Mr. Downing,

Dear Sir:

I called upon you a couple of weeks ago in regard to the case of Brooks a ticket agent of this Company who was indicted by the Grand Jury last month.

You said for me to remind you of the case about this time and you would see if it could be tried.

Pinton Ave

Street, in the City of New York. I am a subpoena server in the office of the District Attorney of the City and County of New York. On the 20 day of May 1885, I called at No. 239 Spring Street the alleged residence of Andrew Anderson the complainant herein, to serve him with the annexed subpoena, and was informed by a lady who resides there that she knows no person by that name and that no such person resides there.

On the same day I called at Pier 42 North River to serve Thomas Leary a witness herein with the annexed subpoena and inquired for him of several laborers and others in the neighborhood but could gain no information of said Leary or his present whereabouts.

On the same day I called at No. 30 Remick Street to serve Michael Feeley with the annexed subpoena and was informed by the lady with whom he formerly boarded that he took his two children and left there about three months ago. That she has not seen or heard of him since and does not know where he is or where he can be found.

Sworn to before me, this 21st day of May, 1885
