Anthony Comstock of 41 Park Row, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is informed, and has just cause to believe and verily does believe that ~~son~~ on or about the 4th day of June, 1890, and between that date and the first day of January, 1890, at the City, County and State of New York, aforesaid, Abraham I. Kantrowitz did unlawfully contrive and propose, or assist in contriving, proposing and carrying on a lottery, which lottery was set on foot for the purpose of disposing of property by lot or chance, and which said lottery was known and called as the Original Little Louisiana Co., of Colorado.

Deponent further says that he is informed and verily believes that the said Kantrowitz did in and for the assisting in the contriving, proposing and carrying on of said lottery, contract for and cause to be printed certain tickets in said lottery for the months of May and June, and did further on or about the first day of June, 1890, print or cause to be printed 100,000 tickets in said lottery; and did in and for executing and assisting in the contriving and proposing of said lottery employ The Hamilton Bank Note Engraving and Printing Company to print the back and part of the front of 100,000 tickets to be used in said lottery, and in promoting and carrying on the same.

Deponent further says that on the fourth of June, he did seize the said 100,000 tickets in the possession of the Hamilton Bank Note Engraving and Printing Company; and that the deponent was informed that the order for printing said tickets, was given by the said Kantrowitz, and upon his order and request the backs of said tickets and the numbers upon the front were printed by the said Hamilton Bank Note Engraving and Printing Company, against the form of the Statute of the people of the State of New York, in such cases made and provided, and particularly Chapter 8 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

ABRAM I. KANTROWITZ.
 ----- x

City, County and State of New York, ss:

ANTHONY COMSTOCK being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the Chief Special Agent of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice; that he knows the Defendant and caused his arrest; that prior to the arrest of the said ABRAM I. KANTROWITZ, information had been brought to this Deponent concerning the uttering and publishing of several fraudulent Lottery schemes known as the "Original Little Louisiana Lottery"; that there were certain parties in the City of New York and elsewhere, who were engaged in issuing tickets at a low price, and that there were several of what was called the "Little Louisiana Lottery Companies"; that in the month of June 1889, Deponent seized in the possession of one OLIN D. GRAY in the City of New York over One Million Eight Hundred and Fourteen Thousand (1,814,000) tickets, or parts of tickets, representing some four or five different so-called "Lotteries", and all of which Deponent believes were fraudulent, the scheme being to sell the tickets to persons through the various parts of the country, especially the poor and ignorant in the City of New York and in other Cities; that Deponent attaches hereto copies of various tickets in these "snide" Lotteries that were then being printed and circulated; that after the seizure of these tickets as annexed hereto, Deponent found still other Lotteries of the same fraudulent character being operated in the City of New York, and found that many poor people were being defrauded by the sale of tickets believed to be in the Louisiana Lottery, when they were not Louisiana Lottery Tickets, but were so gotten up and designed to deceive the Public and lead them to suppose that they were buying genuine Lottery tickets, when in fact they were buying tickets in Lotteries that had no existence in fact, but that all these various schemes were operated by the same operators.

Deponent further says, that in making further investigation, Deponent found that certain other tickets were also being manufactured and sold in the City of New York, gotten up in the form ~~and~~ to lead ignorant people to suppose that they were purchasing Louisiana Lottery tickets, when in fact they were what are commonly called "snide" Lotteries; and that notwithstanding the seizure of the more than One Million, Eight Hundred Thousand tickets in the possession of OLIN D. GRAY, this Deponent found that a number of Hebrews, of which ABRAM I. KANTROWITZ was one, were engaged in this traffic, and Deponent traced out and found that the said ABRAM I. KANTROWITZ had employed the Hamilton Bank Note Engraving & Printing Company to print in blank form One Hundred Thousand of said Tickets in said "snide" Lottery known as the "Original Little Louisiana Lottery Company of Colorado"; that Deponent is informed by CHARLES YOUNGE, who was Foreman of the Electric Mercantile Printing Company, managed by ABRAM I. KANTROWITZ, that prior to June 1890, he was employed by the said ABRAM I. KANTROWITZ to print similar tickets in said fraudulent Lotteries, and the said YOUNGE brought Deponent tickets which the said YOUNGE had printed for the said KANTROWITZ.

Deponent further says, that prior to the arrest of said KANTROWITZ in June 1890, Deponent visited said KANTROWITZ'S place of business at No. 51 Beekman Street, and there found that the said KANTROWITZ was also printing Lottery circulars for the "German Lotteries", and the Police seized over Six Hundred (600) circulars in the possession of the said KANTROWITZ in Deponent's presence.

