Ex-Glenns-Grand Juror

John Krentzel
Juror I say I am the defendant above named. I have been in this Court about 9 years. I was last working for Henry Michel as a forcing Clerk at Micheli place of business No. 251 West 31st Street in City of New York. I left that place about the middle of June last. In the latter part of June 1930 Mr Reini, asked me to go up to his place and help around. He had just started a new place at 629 West 46th Street. I had nothing to do and went up there. I was under no employment. I simply helped around the store. I only went behind the bar when Reini or his employees were absent or busy about doing something else. I received no pay for what I did. I never knew whether Reini had a license or not. I supposed he had. I never made any inquiry.
I did not intend to stay. I was looking for employment. I am penniless. I have no money or property of any kind. I depend upon getting work to make my living.

0041

I never was arrested before in my life. I have been in prison on this charge since the 7th day of Aug 1880.
I never intentionally violated the law as to sale of liquors -
