Police Department of the City of New York,

Precinct No. 22.

New York, Dec. 10th 1891.Hon. Frederick Smyth, Recorder.

Sir:

The following named persons ^{have} complained to me about Mary Scaulon keeping a disorderly house at the premises 267 N. 54th St., viz:

Mrs. Jacobson of 265 N. 54th St., and Mrs. Olmstead, who owns the premises (263), also Officers Daniel D. Kash, William G. Burke and Patrick Haughey, all of my command. Patrolman Michael Phelan formerly of the 20th Precinct, but now attached to this Precinct, arrested Mary Scaulon on August 15th 1885, for Robbery in a Disorderly House, 574 Seventh Ave., kept by her (Scaulon). She Robbed Mamie Harley (one of the inmates) of 80 Dollars; and she (Scaulon) was sentenced on October 9th 1885, to a term of 2 years in the Penitentiary by Judge Gildersleeve in the Court of General Sessions.

Respectfully,

Thomas J. McAvoy
Captain, 25th Precinct

Maggie Cuff, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

By the Court?

Q Where do you reside?

A In 49th Street. I think it is 454 West; I am not sure about the number.

Q Did you ever live at 54th St & 8th Avenue, the Northeast corner?

A I lived there two weeks

Q Who occupies that house?

A Mrs Scanlon

Q Is she the proprietress of that house?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you live there?

A Two weeks, your Honor; I was brought to the house as a servant.

Q Do you know anything about the character of the house?

A There is two girls there and they go out in the evenings and bring in men. What they pay I don't know.

Q Pay them for what?

A Whatever they want to do

Q What is that?

A Go upstairs and go to bed.

Q With the men?

A Yes, sir.

Q Does Mrs Scanlon receive the money?

A I have seen her receive it a couple of times

Q Do you recollect telling me the last day you were here that you saw her receive it over half a dozen times?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever see these women in bed with men in the house while you were there?

A Yes, sir. I seen them going in the room, but not in bed.

Q Do you recollect making a statement to me the other day that you saw different men and women in bed in that house on a dozen different occasions?

dozen different occasions.

A Gentlemen would bring them in the house.

Q Walk right into the rooms with them?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know what she charged for the use of those rooms on those occasions.

A For a little while down stairs fifty cents and for a room upstairs one dollar.

Q Who receives the money from those parties.

A Mrs Scanlan.

Q Did you ever see Mrs Scanlan receive any money from those parties - from the men that came into the house with women several times - a dozen times?

A Yes, your Honor.

Q Did you also have men visit you at the house there?

A No, your Honor. Men would come up looking for girls and Mrs Scanlan would take me to the room but I refused.

Did you ever go in bed with them?
A Yes, sir, about three times

City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. 22nd Precinct Street, aged _____ years, occupation Police Officer being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 24th day of November 1891, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, and on diverse other days, and times, said Mary Scanlan did keep and maintain a common bawdy house and house of ill fame, at premises No. 267 West 5th Street in said City.

That on said date deponent called at said house in company with a woman and stated that he desired to hire a room for a short time. That thereupon the said Mary Scanlan showed deponent to a room after he had paid her the sum of fifty cents for its hire.

That subsequent to this, deponent has been solicited by a ^{one Lizzie Buff} woman, standing in the doorway in said premises, who offered to take deponent to a room there for the purpose of sexual intercourse.
That deponent thereupon arrested said
Lizzie Buff, and she admitted to deponent that the said premises were used by said Mary Scanlan, as a house of prostitution and assignation.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Mary Scanlan

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse

Mary Scanlan

(Sec. 322,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said

Mary Scanlan

late of the 22nd Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 24th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in said house divers ill-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well as in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offenses on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Mary Scanlan

(Sec. 385,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the 24th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, and ninety- one, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

(Sec. 322,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

Mary Scanlan
Mary Scanlan
late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the 24th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- one and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are habitually disturbed, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Michael Sheridan

City and County of New York ss:

Jacob M. Gust
being duly sworn says that he resides at No 167 East 6th St. in said City that for the past six years he has been connected with operations engaged in the disinfecting business in this City; being for five (5) years ^{over} with the Germicide Co. & since last April 1911
acting as general agent of The West Disinfecting Co. whose office is at No
12 - 1st Ave Cor 10th St. in said City.

That for a period of fully six years he has known the above named defendant and has never heard or known of said defendant having been charged with any wrongdoing. That he has always conducted himself in a straightforward manner and deponent believes that at this that said defendant committed the crime to which he has pleaded guilty - he was kept of good reason and it was not his intention to deprive the complainant of any of his property -

Michael Sheridan.

City & County of New York ss:

Thomas M. Sheridan

being duly sworn says that he is the Secretary and Treasurer of the New York and Brooklyn Brewing Company, which position he has held for the past three years.

The defendant Michael Sheridan above named is my brother and for a period of two years prior to about four months ago said defendant was employed by said Company and held a position under me - during that time
(two years) I entrusted said defendant with various sums of money, as much as $1000. at a time and in each and every instance said defendant performed his duties faithfully and honestly.

Said defendant has at all times conducted himself as a well behaved citizen and the present charge is the first instance that said defendant has been charged with the commission of any crime.

That in case the Court shall see fit to suspend sentence, I am in a position to say that I shall secure him honest employment.

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Arthur Smith (nowhere) from the fact that—at about the hour of 2.30 O'clock P.M. said date. deponent was riding in a belt line car. on E 59th St. and at that time deponent had said sum of six dollars in her pocketbook. which was in deponent's dress pocket. and at the corner of 2^d Avenue. and 59th St.—a man who had been sitting beside deponent in said car. and who had changed his seat—was arrested on a charge of stealing a ladies pocket-book in said car. deponent thereafter discovered that the said sum of money had been taken out of defendant's pocket-book. Defendant then came to the 4th District Police Court room and picked out from eight men who were sitting on a bench in said Court this defendant and fully identified him as the man who had sat beside defendant in said car.

Wherefore defendant charges this defendant with feloniously taking, stealing and carrying away said sum of money from the person of defendant.

charged with Larceny,

Edward Smith's right name is Edward Nicholson.
He has lived with his parents up to the time of his arrest at 19 First Street. He worked as an assistant pastry cook at O'Brien's Pavilion on Coney Island from June 11th until October 22nd of this year. Before that he worked nine months for a Mr. Stahl, at 309 Canal St, restaurant.
I cannot learn of his ever being arrested before. His parents are apparently respectable poor people. His mother will be in Court this morning. His father is a pastry cook and usually had Edward employed with him.

Very respectfully,

Jacob Von Gerichten
Det. Sergt.