Deponent further says, that he is informed and verily believes that the said KANTROWITZ was in partnership with other German Jews in the City of New York, one of whom was named GERMANSKY, and others, engaged in the contriving, getting up and putting upon the market for sale, tickets in this and similar fraudulent Lottery schemes; and that the said KANTROWITZ continued to do so after the seizure of the MILLION, Eight Hundred Thousand tickets in the possession of the said OLIN D. GRAY, and ~~that~~ with a full knowledge that such matter was in open violation of Law, particularly as the tickets which the said KANTROWITZ got up and printed and was engaged in getting up and printing at the time of his arrest, were known by him to be fraudulent Lotteries.

Deponent further says, that he is informed and verily believes that many thousands of dollars have been unjustly taken from the poor of this country by the sale and dissemination of these fraudulent Lottery tickets gotten up after the manner and form of the original Louisiana Lottery

Tickets, and sold in many cases as Louisiana Lottery Tickets to people who believed they were purchasing a genuine Lottery ticket, when the fact was, that they were purchasing tickets in Lotteries which had no existence.

Deponent therefore prays that the Court will mete out such penalty as will not only punish the said KANTROWITZ, but will deter others from like offences.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Morris Tisch

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse

Morris Tisch

of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Morris Tisch, late of the City and County of New York, on the 12th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon one in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make an assault; and the said Morris Tisch,

Daniel Beckett,

with a certain knife which he the said

Morris Tisch

in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being then and there a weapon and an instrument and weapon likely to produce grievous bodily harm, then the said Daniel Beckett, then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, stab, cut, bruise and wound, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

VERSUS

Isidore Kaufman et al

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendants to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I do not think there was any intention on the part of said defendants to commit a felony. The defendants were all participants in the cloak-makers' strike then being carried on, and came to my place of business, in order to induce the men who had taken their places there to join them.

Sam Billet

City and County of New York.

On the 3rd day of November, before me personally came Samuel Billet, the person above named and who acknowledged the same as his voluntary act and deed.

of New York,of No. ~~77 Eldridge~~ Samuel Billett 97. Broome Street, aged 24 years, occupation Tailor being duly sworndeposes and says, that the premises No. 192 Eldridge Street, 10 Ward in the City and County aforesaid the said being a four story bricktenement house and which was occupied by deponent as a tailor shop and dwelling house and in which there was at the time a human being, by name Samuel Billett this deponent.were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly bustling open the door leading from the hallway of the top floor of said premises into the front room on said top floor.on the 3 day of July 1890 in the day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:Fifteen plush jackets together of the value of two hundred and twenty five dollars.(\$ 225.00)the property of Bergerman & Casper and in deponents and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Isidor Kaufmann Aaron Michael Knotnick
Joseph Biermann Heyman Schmulowitz
Henry Simon Morris Fisch Harris Dinstadt
Wolf Heymann (all now here) for the reasons following, that at about the hour of 11 o'clock A.M.

said date, deponent was in said apartment and had said door securely locked and fastened. When the said defendants and each of them, came together and in company with each other, to deponents door on the top floor of said premises, and forcibly broke open said door, and each of the said defendants. Entered said room, a number of the defendants then assaulted defendant by striking him in the face with their fists, while the other defendants took a number of said plush jackets from the wall where they were hanging, and tore some of said jackets up, and threw some jackets out of the window, and after the defendants left defendant's apartment, defendant discovered that ten of said jackets were missing, and that five of said jackets were cut and entirely destroyed.

Wherefore defendant charges the said defendants and each of them, with being together and acting in concert with each other, and burglariously entering said premises, and feloniously taking, stealing, and carrying away said property by force and violence.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUS*August Kleine*

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant was employed by me as a driver, on the morning that this trouble occurred he reported for work as usual after receiving twenty six dollars in money he started with the horse & wagon to buy some goods. He failed to return and the horse & wagon was found ~~gone~~ ^{at} the River St. Ferry without the driver. - I now feel that when I made the charge I was a little hasty for the reason that the defendant had the handling of money for me on several other occasions and always acted honestly. He informs me that he met some friends and got drinking and that he spent the money. I respectfully request that the complaint be dismissed as I am willing ^{to} take him back in my employ.

Indictment filed October 9th, 1890.

