Now here, Presented the annexed false, forged and fraudulent instrument in writing to deponent, which purported to be a check or order for money on the Fifth National Bank for the sum of forty ($40) dollars, drawn to the order of said deponent by James J. Spearling.
That said deponent then and there stated to deponent that he worked for said Spearling, at 6th Avenue and 29th Street, and that said check was the amount of his wages due him. That he asked deponent to cash the same. That deponent gave him four dollars and the day thereafter an additional amount of two dollars. That thereafter said instrument was returned to deponent from said Bank who refused to pay the same being in doubt of the signature "James J. Spearling" as being genuine.

That said James J. Spearling, then present, informs deponent that he does business at 54 West

Gerson Cohen sworn. I reside in Bayard st. in this city. I remember the night of the 7th of Oct, this happened in the day time. I keep a store and have two rooms on the third floor, which were broken into. I had my furniture and family's clothing there. I had a gold watch and a plated chain worth $47. There was a patent spring lock to the bed room; it was an ordinary lock on the outer door; the doors were fastened. There was nobody in the house at the time. I think it was about 12 o'clock when I was informed that something happened in my room. The door on which the patent lock was was pushed in. The bedding, the clothing and the watch and chain were missing; we found the clothing afterward and the bedding, but the other things I have not seen since I left the room about ten o'clock and returned about twelve. Meyer Cohen sworn. I am the son of the last witness; on the 7th of Oct. I saw Steier about 12 o'clock in Jersey st., about half a block from 6 Bayard st.; he went into 13 Jersey st. and dropped a bag on the floor and ran away. I brought the bag home; it contained three pillows and a quilt, which

My father identified. Cross Examined. A woman was hallooing, "Stop Thief" and I saw him carrying the bundle. I saw nobody else carrying a bag or bundle. I saw nobody hand a bundle to Steier; the woman did not tell me anything. I am sure I saw Steier that day, I never saw him before that day. When I got into the store I asked the woman if she knew the man and she said, no. He went through the yard and the woman caught him there; he was never out of my sight until the officer came.

Mary Cohen sworn. I remember the 7th of Oct. and live on the same floor with the complainant. I was at the grocery store about 15 minutes to 12; when I was going home I saw a young man carrying a bundle out of the hall (Gillett) I knew he had no right to be there and that he was only in the country four or five weeks. I did not like his looks and I thought I would follow him and see what he had in the bundle. I went to the corner of Canal and Eldridge Sts. and when he saw I was following he saw and said, "Mrs. Cohen, don't be frightened, it is not yours; don't get me into trouble. I never touched nothing belonging to you." I said, "you robbed me;" he said, "no, I did not."

I saw that the bundle did not belong to me. He said the bundle belonged to the baker (the complainant), and that he and his partners intended to break into my house tomorrow. I told him to fetch the bundle back again to where he took it from and if he would not I would get a policeman; he let the bundle fall on the corner of Bayard and Forsythe Sts. and ran away. I got frightened and never noticed what the young man did till I saw the bundle on the floor. The complainant's son ran after him; it did not take ten minutes till the other young man was arrested with a bundle of clothing. The things which Gillett had were shown to Mr. Cohen, who identified them.

George H. Munn sworn. I am an officer of the 10th precinct and the premises 6 Bayard St are in the 10th ward. I arrested the defendants on the 7th of Oct. Steier denied every thing and so did Gillett. I brought them to the station house. I found $20.74 in the pocket of Gillett. Cross Examined. I found nothing in Steier's pocket; the money I took from Gillett is in the property clerk's office. I arrested Steier between twelve and one o'clock and Gillett about a quarter to eight o'clock in the evening.

Joseph Steier sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live 152. Ridge St. I am a tin smith, am in this country four years, am a single man. I worked for Mr. Scheider in 29th St. I worked in Williamsburgh and for Mr. Wolfstein in Philadelphia. I did not work for two months before my arrest. I was going through Elizabeth St. Gillett had two bundles and he asked me to carry one and said he would pay for it; he afterwards run away; the boy came and took the bundle off me, and afterwards the woman said, "you will get arrested," so I ran; the officer came and took me in. The first time I was in Court Gillett asked me what I was going to say? I said, "I am going to say the truth." Gillett said, if the Judge asked me where I got that bundle I must say I got it from a man, and if he asked me if I knew him I must say, no. He sent me tobacco and sugar after that. I have never been arrested in my life and never stole anything. I never saw Gillett before. I did not enter into a contract with him to break into this house.

