locked and fastened and the said window whole and unbroken, Deponent is informed by Abraham Pierce of number 196 East 16th Street that at or about the hour of six o'clock on the night of the aforesaid day he saw the said defendants together in said street and over heard said Begley say, "we done one window, and we will do the other." Thereupon said Pincus saw said Begley go into the said window leading into said store while said Doody remained on the corner of East 7th St. and said Doody remained on the corner of East 7th St. and kept watch while said Begley was in said premises. Said Pincus then left said premises on an errand and went away and on his return to said premises he found said window broken and said defendants together in company on the opposite side of the street and a crowd congregated about said window which was broken into. Said Pincus pointed out said defendants to a person he being the person who broke said window and took said property when said defendants saw said Pincus they ran into a hallway in East 7th St. and made their escape. Said Pincus fully identifies said defendants as the persons he saw. and said Begley as the one who entered said window. Defendant therefore charges said defendants with acting together in concert and charges them with having taken stolen and carried away the property aforesaid.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Richard Delaney of the CRIME OF BURGLARY IN THE Second DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Richard Delaney, late of the 21st Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 20th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, with force and arms, about the hour of six o'clock in the night time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of one Charles Mahle, there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter, whilst there was then and there some human being, to wit, one Matilda Mahle, within the said dwelling house, the said

Richard Delaney then and there intending to commit some crime therein, to wit: the goods chattels and personal property of the said Charles Mahle in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Richard Delaney
of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY IN THE First DEGREE, committed as follows:

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said 28th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, in the night time of said day, with force and arms, one overcoat of the value of twenty dollars, one coat of the value of ten dollars, one vest of the value of five dollars, and one pair of trousers of the value of seven dollars, of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Henry Elder, one pair of trousers of the value of seven dollars, of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Michael Deuger, — and one vest of the value of five dollars, and one pair of trousers of the value of seven dollars.

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Joseph Smith

Charles Mable, there situate, then and there being found in the dwelling house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Sigmond Gager, the Complainant, Sworn and Cross examined by Cornelius Price -

Q You say the unknown person was the one who engaged you in conversation?

A Yes. I was talking to him about half a minute, and looking over a book.

Q How far from you was the defendant Dornus?

A I went into the office and the defendant was outside, about six feet from me. His face was turned towards me when I talked to the other man. I first saw his full face and afterwards his side face.

Q Are you positive that the defendant Dornus was one of the persons within your store on that day.

A I believe he is, that is all I can say. I cannot answer that question by saying yes or no.

William H. Koster sworn and examined say - Two men came into my store at No. 3 West 3rd Street on the 10th day of January instant a few minutes before the time of the alleged larceny of John in the annexed affidavit of Edward Gager. The defendant Doremus, now here, is one of the men. The other man asked for a Mrs. Mayhew and the defendant Doremus stood near the door. They went away together, after remaining a minute in the store. One of the questions put to me by said other man was asking if there was another Jew store on the block. About two minutes thereafter they both passed my store again and the defendant Doremus had a seal-skin bag carelessly thrown over his arm.

Cross Examined

Worms stood by the door and I conversed with the other person who is not present.
When the defendant passed with the package he was not over five feet from me.
They were both smooth shaven.

Q Are you positive under oath that this man is one of the two you saw on that day?

A I am. I told Judge Patterson that he was the man as near as a man can look like mine. I don't recollect saying I thought he was the man.

Q Can you tell how how the prisoner was dressed on that day?

A He had on a pea jacket, dark hat of dark color, no over coat. The other man was also dressed in a pea jacket somewhat similar to this defendant.

Re Direct I have no doubt but that the defendant was