Indicted for Grand Larceny in the Second Degree.

New York, October 13th. 1890.

Appearances; For the people, Assistant District Attorney, Vernon M. Davis.

For the defendant, F. B. House.

Cora Fuller,

a witness for the People, sworn testified;---

I live at No. 10 St. Mark's place this city.

On the 29th of September 1890, I lived at the same place.

On that day the defendant called at my house. . He knocked very loudly at the door and then rang until I went to the door, and he inquired for a furnished room. There was a furnished room in the house, and I showed it to him. He said he wished it for two other gentlemen and not for himself. The defendant said he wished to go into the front room, and I said "there is a lady in there lying on the sofa, I do not want you to go in." He went right ahead of me into the dining room and said he would like to talk it over about the room. There wasn't anything to talk over. He sat down in a chair and said that w he would like a room, and that these gentlemen would come that night. He asked for a pencil. I said I hadn't a pencil in the dining but would tell him the name and the price;

but he said it wouldn't do he must have a pencil. He said "haven't you got one in the other room, hasn't the lady who is lying down got one?", I said I would go into the other room and I went in and secured a pencil and came back again. I handed him the pencil and he said he could not write with it. He put the pencil down and went out in very much of a hurry. As I closed to the door after him I looked around and I found that some jewelry which which I had placed in a box on the sideboard in this room was missing. The defendant was arrested next morning on 3rd av. between 10th and 12th st. . He was found in a saloon by the policeman and I identified him as the man who had been in my place on the day before. The articles I lost were a ladies gold watch worth about 35 or 40 dollar a gold bracelet valued at $35.00 and several smaller articles of jewelry. There was no other person in that room except the defendant at the time. . I had seen these articles on the sideboard a few minutes before he came into the house. He told me he wanted to engage a room for two other gentlemen that they would come there in the afternoon about two o'clock. These gentlemen never came. I didn't take him into the room in which the lady was lying down, it was into the dining room that he went. The defendant sat exactly in front of this sideboard on which the box containing the articles of jewelry lay. I wasn't absent from the dining room more than a minute or two in securing the pencil. This dining room leads into the kitchen. There was nobody in the kitchen.

Cross-examination.

Q. Did you advertise to rent this room? A. No sir.

Q. Was there any notice on the front of the house?

Q. Yes sir.

Q. Who put the notice there? A. My husband; he is employed at the corner of 10th st. and Broadway.

Q. Did the defendant say anything to you about having table board at your house? A. He spoke of it and I said we could make arrangements later in the day when the gentlemen came.

Q. When did you next see the defendant? A. I saw him going into a liquor store on 3rd av. the next day and I called a policeman.

Q. Were you present when the defendant was searched?

A. No sir.

Q. None of your property was found on him? A. No sir.

Q. Did you say to Judge Duffy that there had been another party at your house on that morning? A. No sir, there hadn't and I didn't say so.

Francis Hagan,
a witness for the people, sworn, testified;-----

I am an officer of police attached to the 14th Precinct. I arrested this defendant on the 30th of Sep. on the complaint of Mrs. Fuller, and I found him on 3rd. av. near 12th st. I told him what he was charged with. I asked him why he took this jewelry from this woman, and he said "I dont know anything at all about it". He acted as if he was quite drunk. He denied all knowledge of it and told me he didn't want to tell where he lived as he didn't care to have his mother know. He said "I don't know anything at all about it". He denied everything. I searched him and found 30 cents on him, and a little pocket knife.

Cross-examination.

Q. As a matter of fact he was very drunk when you got him?

A. He seemed to be.

Q. You found none of this property in his possession?

A. No sir.

Michael J. Kelly,
the defendant sworn testified;---

I am 41 years of age. I was born in N. Y. City. I am an engineer by trade, and have been employed by the Pennsylvania railroad. I have never been arrested before, nor have I been convicted of any crime. I was in this lady's premises on the day in question. I was in the dining room. She sat on one side of the table and I sat on the other. I didn't notice the sideboard or anything that was on it. I didn't take any articles of jewelry from that house on that day or at any other time. •

I reply to Justice Duffy I heard the lady say that there was another man at her house on that morning. I was arrested on 3rd. av. between 11th and 12th streets. I was drunk at the time.

Cross-examination.

Q. You were quite drunk were you not? A. I had too much taken.

Q. How long had you been under the influence of liquor?

A. I had been drunk off and on for a couple of weeks.

Q. You remember being in this lady's dining room?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember that you went towards her front room and she stopped you and wouldn't let you go in there?

