Court of General Sessions

The People
vs.
Frank Gogler

Indictment

Reduction and Abduction

§§ 282 and 284 P. C.

in 1) having on or about the 12th day of April, 1888, reduced the complainant, Oda Weingerker, an unmarried female of previous chaste character, under promise of marriage.

2) inveigled her on said day into a house of assignation for the purpose of prostitution, and

3) inveigled and enticed her on said day into a certain building for said purpose.

The first count of the indictment cannot be sustained. The complainant refused to have sexual intercourse with the defendant.

There is no corroborative evidence of the promise of marriage in our predecessors.

08 18

The proof for the second current is ample.

2395 Third Ave.

Ida Weingerber, 246 East 111th St., unmarried, 19 years old, I live with my parents. I was employed by Louis Gogler, defendant's father, as Clerk and Bookkeeper in his photographer's studio in 350 and 352 Bowery, from the 10th of November, 1887, to the 6th of June, 1888.
 There I made the defendant's acquaintance. He was employed by his father in the frame store carried on by him in the same building.
 During the holiday season of 1887-1888 I had to work late in the evening, and the defendant accompanied me home every night. In or about the 3<sup>d</sup> of January, 1888, he visited my parents for the first time.
 From that day on until the 12th of April, 1888, he called on me three times every week at my parents house and frequently took me to balls and theatres.
 In or about February, 1888, he promised to marry <sup>me</sup> as soon as his father would raise his salary. On the 12th of April 1888, he proposed to me to go to the People's or Windsor Theatre, but when we came there, he ascertained that the first act was over already, and he thereupon suggested to go to a Concert. We walked down to the City Hall, where we took a Broadway car and rode up to ~~Washington Place~~, to Fourth Street, where we alighted and walked up two blocks to the corner of Greene Street. He represented to me that 238 Greene Street, was a Concert Hall, and I followed him into the house. When he had brought me into a room, I saw that he had deceived me and I demanded that he should let me out. While I was in a sort of a fainting spell, he locked the door. Afterwards he had several intercourse with me against my will and protest. He tried to persuade me into submission by repeating his promise of marriage, but I refused.

to yield. I halloed as loud as I could, but nobody came to my assistance. He also tried to intimidate me by predicting a fall of the house in consequence of my cries. After our cohabitation, he repeated his promise of marriage and requested me not to tell anything to my mother about my visit to said house. Two weeks thereafter, when my menstruation failed to come for six days, I informed my mother of what happened.

Joseph Koop, 196 Fourth Street, former janitor and gilder in the employ of Sigmond Glanzer, at 362 Bowery. I have known the defendant Frank Gogler since the last three years. In about the month of June, 1888, he informed me that he had had <sup>several</sup> intercourse with the complainant herein at a house on the corner of Greene or Wooster Street and Waverly Place, that she threatened to sure him, and that I should do him the favor to try to take her also to said place for the purpose of having some intercourse with her. I did not go with her, although I suggested it to her, but she refused to do it.

Max Doettcher, 94 East 10 Street, Clerk in M. L. Doyle's dry-goods store, 267 & 269 Grand Street. I have known the defendant for at least six years last past. In or about the month of June, 1888, the defendant informed me at Doyle's store that he had had sexual intercourse with the complainant herein, that her mother threatened to cause him trouble on account thereof. He asked me whether I could not do any thing for him. I replied that I could not do anything for him, as I did not know the complainant at all. He then intimated to me that my brother August was to blame for this trouble as much as he himself.

to yield. I halloed as loud as I could, but nobody came to my assistance. He also tried to intimidate me by predicting a pull of the house in consequence of my cries. After our cohabitation, he repeated his promise of marriage and requested me not to tell anything to my mother about my visit to said house. Two weeks thereafter, when my menstruation failed to come for six days, I informed my mother of what happened.

Joseph Koop, 196 Fourth Street, former janitor and gilder in the employ of Sigmond Glanzer, at 362 Bowery. I have known the defendant Frank Gogler since the last three years. In about the month of June, 1888, he informed me that he had had <sup>several</sup> intercourse with the complainant herein at a house on the corner of Greene or Wooster Street and Beaulieu Place, that she threatened to and suggested that I should get my said brother to testify that he had had connection with her.

Edward Gilgar, patrolman 15th precinct. In the month of April, 1888, the house 238 Greene Street, was known as a house of assignation.

Augusta Paettker, 94 East 10th Was requested by defendant to get her own to testify that he had sexual intercourse with complainant.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

VERSUS

Frank Gogler

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The special reason for this petition is that three weeks ago I have married into a highly respectable family, whose members, except my husband, are not aware of this action, and that the trial thereof would very likely have very harmful consequences to me and my husband.

Ans: No

Q When was the first time that you had any conversation with him in reference to his marrying you, when did you have that conversation with him?

A That was about 4 months after I was there.

Q When did you go there?

A I started there 9 months ago and after I was there four months I told him that people it seems to me knows a great deal about you you must have a wife and child the way the people talk. <sup>and</sup> they have told <sup>me</sup> you and he says I will prove to you it is not so And he went up stairs to his room And he got his divorce date of it up And he says Ida I was married once See here, here is
