Emil S Levi

of No. Fourteen (14) White Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is in the lace business and is 33 years of age and says that ~~on the~~ since about the 15th day of June 1881 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, He has been in the receipt of a number of letters, the majority of which are herewith annexed, which said letters are written to deponent by one Jessie Maillard, who did subscribe the false and fictitious name "Jessie Levi" thereto, and caused the same to be delivered to deponent.

That deponent is an Importer of Laces doing business at n^o 14 White Street in the City of New York. He has a brother named Joseph Levi whom said Jessie Maillard charges to be the father of her child born out of wedlock. That said Joseph Levi is at present in France, in Europe, on business which takes him there quite frequently.

That deponent has since said 15th day of June 1881, been harassed and annoyed by said Jesse Maillard sending him letters to his said place of business and his private residence. That in the month of August 1881, deponent caused said Jessie's arrest for interfering with his said business, and said Jessie was arraigned before Honorable Charles A. Hammer, ^{then} one of the Police Justices of the City of New York, at the Tombs Police Court, who committed said Jessie to the City Prison for Disorderly conduct. Said Jessie wrote to deponent from said City Prison begging him to intercede for her release which deponent did, and requested said Justice Plummer to discharge said Jessie. Before discharging her however, said Justice Plummer reproved her and, on her promise not to molest Deponent in the future she was allowed to go. That said Jessie, instead of keeping faith with said Justice Plummer, immediately continued calling on Deponent and sending to Deponent more letters, whereupon Deponent caused her second arrest and she was brought before Hon. Butler H. Ripby, one of the Police Justices of the City of New York, where Deponent appeared against her for the second time - and where on her statement that she was simply pursuing her seducer, and the father of her child, said Justice Ripby discharged her on her promise not to call on Deponent or molest him in the future.

That notwithstanding this last promise so made to said Justice Ripby, in or about the month of ~~September~~ 1881, said Justice Jessie since said time has continued sending Deponent letters through the mail, by messengers and telegraphic messages directed to Deponent's place of business and his private residence and has disturbed Deponent's family and the sisters of Deponent and has called at Deponent's sisters house

N^o 338 East 72nd Street in said city and there annoyed Deponent's said sisters and yesterday the 13th day of December 1881, she sent to Deponent's place of business no less than three letters and three telegraphic dispatches and three messengers with letters to Deponent's residence at N^o 170 East 74th Street in this city as late as half past ten o'clock at night.

That during the month of September 1881 when Deponent learnt that said Jessie was in distressed circumstances he sent her the sum of one hundred and twenty dollars, and that since said time said Jessie has continued to look upon Deponent as the person who will become financially responsible to her for the paternity of her child.

Deponent is informed by his brother that said Jessie was not seduced by him and Deponent has seen letters written by said Jessie to his said brother in which in her writing, and over her signature, she admits that she was not seduced by his said brother. That in reference to the paternity of said child, Deponent's brother is willing to defend the charge of Bastardy made by said Jessie and says that he will be able to prove that during the period said Jessie claims she was carnally intimate with his said brother, she was criminally intimate with other men and immediately said Joseph Levi returns to the City of New York, (from whence business alone has called him) which Deponent expects to be in about six weeks, Deponent will bring him into Court and surrender him to answer any charge which may be preferred against him.

Wherefore Deponent prays that said Jessie Maillard may be apprehended and dealt with as the law directs, and particularly as provided for in Chapter 209 of the laws of 1881.

The People, &c, on the Complaint of Emil S Levi

against
Jessie Maillard

Malicious annoyance

Examination held December 16th 1881 before Hon: Butler H Bixby Police Justice.

Emil S Levi being duly sworn says I have had conversation with Miss Maillard, I did at the time I had her locked up before when she was before Judge Hammer as stated in my affidavit. I found the letter marked Exhibit "A" in my desk the following morning after she was locked up by order of Judge Hammer Exhibit "B" was also found on my desk at the same time

2. Did the defendant say anything to you about her picking any letters attached to this Complaint at any time?

(Objected to as too general, immaterial & irrelevant) Objection over-ruled

A. She did, at 86th Street I forget the number in presence of Officer Foley of Leonard Street Station, in July 1881

0497

I requested her to discontinue letters or coming to our business premises or to annoy us altogether. She said she would not write any more letters.

