of No. 292 Second Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the premises No. 292 Second Street, 11th Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a ~~brick building~~ and which was occupied by deponent as a ~~liquor house & billiard saloon~~ were BURGLARIOUSLY

entered by means of forcibly opening the rear hallway door leading to the ~~other~~ saloon on the night of the 8th day of February 1880 and the following property feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, viz:

a set of billiards (ivory) balls, two hundred and fifty cigars, one dog chain, two bottles Whiskey, four bottles of beer, and one bottle wine, all of the value of forty dollars the property of this deponent and Samuel L. Phillips and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed, and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by Henry Thingle, William Smith, and George Estling for the reasons following to wit: That on or about ^{ten} 10 o'clock on the evening of the 8th inst. deponent was informed by Officer Charles O'Connor of the 11th Precinct Police that he had arrested the accused in the hall-way of 288 Second Street, having in their possession the property above mentioned which said property this deponent identifies as his property taken stolen and carried away in the manner above mentioned.

Dear Sir,

I am informed that William Smith has plead guilty to receiving stolen goods, and is to be sentenced on Monday. Smith's mother died about ten years ago leaving him and two sisters orphans, the father having died some years before. The ^{eldest} sister was subsequently provided with a home by my daughter and is now an exemplary young lady, the youngest sister is an invalid in St. Luke's Hospital. The boy - William, I looked after as well as I could, and subsequently procured for him a home in Western New York where he was for some time. I fear that, not being a boy of a strong mind, he has got possibly in bad company, and that his present position is due to this. I do not think he is a vicious boy, but one that needs to be placed under some restraint. I ask that he be not sent to the State Prison, but to the Reformatory. From the latter he may come
