Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

William M. Knapp

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said William M. Knapp, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one William Knapp of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said William Knapp

That a certain paper instrument in the words and figures following, to wit:

"No. 113 Brooklyn, N.Y. December 9, 1891

King's County Bonds

Pay to William Knapp or Bearer,

Twenty six $26.00

Dollars.

$46.00

Robert Knapp

and upon the back thereof there was then and there a certain endorsement as follows, to wit:

"William Brown" which said paper with the the said William H. Brown then and there produced and delivered to the said William Engelhardt, was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money and of the value of only six dollars.

And the said William Engelhardt - then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said William H. Brown, - and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said William H. Brown, a quantity of property, (a more particular description thereof is to be found among the records of the value of thirty seven dollars, and the sum of four dollars and ten cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of four dollars and ten cents, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said William Engelhardt. -

And the said William H. Brown - did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property, from the possession of the said William Engelhardt, by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said William Engelhardt. - of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use,

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper with the the said William H. Brown as aforesaid then and there produced and delivered to the said William Engelhardt was not then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money, and was not of the value of forty six dollars, or of any value, but was wholly void and null.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said William H. Farnell to the said William Farnsworth was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as the the said William H. Farnell
 at the time of making the same then and there well knew ;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
William H. Farnell
 in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said William Farnsworth then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.