2. Were the letters that she admitted she had sent in presence of Officer Foley in the same handwriting as the letters you had received up to the time of making this complaint?

(Objected to ~~the~~ unless the exhibits "A" & "B" thus far introduced are identified as being in the handwriting of the defendant.) ~~Marked - exception~~ They were.

A. (Exhibits "C" & "D" introduced in evidence) Exhibits "C" & "D" were delivered at my house day before yesterday by the defendant in person.

- Q Compare the writing of Exhibits "C" & "D" with the other letters received by you up to the time of making this complaint and state if they are in the same handwriting?

Objected to, the witness not being an expert and can only testify as to a conclusion (Objector Sustained)

I have been in business about 20 years, during that time I have been in the receipt of many letters a great many, thousands at least twenty thousand in different handwritings, I am not an expert but a good judge of handwritings. I have been a correspondent during the 20 years I have been in business.

2. Do you consider yourself competent to judge by reason of your 20 years experience as a commercial man and correspondent and having had at least 20,000 letters pass through your hands, a competent judge of handwriting?

A I am. (Exhibits "1" to "19" introduced)

2. Examine Exhibits from Nos 1 to 19 and state which of them are in your judgment not in the handwriting of the defendant.

A Exhibits 5, 6, 13, 14, 15 & 19 are not and the others I state positively are in the handwriting of the defendant.

2. What statement if any did the prisoner make in reference to Exhibit "12" in your presence today?

A She said that is the letter, printing bill sent to the lawyers who sent me a threatening letter.

Cross Examined - Counsel for defence moves that Exhibits "A." "B." "C." "D" be stricken from the record, they not forming part of this Complaint not being attached to the affidavit of the Complainant

Counsel for prosecution consents that they be used simply for identification of hand writing -

Cross Examined

~~Q - How long have you lived~~
I have lived in the City of New York for the past 13 years, I resided previously in Greenville Pennsylvania for three & months not in business just arrived from Germany. I have been in business in 3 different locations since January 1873 My brother Joseph Levy has an interest in the business he is the brother named in the firm. I cannot remember how long I have known the defendant she called at the store the first time I saw her

I do not know if she asked you my brother or not & that I went & spoke to her I had a conversation with her she apologized for troubling me coming to the store she was crying & in telling me the history of her she became acquainted with my brother during my absence in Europe between April & July of 1880 and she came to our premises looking for a man named Levi who had seduced her & that an acquaintance sprang up between her & my brother from that date that in fact she was carnally intimate with him & upon the appearance of a younger brother named Louis Levi coming down stairs stated that she had also been carnally intimate with him I told her that my brother Joe was in Europe & requested her to keep away from the store, she again stated very lady like that she was sorry to take up my time & then left the store place in October or November of 1880.
I told her I was the brother of Joe Lee.

I next saw her when I called with the Officer on 86th St.
 In July 1881, I saw her next at my store about the 10th or 15th of August I next saw her at her home ~~where~~^{after} her confinement I sent there with a business man to help her & gave her twenty dollars in cash. She had ~~not~~ written me ^{to} call but had written me to send money I do not know but I think that letter asking me to send money so ~~many~~ the exhibits my brother Joseph was in Europe I had a conversation with my brother Joseph about this file I did not know of my own knowledge of his relations with this file. I there is a warrant against my brother I did not attempt to interfere with the Officer I sent to the Station House to have the Officer arrested for behaving like a brute.
 I gave the 20 dollars & promised her more money I promised her 100 dollars this was not an act of charity I did not tell her when she was hard up to call upon me, I did not tell her to call on me for money when she was in distress I did not say I knew it was my brother's child & it was my duty to help it in my brother's absence Exhibit 12 was sent to me by a man from named Jackson Wright & Goldsmith I did not mean that said Exhibit 12 was sent to me

 direct.
 By the Court.