A. That is not a fact sir.

Q. Did you go towards the front room? A. No sir.

Q. You made no effort to get towards the front room?

A. No sir.

Q. Did she object to your going towards the front room?

A. I never made any inquiry to her about going to the front room.

Q. Did she object? A. Yes sir, she said there was a lady in that room.

Q. Did you sit down in the dining room? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you have a conversation with the woman about a pencil? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did she leave the room to get a pencil? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you remain there all the time? A. Yes sir.

Q. While she was gone? A. Yes sir.

Q. How long did you remain in the room after she returned?

A. About a minute.

Q. When you left the dining room did you leave the house?

A. Yes sir.

Q. While you were there talking to her, and awaiting her return did anybody come into the dining room?

A. No sir.

Q. Where do you live? A. I have a room at 14th st. and 3rd. av.

Q. You told the policeman you lodged at No. 783 3rd av?

A. I dont know what I told him.

Q. You say you are an engineer? A. Yes sir.

Q. And have worked on the Pennsylvania Railroad?

A. I have run a shifting train in the yard.

Q. How long have you been running a switch engine for the Pennsylvania? A. Eight years.

Q. You have a license for an engineer? A. Yes sir.

Q. And still you say you dont write? A. No sir.
I am a fireman.

Q. Who were these two men for whom you wanted this room?

A. Two friends of mine. I had an engagement to meet them that same afternoon to tell them that I had secured a room for them. I didn't see them that afternoon.

The Jury returned a verdict of " Guilty of Grand Larceny in the Second Degree".

Tried November 6th, 1890.

Indictment filed October 30th, 1890.

Indicted for Grand Larceny in the Second Degree.

APPEARANCES:

Assistant District Attorney Davis, for The People.

Messrs. Purdy and McLoughlin, for the Defense.

A D O L P H G R I E D E R, the complainant, testified that he lived at 219 West 67th Street, and that he was a silk dyer. On the 19th of September, 1890, he owned a set of single harness. On that day the harness was hanging on an iron railing, having been cleaned. The railing was outside of his place of business at 259 West 67th Street. He, the complainant, hung the harness there at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. He was across the street when two men came down the street, and one of the men went inside of his, the complainant's, place of business and asked for work, and the other man stood outside. Then the man who had gone inside to inquire about work, came out, and one of the two men stole the harness from the railing, and they ran away. When he, the witness, followed them, they dropped the harness in the street, and he, the witness, picked it up and took it into his shop. A man named Detweiler, called him, the complainant, out of the place where he was crossing the street. After he had hung the harness up in his shop, he went into the street again, and wanted to catch Sullivan and Kelly, the two men who had stolen the harness, but they threw stones at him and against his workman, Detweiler. A police officer came up and arrested them. The harness was worth about Thirty-five(35.00)Dollars. He paid Forty-five(45.00)Dollars for the harness, and had had it about two years. Under

Cross-Examination, the complainant testified that he put the harness on the railing at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. He had been cleaning the harness. The defendant ran away after he saw the police officer coming. The police officer pursued him and arrested him. He, the complainant, made a charge against the defendant for assaulting him, the complainant, by throwing stones at him, the complainant. He, the complainant, also made a charge of assault against Kelly, Sullivan's co-defendant. Neither he, the complainant, nor his workman had a club when they were pursuing the defendant and Kelly. They did not strike him with a club or with their hands.

OFFICER WILLIAM McHUGH, testified that he was attached to the 26th Precinct. He arrested the defendant, Sullivan, on the back stairs of a liquor store on the corner of 61st Street and 11th Avenue, between half past 3 and 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the 19th of September. The defendant was alone at that time. He arrested the defendant on the complainant's complaint. He saw the defendant, Sullivan, and his co-defendant, Kelly, running. He saw Sullivan throw a stone at the complainant and his workman. Then when Kelly saw him, the witness, he turned and ran down 11th Avenue. The complainant identified Sullivan after Sullivan's arrest. The complainant charged the defendant with stealing harness, and the defendant made no reply. The defendant hung his head and muttered something which he, the witness, could not understand. In the police court Kelly said that Sullivan took the harness. This was said in the presence of Sullivan. Sullivan replied, "Why don't you give away ~~away~~ me right away, and be done with it?" He, the officer, when he caught Sullivan, asked him what he meant by running away. The defendant replied, "What do you think of me?" "Do you think I am a damn fool to let you fellows get a-hold of me and club the life out of me?" "I aint letting anybody get a-hold of me, if I can help it." In the police station the complainant said that the defendant had thrown stones at him. He also charged the defendant with the stealing his harness.

