The People of Court of General Sessions. Part I. Before John Powers Recorder Smyth. January 31st 1882 Indictment for robbery in the first degree Isabella Conenboren sworn and examined.
 I live 450 West Forty second St.; on that evening I was in the Tenth Avenue. I crossed that Avenue at Forty second St. I had a two dollar bill in my pocket book. It was between half past eight and nine. I saw the prisoner. I turned around and looked at him and all of a sudden he grabbed my left wrist and he forced my pocket book out of my hand; he held the wrist with one hand and he pulled the pocket book, which was in a piece of wrapping paper, with the other. Then I gave the alarm, and a number of people came around me and asked what was the matter; the prisoner ran off and ran in one of the halls in Forty second St.
 I felt the effect of his grab on my wrist all day Sunday. This happened on Saturday night.
 I recognize the prisoner distinctly. I was going up town on the Tenth Avenue. I was about the middle of the crossing when he caught hold of me by the wrist. He was close beside me.
 I turned round and looked at him. I held on to my pocket book although he pulled my hand hard. It was quite dark at the time.
 I took particular notice how he was dressed everything at that time. I am quite positive the prisoner is the man. There was a lamp on the corner and there was light enough in the grocery store on the corner for me to see.

 Cross Examined. I had never seen the prisoner before that night. This was done quickly.
 I had a good look at the face of the young man.
 When I got to the station house I said I could identify the young man by his clothes. I would not say that the clothing he has on was the clothing he wore. I said he had dark clothes and a Derby hat. I cannot be mistaken about this being the young man who snatched my pocket book. I saw him for the first time after he escaped on Wednesday morning at the 34th street station house; he was not put in with a lot of boys for me to single him out; he was alone. I was not told by any person that they had arrested the boy who robbed me; the detective came that morning he arrested a young man and wanted me to come and see if he was the man. I gave a description of the young man to the officer before that and when I saw him I identified him. I did not say at the station house that the only way I could identify the young man was by his clothing. I did not say that the clothing which he had on was the same clothing he had on the night he robbed me; the prisoner did not strike me. I was not knocked down; this was between 8 1/2 and 9. Francis McJagart swam I am a police officer, and ~~arrested~~ ^{was arrested} the prisoner, in Sammamah Hall, Twentieth St. on Wednesday morning about one o'clock. I went to the 18th precinct after he was arrested between First and Second aves. at 3 o'clock and took him from there to the 37th street Station house. The prisoner said, "I suppose there is a couple of years ahead of me now." I said, "You must know what you are arrested for." He said, "No. I do not." I said, "Why do you make this remark?" "Well, he says, I do not know; this was walking on to the station house. The next morning he asked me as a favor to go and see his mother. I asked him who I would call for? He said, Mr. Mason. I said, "Your name is John Powers;" he said, she will answer for both names. I went to see his mother and she answered to the name of Mason; he told me she lived at 524 West Fifty-fifth St. top floor. I came back and took him to Jefferson Market. I said, "This is a pretty bad case, John. What did you do with the pocket book you took from this young girl?" He said, "I

06 16

chucked it away when I took the money out of it. Cross Examined. I told him it was a young lady made the charge against him and that it was at Forty second St. and Tenth Avenue. The prisoner was perfectly sober when I had the conversation with him, he said he had nothing to say before the Judge. After the affidavit was made he pleaded guilty to the affidavit that was against him. John Provers, sworn in his own behalf testified. I live at 5 1/4 West Forty fifth street with my father and mother. I work on an ice wagon for H. Flint. The night of this robbery I left my own house at 10 minutes past seven, I was up town at 5 7th between 9th and 10th ave. till 9 1/2. I was in no house, I was waiting for a lady friend of mine. I did not see the complainant that evening and did not steal anything from her. I was arrested at a ball on Wednesday evening at Tammany hall. I borrowed the clothing I wore at the ball from Mr. O'Keefe. I have been arrested once before this for being drunk and got ten days for it. John O'Keefe swore that the prisoner borrowed a suit of clothes from him to go to the ball, the name of the clothing house where I bought them in 42nd St and 8th ave. is in the clothes Herman Platt testified that he was in the ice business and that the prisoner worked for him last summer; he was a good and honest boy with him.

John Mason and Margaret Mason, father and mother of the prisoner testified that he worked for a living and was only arrested once for disorderly conduct.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of larceny from the person
