deposes and says, that on the 13th day of December 1888 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of Isidore Levenson Res. of which firm deponent is a member of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Merchandise of various cloth of the value of One hundred & twelve + 50/100 dollars the property of Isidore Levenson & Louis Hersh doing business under the firm name of I Levenson & Co. in the City of New York.

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Nathan Adams (now here) from the following circumstances, that deponents firm had been missing property for some time past, which was taken from their stock room, that said defendant Nathan Adams who was in their employ as clerk and shipping clerk had charge of the cloths and made up articles of caps and hats in stock. That suspicion became directed that said Adams was stealing property from said stock belonging to said firm and deponent pro-him under arrest, and while under arrest said Adams did confess to Elvie Sergeant O'Brien & M^cCauley that he had been stealing made up Raps & ponent's firm of at least the value of ✓ five hundred dollars at different times, and did inform said Detective Sergeants & Inspector as well as deponent where said property was & to whom said

Sergeants McCauley & O'Brien did go to the various places where same had been sold and did recover a portion of the property so stolen by the defendant amounting to about Twoperty deponent identifies as a portion of the property stolen from him.

Wherefore deponent charges the
