 I reside at 1636 Second Ave. I ~~was~~ ~~present at 545 P.M. Jan. 14/84~~ On night of Jan. 14/84 about 545 P.M. I met Seaton in 40th St near 1st Ave. Bradley, Donovan, & Cummins were with Seaton. He said he had been licked, but did not say where or by whom. He asked us to have a drink and we went to 319 E. 39th St. The barkeeper refused to give us a drink. Cummins went over to the rack and took out 5 billiard cues. He gave each of us a cue. Donovan went behind the table where Rynar was standing. Cummins was also behind the table. I saw Rynar raise his hand to hit Donovan, and Donovan hit him with a cue.
 Bradley put his cue against the bar and went out. I followed Bradley and Seaton I believe followed me.
 After Rynar was hit he fell and then got up again. Donovan only hit Rynar once.
 I don't know whether he used the butt of the cue.

 could not find one. In the meantime during Ryner's absence Seaton and he is the President of the Colwell Seed Co.; that on the eighth day of December a person whose name he does not know to receive money in payment therefor.

Deponent believing such representations & pretences to be true & being deceived thereby was induced to give & pay & did then & there give & pay to said understanding that the said Donsler was to have inserted

Anthony Schwoerer, of No. 54 Lewis street, in the City of New-York, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is a tin and slate roofer, doing business at Nos. 495 and 496 East Houston street, in the City of New-York; that in the month of November, 1883, deponent was called upon at his said place of business by one George D. Dornsler, who represented to deponent that he was an authorized agent to solicit advertisements for "The Manufacturer and Builder", a trade paper published in the City of New-York; that the said Dornsler also represented to deponent that the said paper had written him, deponent, up several times, and asked deponent for an advertisement for the said paper, which deponent gave him, for which he, deponent, paid the sum of two dollars to the said Dornsler, whose receipt for said sum is annexed to this affidavit. That since giving the said advertisement to the said Dornsler deponent has been informed that he, the said Dornsler, is not authorized to solicit advertisements for said paper and has no connection whatever with the same, and that the advertisement for the insertion of which in said paper deponent paid him two dollars has not appeared therein. Deponent further says that he wrote a letter to the proprietor of said paper, Austin Black, asking him if the advertisement was all right, and the said Austin Black replied to said letter that it was not, and that he, the said Black, had had the said Dornsler arrested for falsely representing himself as an authorized agent for the said paper and collecting money for advertisements which he obtained ostensibly for said paper but which he never turned in to said paper.
