City and County of New York, ss. Dennis O. Hara of No. 1st Precinct Police Street, aged        years, occupation Police Officer being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 10 day of December 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York,

Joseph Haas (now here) did with intent to use, carried, concealed and possessed an instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as the slung shot or Black Jack, from the following circumstances to wit: That about the hour of 6.30 o'clock P. M. of the aforesaid date, deponent arrested said defendant at the corner of Canal and Mercer Streets, on the charge of having committed a Larceny. And that on deponent taking said defendant to the 1st Precinct Station House, the deponent did then in said Station House search the clothing of said defendant, and in the hip pocket of the pants then and there worn on the person of the defendant, found concealed and secreted, the slung shot hereto shown and exhibited in Court. Deponent therefore charges the defendant with violation of Section 410 of the Penal Code - and asks that he may be held and dealt with as the Law may direct

I Henry Heilsborn being duly sworn says. I am a brother of the defendant above named. The defendant is aged 34 years and <sup>has</sup> been in this country some 17 or 18 years and has been steadily employed up till about two months ago, when he commenced to drink. I am of the opinion that at the time he attempted to commit suicide, he was for the time bereft of good reason by reason of his condition adduced by such drink. He has never before been in any trouble - and should he be released from custody, he can readily obtain suitable employment and further than that I will see to it that all his wants and necessities in every respect are supplied.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } of New York, } ss.of No. 60 East 112th Street, aged 56 years,occupation Keep House being duly sworn,deposes and says, that on the 5 day of December 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and person of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One Pocket Book containing Gold and Silver money of the United States to the amount of 14.00 Dollars and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen ~~from deponent person possession~~ and carried away by Harry Hayes (arr. here) from the fact that on said date at about the hour of 5 P.M. deponent was in the store of Bloomingdale Bros 3rd Avenue and 59th Street and felt some one push against her and immediately deponent missed the said Pocket Book from the right hand pocket of the dress that was then worn on the person of deponent. Said defendant was alongside of deponent and deponent accused said defendant with having taken said property. Said defendant then handed to deponent the said pocketbook taken from deponent's person. Deponent therefore accuses said defendant with having feloniously taken said suit carried away property from the possession and person of deponent and asks that she may be dealt with as the law directs.

On motion of District Attorney Indictment returned.

I have examined the pieces of mail introduced in this case and am convinced that the defendant took the clothing &c. of his roommate with an arrangement of mutual exchange which had been freely admitted by them both for some time previous and that his act was accompanied with a wrongful intent.

I therefore recommend that the within indictment be dismissed.

New York General Sessions.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Nicholas Heyne

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I am informed by Johannes Marjerhoff (the person mentioned in the complaint as owner of the property referred to there, who was at the time mentioned boarding with me and rooming with the defendant Nicholas Heyne) that he and said defendant were in the habit of exchanging each other's clothing with perfect freedom each wearing the others whenever desired and that said Heyne took said property wholly in that manner and with no wrongful intent whatever.

I therefore request the District Attorney to recommend the dismissal of the indictment found against said Nicholas Heyne Dec. 8th 1892 for larceny. Auguste Schmitter Dated Dec. 13th 1892.

I have read the above statement and so far as the references therein to me and my statement to the complainant the same is true.
Sated Dec. 13th 1892. Johannes Marjerhoff.
