of the 10th Precinct Police Street, in the City of New York, being sworn, doth depose and say, that on the 3rd day of February in the year 1882, the premises known as No. 129 West Street, in the City and County of New York, were kept, maintained, conducted, and occupied by Annie Parker. now Present.

as a DISORDERLY HOUSE, namely, as a common bawdy-house and house of prostitution, and a resort for tipplers, drunkards, common prostitutes and reputed thieves, with other vile, wicked, idle, dissolute and disorderly men and women and reputed thieves, who, or most of whom are in the practice of drinking, dancing, quarreling and fighting at almost all hours of the day and night, to the great damage and common nuisance of the People of the State of New York, residing in the neighborhood and passing thereby.

Deponent therefore prays, that the said Annie Parker and all vile, disorderly and improper persons found upon the premises, occupied by said

Annie Parker

Testimony in the case of
Mr. Perry
filed Feb. 1882.

64
 The People vs. William Perry } Court of General Sessions. Part II Before Judge Gildersleeve.
 Wednesday, March 1. 1882. Indictment for burglary in the third degree.
John C. Herikel, sworn and examined testified. I am a laborer employed by Ketcham and Morgan, grain elevators at Sixty Second St. and Eleventh Ave. This happened on a Sunday about the 17th of Dec. last. I know the prisoner. It was about from ten to half past ten in the morning.
 I made the round of a line of cars we have that runs from 63^d to 64th St. As I was going down near 61st St. I looked on the side of the building and I seen this Perry opening a car taking the cleat off with this bar; the cleat is a small piece of wood with two nails nailed on the top of the door. To keep the door closed. I watched him there about five minutes and he got the cleat off and he opened the door halfway and he seen my head peeping out from the corner of the house. he started to run, I followed him to 63^d St; he got away from me I was for 15 to 20 minutes looking for him, and finally I could not find him. The gang he belongs to started peggins stones at me and I had to let him go. I could not find an officer. So the Ward Detective caught him on some other charge. I was taken over to the 57th St. Court to make a charge against him. I was about fifteen feet from the prisoner when I saw him breaking into this car. I was looking around the side of the track where the cars were. He could not get into the car unless we took the cleat off. I guess there was about 800 bushels of grain in the car, loose in bulk. I do not know the value of the grain. It was worth over a thousand dollars. Cross Examined. I have been five years in the employ of the Company. I have seen the boy around the neighborhood a year and a half or two years. I knew where he lived. I had never been to his house. I used to see him especially on Sunday. He ran about a block and a half and I seized him. I took him around from the Park side on Eleventh Avenue towards 62nd St. I could not hold him, I could not find any officer, I could not leave the place. I let him go. I reported it to my boss the next morning; they sent for detective Pike. I was present when they sent for him and I saw him. I told Mr. Pike about it and he took this "jimmy" or bar away with him. That is the last I heard of it till a month ago. I did not go before any Magistrate at that time. I was not told to go before the Magistrate; when my boss sent for the Ward Detective I thought it was all right. I knew where he lived. I don't know whether I could find him or not. I saw him once or twice in the mean time. I don't know how many times I saw him. The prisoner pried the cleat completely off the door. He was standing on a piece that runs along the frame building, a kind of girder that runs along for the foundation of the building. It might be about five feet from the floor of the car to the roof. I saw the prisoner pry the cleat off; he opened the door. I was watching. I wanted to catch him inside the car and close the door on him. He saw me and he ran. I saw his head turned around towards me; he would not have run if he had not seen me. There are so many cars broken I wanted to catch some one; he did not get inside the car.

John C. Kenkel recalled. The car belongs to the Railroad Co., but the property that was in it belonged to Ketcham and Morgan.

