Hugh O'Neil of No. 149 West 20th Street, New York City being sworn says:

That on or about the 22^d of October 1883 ribbons of about the value of $5. were taken from my store by Mrs Rich. I didn't see her take them from my store or any part of them. (Property here produced).
She confessed that she took the red silk cash. She didn't buy the red plush on the 8th of October. I received a letter from Defendants Counsel to produce my sales book for the 8th of October 1883 but have not done so - the date was not mentioned in the Counsellor's letter. I have not got that letter here. There is no entry in her book of the sale of 10 yds of plush ribbon on the 8th of October 1883. (Witness shown brown wrapping paper) This paper is from my store I don't know what name that is on it - I don't know whether it is the name of one of my Employees. The Custom of our house when Employees buy anything from the house, is that they must pay for anything they purchase at the time of the purchase. The value of the red plush ribbon is about ($2 1/2) Two ⁵⁰/₁₀₀ Dollars - at 25 cents a yard which was our selling price, and the brown plush was worth about the same, and the silk sash and the silk sash was worth about one dollar a yard. It is not the custom in our Establishment to allow any of our Employees to take away small remnants of goods - I would like to catch any of them doing it. I didn't find any of the property in the possession of the defendant. When I say that the defendant stole those articles I make my statement from the fact that she admitted to me in the Jefferson Market Police Court that she stole them. I had made my Complaint before Judge Patterson when she made this confession. She was under arrest at the time.

✓ Counsel for defence moves to strike out any confession made by the defendant while under arrest.

Motion granted

0915

The case before Judge Patterson was sent to Special Session and the Defendant was discharged. Then I made a new Complaint against her which is the one now being examined into.

I am a Deputy Sheriff. All I know about the larceny of these goods is that I found them in a trunk on the premises No. 246 West 26th Street in a room claimed to be occupied by the defendant Mrs Rich and by another lady.

I have known the defendant 23 years.
I formerly kept a millinery store and

She was a good, honest & industrious testified as follows.

I don't know whether there is any more of that kind of ribbon sold in the market.
We bought it all up. There is no mark on the ribbon by which I could identify 09 17

it. Plush ribbon did not exist before we sold it - WE made it a point to buy it all up. WE have been selling it about two months. It is manufactured in Switzerland - We bought it from two agents in this City. I don't know how many hundreds or thousands of yards of it we have sold. I can't point out any mark on any of these goods by which I could identify them.
 It is the goods that I identify - they are ^{imported} ~~made~~ by E. Oberman & Son & Iseler Co. I don't mean to say that they don't sell them to other dealers but I do say that we bought all that was in the market - their ~~sales~~ full assignments. About the 22^d of October 1883 on prior thereto we had sold these goods to hundreds of customers.

Respectfully before me this 31st }

Police Justice

Martha J. Conlter being duly sworn testified as follows:

I was in the Employ of St. O'Neil & Co. last October and saw some silk cash ribbon given to Mrs. Rich this defendant by Mrs. Forbes. That mark on paper "Exhibit A" is made by one of the Employees of the house & No. 38 is Mrs. Rich's number. It looks like the signature of the buyer of the house, which is a rule of the house - any Employee of the house purchasing goods there must do it through one of her neighbors sales ladies and must be Entered in the book either by her or her neighbor - then the book is sent to be checked together with the goods and the money - then it is wrapped in brown paper and checked at the desk. When goods are wrapped up in this kind of brown paper (meaning paper in evidence) they are wrapped up by the wrapper. It is then numbered and returned to the young lady selling the goods unless she chooses to send it to the parcel desk. I don't recollect anything about the purchase of the ten yards of silk. There was a great many yards sold on that day - they were marked down from twenty-five cents to nineteen cents.

Sworn before me this 1st day of November 1883 }

Police Justice.

Catharine Rich, the defendant being sworn testified as follows.

This ten yards of crimson silk I paid $1.90 for. I sent up a $2. bill and got ten cents change. The piece of paper here in evidence was wrapped around it and was marked in this way by the buyer. This Rich No. 38 was on it. The reason that this paper was not around the ribbon when found in my trunk was because I took it out of the wrapper and afterwards when I went through my trunk I found it. It was loose in my trunk.

0920

This Oath was not sold to me at all it was made a present to me by a gentleman — Mr. Forbes. It has been worn by me and my children.
This other piece of brown ribbon I bought but I can't recollect when.
Sworn to before me this }

Police Justice.

John Bell, being duly sworn says. I examined the trunk in which these goods were found. I examined it at the defendants house. I didn't see this "Exhibit A" in the trunk. I wasn't looking for paper but for goods. There were some articles of clothing in the trunk at the time. That was Mr.
Rick's Number — 38. I can't identify that writing on the wrapper. I can't say whether it is the handwriting of any Employee of the firm of W. O'Neill & Co or not. I can't say whose signature that is on the paper which is marked "Exhibit B". It is not my signature. Do 0921

the best of my knowledge I never made such a signature. It ain't my signature - I never sign anything without I know what is inside. - I always look at what is in the bundles. This ribbon was reduced to 19 cents a yard - the cost price was 17 1/2 cents a yard and as all old hands get goods at cost Mrs Rich if she had bought it would not have been charged 19 cents a yard; she would only have paid 17 1/2 cents a yard. I don't recognize the signature which Mrs Carter has recognized as the buyers signature. This is the kind of wrapping paper used at our store. I can't identify the hand-writing - Mrs Rich; on that paper there are a great many packers in the store.
