-----
Hon. Delancey Nicol,
District Attorney of the City of New York.

WE, the undersigned, as attorneys for the defendant above named, respectfully request that you recommend to the Honorable Court of General Sessions, that the indictment herein be quashed and the defendant discharged for the following reasons to wit:

FIRST: That the defendant has never been accused of any crime except that alleged in the indictment, and that both before the indictment and since, the defendant has been a respectable law-abiding citizen, working for a living and doing his share towards the support of his mother. That the defendant, at the date of being accused of the crime alleged in the indictment, was but a youth barely twenty-one years of age, and that during the five years intervening he has arrived at the age of manhood, and that a trial at this time can serve no good purpose to the State and would work irreparable injury to the good name and reputation of the defendant and his family.

SECOND: Your petitioner herewith submits twelve letters from the most eminent and respectable citizens and residents of Jersey City Heights where the defendant and his family reside showing the utmost respectability of the defendant and his family. That the recommendations contained in said letters coming from clergymen, editors, public officials and employers of the defendant are entitled to great weight and indicate, if anything, that no possible harm can come to the State from quashing this indictment, and that nothing can result from a trial at this date, five years after the indictment, when the boy has arrived at manhood, but misery and distress for the family and disgrace for the defendant, even though he should be acquitted.

THIRD: After a thorough examination of the case, we, as attorneys for the defendant, are firmly convinced of his innocence and believe that the trial cannot result in a conviction, and have advised that the defense shall rest upon the ground of mistaken identity. From our investigation of the case, we deem it impossible that the crime could have been committed by this defendant and believe it impossible that the defendant can be identified as having committed the crime claimed in the indictment. We submit the circumstances of this case are such that in the interest of humanity and of good government and sound judgment, the interests of the State would be best subserved by quashing the indictment and discharging the defendant.

Dated New York, December 22nd, 1892.

Dec. 28-92

City of Jersey City

We, the undersigned, Gustave Hofmann & H. A. Hofmann do hereby make the following statement of facts. Hy. J. Hofmann the defendant is a brother of ours, now twenty five years old. From the time of his birth he has been in delicate health, ascribed to the fact that our mother was suffering from the Cholera then prevailing while bearing him. His delicate health has necessitated his leaving school before fourteen, since which time he has been working as clerk in several different branches. Our father died in 1871 leaving four sons & mother, the eldest of the sons Gustave Hofmann being only 18 years of age, it became necessary as the boys grew up & went to work that each should give what he could of his earnings to the common support maintained by mother. Henry took his full share of this work, and has ever been a devoted son & willing worker. Though his ill health & general slowness of mental action has always precluded him from earning as much as his younger brother Emil who is only twenty years of age, does now, he has always given as much as he could possibly afford. He is of great honesty and insists that if he cannot give as much as we who earn so much more he can still do his duty by giving a larger proportion of smaller earnings.

Never before or since the occurrence of five years ago, has he or any of us been accused of any wrongful act whatsoever. We, who Know him best cannot understand how a nature so honest & upright should or could have been guilty of such an act as Henry is accused of. No more honest man lived, and though we know he is weak in health, non-combative & assertive with a lack of "nerve" unwilling to rise in life, yet we also know & believe that he cannot lie or do a shameful act.

The accusation of five years ago has been the only one which has ever been made against Henry or any of our family, and never before or since have we come in contact with the law except as good citizens should - to obey & respect it.

Since 1887, when this case has cost us <sup>namely depositing $1000 in bank in lieu of bail, attorney fees &c.</sup> so much money, Henry has attempted his best to restore as much as lay in his power the money expended on him, and from his earnings of $5.6, or $8.00 a week, has returned in sums of $3.00 to $4.00, as he could save it up, what he possibly could. After the occurrence of five years ago, grief had made him ill for months with diarrhea, and mother was so taken aback with the enormity of the crime, that she too suffered for months under the physicians care.

The above we are willing to swear to as a simple unexaggerated truthful statement of our family & our belief in the honesty & total inability of brother Henry to do so infamous an act of his own will or intention.

This affidavit was drawn by Gustav Hofmann personally.

My impressions of Thomas Hornby are that he has been a faithful, energetic and honest worker in all that pertains to the duties of a laboring man, and that he is a person whom
one could employ without fear,

He has held some positions

been no complaints against