John Perry, sworn and examined for the defence. I live at 61st St. between 10th and 11th avenues; my business is Truckman; the prisoner is my son; he is about 14 years old. I never knew him to be a bad boy; he always worked and brought home his wages to his mother. He was arrested once charged with firing a pistol, was tried in the 57th St. Court and Judge Gardner sent him to prison for ten days, but on account of the character I gave him and on account of the fact that other boys, who were supposed to have fired it, but got away, the Judge pardoned him. William Perry sworn in his own behalf said that on the day in question he was down at the hay barn for hay for the horse and was passing the car and the complainant came up and caught him and said he was trying to break it open. He told the officer that he was not and he (the officer) let him go, and that was the last he heard of it for three months. I work in a paper factory and continued to work in the paper factory up to the time of my arrest. I did not run away. and nobody was with me that day.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt at burglary in the third degree with a recommendation to mercy.

Now the gang re-returns to started

The People of the State of New York
agst
George H. Poole

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York by this Indictment accuse George H. Poole of the crime of Perjury committed as follows;

That prior to the 25th day of January A.D. 1882, there was duly and regularly propounded and offered for probate to the Surrogate's Court of the County of New York a Court then and there having jurisdiction thereof and for admission to probate, by said Court as and for the last Will and Testament of one Mary A. Hyatt who had theretofore ~~been~~ died a resident of the aforesaid County, a certain paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of her the said Mary A. Hyatt deceased, and purporting to dispose of certain real and personal property as by reference to the petition and application to said Court for admission to probate of the aforesaid paper writing and to the aforesaid paper writing now on file in the said Court and the Office of the Clerk thereof more fully and at large appears and that one Mary A. Hyatt who was then and there one of the next of kin and heirs at law of the said Mary A. Hyatt in due form of law then and there objected to, opposed and contested the probate and the admission to probate by the said Court of the aforesaid paper writing as and for the last will and Testament of her the said Mary A. Hyatt and that thereafter on the said 25th day of January A.D. 1882, at the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid the aforesaid matter of the probate and of the admission to probate and the application therefor and of such opposition thereto as aforesaid came on duly and regularly to be heard and inquired into by and before the said Court held by the Honorable Daniel G. Rollins who was then and there the Surrogate of the County of New York aforesaid and by him the said the Honorable Daniel G. Rollins as such Surrogate as aforesaid and that one George H. Poole who was one of the subscribing witnesses to the aforesaid paper writing so propounded and offered for probate as aforesaid then and there on the said 25th day of January A.D. 1882, at the City and County aforesaid in and before the said Court so held by the said the Honorable Daniel G. Rollins as such Surrogate as aforesaid, presented himself for examination as such subscribing witness as aforesaid and ~~was~~ then and there was in due form of law sworn by and took his Corporal oath before the said the Honorable Daniel G. Rollins as such Surrogate as aforesaid to speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth touching the matter of the probate of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded and offered for probate as the last will and Testament of the said Mary A. Hyatt deceased: he the said Daniel G. Rollins then and there having as such Surrogate as aforesaid full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to him the said George H. Poole in that behalf.

That the said George H. Poole being so duly sworn as aforesaid the following became and were, amongst others, material matters in substance and to the effect as follows:

Whether he the said George H. Poole had kept and carried in his overcoat pocket, ever since the death of the said Mary A. Hyatt until he produced the same then and there in said Court a certain type-written copy of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid then and there produce and exhibit by him the said George H. Poole in said Court and before said Surrogate and then

2 and there admitted in evidence and whether any person except himself had seen the said type written copy to his knowledge before ^{its} ~~the~~ production in said Court as aforesaid except the said Mary A. Hyatt.

3 Whether he the said George H. Poole had shown the aforesaid type written copy of the aforesaid paper writing as propounded as aforesaid to any one except her the said Mary A. Hyatt.

✓ Whether he the said George H. Poole had ever spoken to any one except the said Mary A. Hyatt in regard to the aforesaid type written copy of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid.

5 Whether he the said George H. Poole had ever disclosed to any human being except the said Mary A. Hyatt that he the said George H. Poole had the aforesaid type written copy of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid.

