I have examined all the testimony possible in the case and am of the opinion that said testimony is not sufficient to warrant me in going to a trial; a view of the above as well as the good character of the defendant as appears from affidavits hereto annexed; I would advise be discharged on his own recognizance with a severe warning, if the court will permit me, for carrying a pistol of the value of One hundred dollars

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by George Grosfield, now here, from the fact that deponent and said defendant occupied the same bed-room together at premises 65 Cherry Street. That said defendant locked the door of said room, no persons other than deponent and said defendant being then within said room. That deponent then undressed, and then and there saw said money in the right side pocket of deponent's pantaloons which pantaloons deponent placed at the foot of the bed. That when deponent awoke the following money had been stolen. That said defendant then lay asleep in his bed and dependent another him and accused him of taking said money. That the door of said room had then locked on the inside as it had been when dependent retired the night before.

That upon dependent accusing the said defendant of said larceny he denied doing so, and got up and dressed himself and unlocked the door taking out the key and going out of the room but shut the door and locked it from the outside forcibly detaining dependent within said room.
That thereafter dependent was released

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF CRIMINALLY RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, one valise of the value of one hundred dollars, and divers goods, chattels and personal property, of a number and description to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, of the value of one hundred dollars of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Martin Powers by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said

unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have; the said

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN R. FELLOWS,

District Attorney.