Joseph Steier and Simon Gillett.

Dear Sir,

This case was tried in Part One of the Court of General Sessions, about the end of the October term, the indictment having been found at that term.

The defendants were convicted of burglary, having entered a building and stolen some clothing and other property, but no money.

At the time of Gillett's arrest, there was taken from him some twenty dollars in money, which he claimed to be his own property.
This money, ($20.74) is now in the hands of the Property Clerk at Police Headquarters. I have an order for it from Gillett, but Mr.
Harriott refuses to deliver it without an order from you.

There was no evidence given at the trial tending to shew that the money was stolen, or that it is required to be used as evidence. The case is finally disposed of, and there seems to be no reason why the money should be further held.

Mr. Fitzgerald tried the case, and will doubtless recollect the evidence. If, upon inquiry, you find that I am right, will you kindly give me such an order as is necessary?

Yours truly,

On inquiry of Mr. Semple, I find that he knows nothing of the case and says that he has not heard from you in regard to it.

Doubtless, in the press of business, some mistake has occurred, or by some accident the papers have not reached him.

Might I venture to suggest that Mr. Fitzgerald tried the case and is familiar with the facts? He could in one moment assure you that there is no reason to withhold the money which was taken from the defendant at the time of his arrest.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir,

I learn that Mr. Fitzgerald has made to you a favorable report in regard to the matter of the money now in the hands of the Property Clerk, belonging to me, and that the papers are now on your desk, awaiting your action.

I am particularly pressed for money just now, and although the ammount is small, every thing helps. If you will give Mr. Penny the necessary instructions at once, before the McQuade trial engrosses your attention, I shall consider it a special favor to me.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, SS.

AN INQUISITION,

Taken at the house of Coroners' Office No. 67 Park Row Street, in the 4th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, this 14th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and 86, before U. J. B. Messenger M.D., Coroner, of the City and County aforesaid, on view of the Body of James Cunningham lying dead at

Upon the Oaths and Affirmations of Ten good and lawful men of the State of New York, duly chosen and sworn, or affirmed and charged to inquire, on behalf of said people, how and in what manner the said James Cunningham came to his death, do upon their Oaths and Affirmations, say: That the said James Cunningham came to his death by Shock and Coma from Compound Fracture of the Skull and Compression of the Brain by Surface Clot, the result of a fall, Caused by being struck on the head by Mortimer P. Sullivan opposite No. 45 Oliver St. on Sept. 8/86 about 7 P.M. To the best of our belief we agree that Mortimer P. Sullivan is directly accountable for the death of said James Cunningham, we believing him to be the man who came out of No. 47 Oliver St. and struck deceased. We also recommend the holding of Mr. Kiernan as a witness, as we believe he can give more positive evidence, We exonerate James Lane, one of the accused, from all blame.

In Witness Whereof, We, the said Jurors, as well as the CORONER, have to this Inquisition set our hands and seals, on the day and place aforesaid.

Officer Martin Keogh 4th Precinct, being sworn says: On September 8/86, about 7 P.M. a boy came to me at Oliver St. & Chatham Square & told me there was a man bleeding on the sidewalk. I immediately went to 47 Oliver St. & found the deceased Jas. Cunningham on the sidewalk bleeding profusely from a wound in the head. I got a wagon & conveyed him to the Station House & from there he was taken to Chambers St. Hosp. per Ambulance. The deceased was sitting on the curbstone, he appeared to have been drinking. He was unconscious at the time. He might have fractured his skull by a fall. I smelled liquor on him. I did not know the deceased.