Whether he the said George H. Poole had ever said to Walter J. Elliott or Robert S. Ogden, the Attorneys in the aforesaid matter, for Washington J. Hyatt the aforesaid contestant therein at the time he the said George H. Poole called at their office anything about the nature of the testimony to be given by him the said George H. Poole concerning the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid in the ^{afore}said matter in the aforesaid Court and that he the said George H. Poole being so duly sworn as aforesaid at the City and County aforesaid at the day and in the year aforesaid upon his oath aforesaid in the matter aforesaid in the Court aforesaid before the Honorable Daniel G. Rollins as such surrogate as aforesaid did then and there wickedly, wilfully feloniously and corruptly say, swear, make oath, testify and depose among other things in substance and to the effect following

That is to say:-

That he the said George H. Poole had kept and carried in his overcoat pocket ever since the death of the said Mary A. Hyatt until he produced the same then and there in said Court the aforesaid type written copy so produced and exhibited as aforesaid of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid and that no one has ever seen the said type written copy to said George H. Poole's knowledge before its production in said Court as aforesaid except the said Mary A. Hyatt and the said George H. Poole.

That the said George H. Poole had never shown the aforesaid type written copy of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid to any one except the aforesaid Mary A. Hyatt.

That he the said George H. Poole had spoken to no one except the said Mary A. Hyatt in regard to the aforesaid type written copy of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid.

That he the said George W. Poole did not state to the aforesaid Walter J. Elliott or Robert S. Ogden at the time he the said George W. Poole called at their office anything about the nature of the testimony to be given by him the said George W. Poole concerning the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid in the aforesaid matter in the aforesaid Court.

Whereas in truth and in fact the said George W. Poole had not kept nor carried in his overcoat pocket ever since the death of the said Mary A. Hyatt until he produced the same as aforesaid in said Court the aforesaid type written copy so produced and exhibited as aforesaid of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid all which he the said George H. Poole then and there well knew: and Whereas in truth and in fact divers persons besides the said Mary A. Hyatt had seen the said type written copy to the knowledge of the said George H. Poole before its production in said Court as aforesaid to wit: —

Walter T. Elliott, Robert S. Ogden, Washington J. Hyatt and divers other persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown: and

Whereas in truth and in fact he the said George H. Poole had shown the aforesaid type written copy of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid to divers persons besides the said Mary A. Hyatt as he the said George H. Poole then and there well knew, to wit: the said Walter T. Elliott, Robert S. Ogden, Washington J. Hyatt, and divers other persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown: and

Whereas in truth and in fact he the said George H. Poole had spoken to divers persons besides the said Mary A. Hyatt in regard to the aforesaid type written copy of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid to wit; the said Walter J. Elliott, Robert S. Ogden, Washington J. Hyatt, and divers other persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, all which he the said George H. Poole then and there well knew; and

Whereas in truth and in fact he the said George H. Poole had disclosed to divers human beings besides the said Mary A. Hyatt, that he the said George H. Poole had the aforesaid type written copy of the aforesaid paper writing so propounded as aforesaid, to wit; Walter J. Elliott, Robert S. Ogden, Washington J. Hyatt and divers other persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, all which he the said George H. Poole then and there well knew; and

Whereas in truth and in fact he the said George H. Poole had said to the said Walter J. Elliott, and the said Robert S. Ogden at the time he the said George H. Poole called at their office something about the nature of the testimony to be given by him the said George H. Poole concerning the ^{aforesaid} ~~nature of the~~ paper writing so propounded as aforesaid in the aforesaid matter in the aforesaid Court in that he the said George H. Poole talked with them the said William J. Elliott and Robert S. Ogden, at great length in regard to such testimony and told and disclosed with great detail to them the said Walter J. Elliott and Robert S. Ogden such testimony and the nature thereof, all which the said George H. Poole then and there well knew:

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say: that he the said George H. Poole on the day and in the year aforesaid at the City and County aforesaid upon his oath aforesaid before the said the Honorable Daniel G. Rollins as such Surrogate as aforesaid (he the said Daniel G. Rollins as such Surrogate as aforesaid then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to him the said George H.
