City and County of New York, ss.

James Mitchell of No. 159 East 67th Street, aged 50 years, occupation Fire Marshal being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the day of 188, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, that between the hours of eleven o'clock on the night of October 11th and one o'clock and fifteen minutes on the morning of October 12th 1890, one Adolph Deutsch, and one Nathan Becker together with one Hyman Becker did willfully set fire to and burn a certain dwelling house to wit: No. 85 Avenue A situated in the 17th Ward of the City of New York, in which were at the time human beings, to wit: one ^{Grand} Joseph Huger with his wife and family, and one Daniel Risk, with his wife and family, the same being in violation of Section 489 of the Penal Code, Laws of the State of New York; that he deponent believes the fire to have been set by means of a candle or other slow burning agency and by the use of kerosene oil a quantity of which was seen to be floating in the water poured on the fire by the firemen and the presence of which was discovered and detected on the partially burned clothing found in the place occupied by the aforesaid Adolph Deutsch and Nathan Becker -

Deponent further states that he believes he has sufficient evidence to connect the aforesaid persons with the fire and prays, therefore, that they be held to be dealt with according to law in such cases made and provided

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Otto Bickel

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse Otto Bickel of the crime of practicing dentistry without the authority prescribed by law and without having duly registered as required by law—committed as follows:

The said Otto Bickel, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty-second day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety _____, at the City and County aforesaid, not being a student pursuing a regular course of instruction, and the act hereinafter alleged not being done in assisting a person duly qualified to practice dentistry and registered as provided by law, did unlawfully practice dentistry without the authority prescribed by section one of an act of the Legislature of this State known as chapter three hundred and thirty-seven of the Laws of 1889, entitled "An Act to amend chapter five hundred and forty of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine entitled 'An Act to regulate the practice of dentistry in the State of New York', as amended by chapter two hundred and eighty eight of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight", and without having duly registered as required by section three of the said act, and without such authority, and without having so duly registered as aforesaid, did then and there unlawfully examine, treat, and operate on one Nora Helmenyer as a dentist; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

therein. and when deponent returned at the hour of 4:20 o'clock P.M. same day deponent discovered that said door had been forced open as aforesaid and that said property had been taken out of said apartment.

Deponent is informed by Detective George A. Swan that - at the hour of 12:40 o'clock P.M. said date he saw these defendants together and in company with each other and saw them enter the flat house no 64 88th St. and in about thirty minutes thereafter he the Detective saw the defendants come out of said apartment together and followed them to 689th St. and Lexington Avenue where he arrested the defendant Brennan who drew a loaded revolving pistol and attempted to shoot the said Detective. The defendant Whelan ran to 90th St & 3rd Avenue where he was arrested by Officer Barry, and when the defendants were searched at the station house all of the property described in this affidavit was found in the possession of the defendants a portion of it in each defendant, and two fish hooks were found in the possession of the defendant Whelan, and a jewelry and a loaded pistol was found in the possession of the defendant Brennan. Deponent has since seen the property so found in these defendants possession, and fully identifies said property as hers, and charges these defendants with being together and acting in concert with each other and burglariously entering said premises as aforesaid, and feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property.