Mrs. Bridget Sullivan being sworn says: I reside at 50 Oliver St. Am not related to the deceased or to the accused. I do not know Mrs. Lane either. On Sept 8/86 about 10 AM I was sitting at my window - 3rd floor front. I saw the deceased struck by some one but I do not know who it was. I did not see a weapon with the person who hit him, I cannot say if the deceased was sober or not. He was struck on the side of the head. He was struck before my house, when he was struck he fell half on the sidewalk & half on the street. He fell on his side heavily. There was a good many men on the sidewalk at the time. I heard the deceased talking to the old lady and abusing her, I cannot say if the accused struck the deceased. I have lived at 50 Oliver St. for 4 months. Mrs. Lane lives across the street. I cannot say if the deceased had a stick in his hand or not, he might have had one. I did not see the deceased strike anyone. He may have struck some one before I saw him.

James A. Kiernan being sworn says: I reside at 50 Oliver St. Am Clerk Supreme Court Chambers Records. I do not know the accused or the deceased. On Sept. 8/86 about 7 P.M. I saw one man strike another. I saw Mortimer P. Sullivan there. I am not sure if it was he I saw. I was reading my paper in the ^{4th} ^{and 5th} story ^{4th} floor. I looked out the window & saw a lady talking to a man & making motions to him to go away. He went away. Afterwards I saw him standing in the middle of the street from there he went to the sidewalk opposite No 45 Oliver St. While standing there near the curb I saw a man run down the steps of No 47, strike this ^{man} deceased & he fell over backwards into the street the back of his head struck on the paving stones & made quite a report. In the fall his hat fell off. The man who struck him picked it up and put it on his forehead & walked away and walked into the house he came out of. I saw the man who was struck taken away in a hand car. The man who struck the deceased struck him on the side of the head.

My Dear Sir - When
the case of People vs Martinez G. Fulliver was called last Monday before Recorder Smyth, the people were not ready.
I told the Recorder that I could not try it - next Monday, because the Judge will come was set down - presumptively for Monday next - (just - case on the calendar by Judge Patterson -
Recorder Smyth said in substance, "put it - down for May 2nd and here from the Supreme Court and fix a day when it can actually be tried" or words to that effect. I respectfully refer you to Reader Smith for the truth of this assertion. I write this note so that you need not go to the trouble of per-suing for money.

Very truly yours

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Martinez P. Sullivan

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Martinez P. Sullivan

of the CRIME of Manslaughter, — committed as follows :

The said Martinez P. Sullivan, — late of the Third Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the nineteen day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- nine , at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon one James Cunningham, then and there being lawfully and lawfully did make an assault, and with the said James Cunningham, with the hand of him the said Martinez P. Sullivan, in and upon the head of him the said James Cunningham, then and there lawfully and lawfully did strike and beat, and the said Martinez P.

Sullivan, with his hand aforesaid, threw the said James Cunningham, down into and upon the ground there, then and there lawfully and lawfully did strike, cast and thence, by reason of which said striking, pushing and throwing the said James Cunningham did then and there fall, with great force and violence, down into and upon the ground there, again into him the said James Cunningham then and there, as well by the striking and beating of said as also by the pushing, casting and throwing in manner of said, in and upon the head of him the said James Cunningham, one mortal wound and fracture, of which said mortal wound and fracture he the said James Cunningham, afterwards to wit on the ninth day of December, in the year of said, at the City and County of said, died.

And so the Grand Jury of said do say, That the said William P. Sullivan threw the said James Cunningham, in manner and form and by the means of said, willfully and feloniously did kill and slay against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Second Count.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said Mortimer C. Sullivan of the same crime of Manslaughter, committed as follows:

The said Mortimer C. Sullivan, late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said eighth day of September, in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the said James Cunningham, then and there being, unlawfully and feloniously did make another assault, and with the said James Cunningham, with a certain stick which he the said Mortimer C. Sullivan in this right hand then and there held and held, in and upon the head of him the said James Cunningham, then and there feloniously and unlawfully did strike, beat and wound, giving unto him the said James Cunningham, then and there with the stick aforesaid, in and upon the head of him the said James Cunningham, one mortal wound

And, by reason of which said wound, and fracture, of which said mortal wound and fracture he the said James Runningham afterwards, to wit: on the ninth day of September, in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, died.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say; That the said Mortimer C. Sullivan, him the said James Runingham, in manner and form and by the means aforesaid, intentionally and feloniously did kill and slay, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