J O H N D E T W E I L E R, testified that he lived in Hicks Street, West Hoboken, New Jersey. On the 19th of September, 1890, he worked for the complainant, at 259 West 67th Street. He was inside of the shop when Kelly entered on that afternoon. Sullivan remained outside. Kelly came in and asked for work. He, the witness, told Kelly that there was no work for anybody, but silk dyers. Kelly went out and Sullivan was still standing at the fence, and pushing against the fence, as if he wished to push it down. He, the witness, went outside, and told them to go away, and they called him a son of a bitch. They did not go away, and he, the witness, took hold of Sullivan's arm and pushed him away and closed the gate in the fence. Then he, the witness, went back into the shop, and Sullivan and Kelly threw stones and mud at him. Then he, the witness, went out and Kelly was still outside of the shop, and threw stones at him. He, the witness, saw Sullivan near the corner with the harness on his back. When he, the witness, gave chase to Sullivan, Sullivan dropped the harness, and turned about and threw stones at him, the witness. He, the witness, then went into the saloon across the street, and called his employer, the complainant. The complainant and his partner came out, and followed Sullivan and Kelly, and they turned around and threw big stones at them. Then officer McHugh appeared and arrested Sullivan.

J O H N S U L L I V A N, the defendant, testified that he was a steam fitter by trade. He had never been arrested before, except on one occasion, for drunkenness. He was not convicted of that offense. He was not convicted of any crime. He had worked for Sloane & Co., steam fitters. On the afternoon of the 19th of September, at about 4 o'clock, he was going through 67th Street, between 10th and 11th Avenues, and on the corner of 11th Avenue there was a silk factory. Outside of the factory was an iron railing, and there was a harness hanging there, and the saddle of the harness interfered with him as he passed, and he, the defendant, struck up against it, and he took the harness from the railing and threw it into the street. Then the workman, Detweiler, came out with a club and struck at him, the defendant, and Sullivan, and said that they were trying to steal the harness. When Detweiler struck the defendant with a club, he, the defendant, picked up a stone and tried to defend himself; in fact, he picked up several stones, but he did not throw any. He went to the corner and stood there and two officers appeared and he ran. He did not know where they got Kelly. He did not know whether Kelly ran or not. He, the defendant, ran down as far as 61st Street, and officer McHugh caught him. The officer said, "What did you run for?" And the defendant said, "What did you think I was going to do, stand and get hammered?" The officer said, "You wont get hammered." but he, the defendant, knew that he would have been hammered, because he had been throwing stones. He did not intend to steal the harness; he was simply disorderly, and he knew that the officer would club him for that. Under Cross-Examination, he testified that he had been convicted of intoxication before Judge McMahon, and stayed in prison three days, and he was discharged. He had never been in the Penitentiary, nor the State Prison. He, the defendant, was under the influence of liquor when he took hold of the harness and threw it out into the street; but he knew pretty well what he was about, and he could run very well. He did not remember that Kelly charged him, the defendant, with stealing the harness in the police court.

MARY SULLIVAN, testified that she was the mother of the defendant. She had four children and the defendant was her eldest child. Her son's character was as good as the general run of boys. His only trouble was that he drank some times.

occupation Baker being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 24th day of September 1890 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the nighttime, the following property, viz:

One double case gold plated watch and chain

Being together of the value of

Twenty Dollars

the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by David Henney (now dead)

For the reasons following to wit
That on said day deponent had said watch to which was attached said chain in the lower left hand pocket of the vest he then had on and said deponent stopped deponent in front of 76 Rector Street and engaged him in conversation and then took said property from deponent's person and ran with said property when deponent caused him to be arrested and found said watch in his possession Deponent therefore charges said de-dant with the larceny aforesaid late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty-fourth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, in the night time of the said day, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, one watch of the value of fifteen dollars and one chain of the value of five dollars of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Anton Reimisch on the person of the said Anton Reimisch then and there being found, from the person of the said Anton Reimisch then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

John R. Fellows,
District Attorney.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said of the CRIME OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, of the goods, chattels and personal property of one by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have; the said then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN R. FELLOWS,
District Attorney.