When I called upon her with my ^{friend} ~~friend~~ ~~she~~ she was destitute I would let no woman starve if I knew it. After her confinement she wrote me of it saying she had many expenses & needed money when I called upon her with a ~~large~~ ~~friend~~ afterwards I gave her a hundred dollars. I sent the hundred 0515

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Jessie Maillard

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Jessie Maillard

of the CRIME OF Perjury

committed as follows:

The said

Jessie Maillard

late of the City and County of New York, on the ~~twenty eighth~~ day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- ~~one~~, at the City and County aforesaid, ~~with force and arms~~ personally appeared before

Hugh Gardner Esquire then and there being one of the Police Justices of the City of New York, at the Police Court of the Fifth District of said City and then and there before the said Hugh Gardner Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, as such Police Justice made complaint against one Joseph Levi as the father of a certain bastard child, and thereupon the said Hugh Gardner Esquire entertained the said complaint and entered upon an examination of the matter in due form of law and to inquire whether the said Joseph D. Levi was the father of a bastard child by the said Jessie Maillard which was then and there likely to become chargeable to and a charge upon the City of New York aforesaid and at and upon the hearing of said matter before the said Justice, it then and there became and was material that the said Hugh Gardner as such Police Justice should know whether the said Jessie Maillard on the thirtieth day of August in the year eighteen hundred and eighty one, at the City of New York was delivered of a male bastard child, and whether at the time of the hearing aforesaid the said bastard child was living and likely to be chargeable to the City of New York, and whether the said Joseph G. Levi was the father of the said bastard child. And thereupon to wit: on the day and in the year first aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Jessie Maillard was in due form of Law sworn by and before the said Hugh Gardner Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, and did make affidavit in writing, and before the said Justice last named did then and there take her corporal oath of and concerning the truth of the several matters contained in the said affidavit, by the said Hugh Gardner Police Justice as aforesaid, then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said Jessie Maillard in that behalf and the said Jessie Maillard being so sworn as aforesaid, then and there in and by her said affidavit upon her oath aforesaid, unlawfully did falsely, corruptly, knowingly, wilfully and maliciously depose and swear in substance and to the effect following that is to say:

That on the thirtieth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty one she (hereby the said Jessie Maillard thereby meaning) was delivered of a male bastard child, and that the said child is likely to be chargeable to the City of New York (meaning thereby that the said child was then at the time of the said hearing likely to be so chargeable) and that Joseph D. Ferri (the said Joseph D. Ferri thereby meaning) is the father of said bastard child.

Whereas in truth and in fact the male bastard child of which the said Jessie Maillard was delivered on the thirtieth day of August in the year aforesaid was at the time of the hearing aforesaid before the said Police Justice dead and not likely to be chargeable to the said City of New York, and whereas in truth and in fact the said Joseph D. Ferri was not the father of any bastard child of which the said Jessie Maillard had been delivered which was then likely to be chargeable to the City of New York.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say that the said Jessie Maillard, in manner and form aforesaid, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid unlawfully did commit wilful and corrupt perjury against the form of the Statute in such case made.

My dear Mr. Donnelly.

Henry Marks advised me that his bondsman, Mr. Marks, has notified him to be ready for trial on Friday morning next the 12th inst at the General Sessions.

Will you please send by bearer some blank Subpoenas, and also inform me in what Part of the Court the case is to be tried.

As to-morrow is the "Day of Atonement," the defendant, as well as myself will observe the same. Hence the reason why I want to serve the witnesses to-day. This case has been, several times, on the Calendar and the defendant always ready for trial; so that I hope it will be tried on Friday next.

Please oblige

Yours Very Truly
Morris Goodhart.

~~of No.~~ a Police Officer attached to the 28th street, Precinct Police being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 26th day of October 1882 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, and about the hour of one o'clock A. M.

Cornelius M. McCarthy, now presently was standing on the corner of 3rd Avenue and 77th Street, in company with another person whose name is unknown to deponent, that deponent went up to said defendant and his companion and asked them what they were doing there when they answered "Nothing"

Deponent told them to go along about their business, they refused to go, deponent then rapped for assistance when the said M. McCarthy and his companion ran up 3rd Avenue to the corner of 79th Street, when deponent saw the said M. McCarthy cast from his hand, some Iron instrument, which fell on the sidewalk, deponent continued in pursuit of said M. McCarthy to Lexington Avenue and 79th Street, where he said M. McCarthy was captured by Officer Ahles of the 28th Precinct Police - Deponent was subsequently informed by Robert J. J. Copeland, (now present) that he Copeland heard the said Iron instrument fall on the sidewalk, and that he immediately picked it up and found it to be the instrument (here shown) and which is known as "a Burglars Jimmy" deponent further says that he has reason to believe that said M. McCarthy had said Jimmy in his possession with the intent to commit a felony.
