these nine years. I have four children and am the mother of seven. My children live with me; I kept house all the time and reared them nice too. I received four dollars from the boss of my second boy who keeps a new stand, and I received a dollar for washing from Mrs. Cannon. Before I went to sleep I counted the money and put it in my pocket. I did not think he would take it. The money was rolled up in a two dollar bill and I put it in my pocket. I awakened up with his having his hand in my pocket. There was nobody in the room but him and my little girl. I have every reason to know that the prisoner knew I had the money, for he knew I got a dispossession to leave the house for the want of my rent, and he knew I was gathering it up to pay my rent. He saw me counting it and putting it in my pocket at the stove. I fell asleep in his presence.

Patrick K. Rooney, sworn and examined, testified. I am a son of the last witness. I was not at home on the day that my mother has been speaking about. I know the prisoner. He and my brother brought him there because he had no place to go.

I saw him at the house the day my mother speaks of but I was not present when the money was taken. I served my "news" and at half past six o'clock came home and as I was going in the house the prisoner stopped me and said my mother was waiting for me to whip me for being so long away. I had occasion to go to the yard and when I was in the yard my sister told me something. My mother halloed that he had the money, I went to catch him, but he ran away. Stephen Moore sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have never been arrested before. I was working in Clark Bros' oyster house, Sixth avenue; my parents are living in this city, 215 Twenty sixth St. I lived at home all the time except when I was in her house. I went into that room; she was intoxicated, I sat down by the fire I seen a silver dollar lying on the floor, I picked it up and put it in my pocket; he and his sister came into the room and I walked about my business. I did not put my hand in her pocket. I did not commit an indecent assault upon her. I tried to put her on the lounge but I could not. I have never been convicted of any crime. Patrick Rooney recalled.

0267

My mother was not intoxicated this day.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty
of grand larceny in the second degree.
