in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a four story brick dwelling and which was occupied by deponent as a shop and dwelling on 1st floor and in which there was at the time a human being, by namewere BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking open the front door by forcing off the lock of said dooron the 23 day of November 1892 in the day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:a clock of the value of ten dollars, an album worth four dollars, clothing and other articles all of the value of about thirty four dollars 34the property of Deponentand deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away byJohn Melidin (naked)for the reasons following, to wit: Deponent left the said premises securely locked and closed and the said property was gone when deponent left said premises about the hour of ten o'clock A.M. on said date Deponent discovered about the hour of 5 o'clock P.M. that the said premises had been broken open and said property was missing and deponent accuses the defendant of said burglary for the reason that deponent is informed by Solomon Thomas Parker that he arrested the defendant about the hour of 1230 o'clock p.m. and the defendant had the said stolen clock and alarm in his possession.

or about fourth day of June 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, one Isaac Goldstein, now residing at 218 Eldridge Street, in the City of New York, in consideration of deponent's promise to marry him on request, he promised and agreed to marry deponent, on request. That on or about said last mentioned day a public engagement party was given at 163 Chrystie Street this City, where in the presence of their friends deponent and said Goldstein, each promised to marry the other on request.

That on or about the 25th day of August, 1892, at 242 Division Street, this City, said Goldstein requested deponent to have sexual intercourse with her. Deponent refused to do so. The said Goldstein then said in German to deponent that if she did not consent to have sexual intercourse with her, he would abandon deponent and refuse to marry her and disregard his former promise to marry her; that it would make no difference to her now if she would consent to have such sexual intercourse, that he was engaged to her and that they would soon be married and as long as they ~~was~~ had decided to become man and wife, it made no difference to her whether she and he had sexual intercourse before or after marriage.

That thereafter deponent and said Goldstein, ~~has~~ had sexual intercourse. And deponent says that she consented to the same because of his promise to marry her, and because he threatened not to keep his promise unless she consented. That she is and has always been unmarried and was previous to the seduction aforesaid a female of pure and chaste character. That since said seduction Goldstein has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to marry deponent.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

William Greene

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse William Greene of a FELONY, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on the nineteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-~~two~~, the same being a day duly appointed by law as a day for the general registration of the qualified voters of the said City and County, the said William Greene, late of the City and County aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did personally appear before the Inspectors of Election of the Eight Election District of the Twenty-fifth Assembly District of the said City and County, at a meeting of the said Inspectors of Election then being duly held at the duly designated polling place of the said Election District, for the purpose of the general registration of the male residents of the said Election District who would be at the election next following the said day of registration (to wit: on the eight day of November, in the year aforesaid, being the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in the said month of November, and being the day duly appointed by law for the holding of a general election throughout the said State and in the City and County aforesaid), entitled to vote therein, and did then and there, at the said general registration of voters, feloniously cause his name to be placed upon the list and register of voters of and in the said Election District, then being made by the said Inspectors of Election for the said election, he the said William Greene then and there well knowing that he would not be a qualified voter in the said Election District at the said election in this, to wit: that the said William Greene was not then nor would he on the said day of election have been, an inhabitant of the said State one year next preceding such election, and the last four months a resident of the said County of New York, and for the last thirty days a resident of the said Election District, as he the said William Greene, then and there well knew; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said People.
