of the issue of the United States in all of the value of about ten Nine Dollars

 the property of deponent,

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect; and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Jennie Parker and Kate Smith (now here) from the fact that deponent was in company of said Jennie and Kate in a room at the Astor Place Hotel when deponent had said money in the pants pockets of deponent's pants, that deponent was undressed and said pants were lying upon a chair in said room, that said Kate was sitting along side deponent. Deponent is informed by Henry Becken of the Astor Place Hotel that during the time said Kate was sitting by deponent, said Jennie took deponent's

Police Justice.

Salome Klug - Cross Examined
by Nathan Strobel, Counselor at Law - for the defendant - I know the defendant over 3 years. I have never been engaged in the Policy business - My mother has not been engaged in it.

Why did you buy these tickets described in your Complaint?

Because I thought I would win something. Lottery Policy I had bought a ticket before. I did not win anything. I did not make a Complaint then. I did not then know that it was against the Law. About 3 weeks ago I learned it was unlawful by reading the paper that the detectives were going around making arrests -

I made Complaint to Officer Mc

Dermott that I had these ~~Lottery Policy~~ tickets and that I wanted the defendant arrested. I saw the ~~Police~~ Officer McDermott accidentally at the corner of 46th Street and

and I do - I do not know him before - I had seen him around and thought that he was an off in. All the people said that he was a detective & that he went after the Policy Shops.

Q Name one person who told you so.
A I cannot - I hear so.

Q How do you earn your living?

A I go out washing, sewing & knitting.
Q Do you know any Policy Shop Backer?

A I do not know what it is.

Q Do you know anyone in the Policy Shop business -

A I do not - I am not getting paid by anyone -

There was no one behind the counter but the defendant when he sold me the tickets - on one day in the morning.

I am positive he is the man I bought the tickets from - he wrote the tickets at the time I purchased them.

Q What did you say when you went in to his place -

A I asked him if I could buy a couple of numbers from him and he said yes. I told him that I wanted 59 last in the Kentucky for $30.

 and 59 last in both for $5.
 and he said I have a good gig for

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Sovio Petrovsky

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF "Vending and Selling to another what are commonly known as and called Lottery Policies," committed as follows:

The said

late of the Nineteenth Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty two at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did unlawfully and knowingly vend, sell, barter, furnish and supply, to one

Salome Kung

and did procure and cause to be procured for the said

a certain paper, instrument, and writing, commonly called a lottery policy, which said paper, instrument, and writing, called a lottery policy, is as follows, that is to say:

33 534
59-L of 30

59-L of 520

(a more particular description of which said instrument and writing so commonly called a lottery policy, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the Peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF "Vending and Selling to another what is commonly known as and called Lottery Policies," committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: On the day and in year aforesaid, and on divers other days and times between that day, and the day of the taking of this inquisition, was and yet is a common gambler; and that he the said

on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on said other days and times between that day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, at and in a certain room in a building, known as number three hundred and six east Forty sixth Street in said Ward, City and County, with force and arms, did unlawfully and knowingly vend, sell, barter, furnish and supply to divers persons (whose names are to the jurors aforesaid unknown and cannot now be given), and did procure, and caused to be procured, for the said divers persons (whose names are to the jurors aforesaid unknown), certain instruments and writings, commonly known as and called lottery policies (a more particular description of which is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the Peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT—

Samir Petrowsky

 dollars & fifty seven cents, and one plated Chain with charm attached of the value of Six dollars, said property being in all of the value of thirty four  $57/100$  Dollars

 the property of deponent

 was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Thomas L. Pettit (now here)

From the fact that deponent saw a portion of said property in the possession of said Thomas, and for the further reason that he acknowledged to deponent in the presence of witnesses, and in open house that he did steal a portion of property but says that there was only one  $57/100$  dollars of money and that the dollar was a counterfeit.
