v.

Rudolph Dobeli

Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Judge Gildersleeve.
August 11. th 1883.

Indictment for Rape.

Emma Eckert sworn and examined.

I am eight years old and live in Fitz first St.
I know Rudolph Dobeli since he came from Germany; he did live in the house with me.
I recollect the Sunday that my mother went to church. He came into the bed to me; he laid on top of me; he put his thing in mine;
he had his clothes off. Cross Examined this was on the 4th of July. My little brother was in the room with me; he was with Rudolph in the bed. I did not tell mamma anything about this when she returned from church.
On Monday my mother told me to say that Rudolph lifted me into the bed.

Mary Eckert sworn and examined.

I am the mother of the child, I know the defendant about eight years; the child is eight years old; the defendant is a son of my husband; he lived in the house with me I recollect going to church and leaving the children home with the defendant on the 3th of July; he is 19 years old; the little boy I left home was six years old.

Then I returned from church the little boy was in bed yet, but the girl was dressed and Dobeli had his pants on; he was sitting near the fire and he was cooking coffee. On the 9th of July I had a dispute with my husband and then my husband and Dobeli left; then the girl told me they left the house for good. Cross Examined I have been married 16 years in Frankfurt on the Main, in Germany. I have had seven children and four are living. Some of the older and some of the younger children are living and those who died. They were between the oldest is living yet; the youngest died last May a year ago; she was two months old; the next one is a little boy that I have got home six years old; next Nor. he will be seven years old; he was born in Germany; his name is Henry; the one that died is next to Henry; the name of the child that died when it was two months old was Mary. Mary was after Henry Emma was before Henry Last March Emma was eight years old. I believe my husband and I were in 1873 in Switzerland, Basle. Emma's god mother is still alive, living in Switzerland; she is my

0438 husband's sister, Rosanna Ebner, is her name, but her maiden name is Eckert I do not correspond with them, but my husband receives letters sometimes. I have been married sixteen years, and five months my husband has been away from me intending to get a divorce. I know Henry Schwatzer, I was never locked up in a room with him.

 The defendant did not speak to me about him
 being in the room with me two weeks before the arrest. I did not tell him not to tell his father that I was locked up in the front room with Schwatzer. My husband did not come home one afternoon and find the door locked and me inside with Schwatzer. My husband did not upraid me for being in the room with Schwatzer and he did not state that Rudolph told him all about it some weeks before, and he did not strike me and knock me down. He beat me, but not on account of that. On the 5th this assault happened and the girl told me on the 9th. Rudolph was out with his father at the time; they went up South Ave. I don't know where they went. On the 10th I scolded Rudolph and I told him he had to leave the house but did not tell him why. I made no examination of the parts of Emma then; ten days

0439

4 she was examined by the doctor, on the 18th or 19th I am not very exact as to the day. I found the doctor in the station house in 3rd St. My husband was arrested on the same day, Sunday. I took out a warrant in Fifty Seventh St. against my husband for abandonment, for not supporting his children. Then I said to the German interpreter, "I have to say something more." Then he said to me, "you have only to answer what you are asked." I was not asked and I did not say anything about Emma. I told in the station house the whole trouble how it happened about Emma. My husband told something about me in the station house and I told the whole story about Rudolph and the child. My husband was willing to settle with me and give me three dollars every week, but I refused it. The prisoner is a son of my husband by some other woman.

Joseph H. Steiner sworn. I am a Counselor of this Court. I was present on the 29th of July before Justice Kilbreth when the defendant was arraigned. I acted as interpreter at the request of the Justice in the absence of the official interpreter. Have had several conversations with the defendant. I saw him sign this paper. The Magistrate told me to read the complaint to him of the charge that was made against him and inform him of his rights, which I did. The little girl had been interrogated by the Magistrate and myself. I asked the defendant after reading the complaint to him before he signed it whether that would be his answer or not. He informed him half a dozen different times to be careful of his answers, that there was no necessity for him to answer any question that might be put to him by the Court, that it would not hurt his case any, but if he stated anything in this formal examination that it would go either to his benefit or against him. I interpreted what he said from German into English. The defendant spoke German.

Mr. Bundy reads: Mary Eckert 525 West Fifty Fourth St. being duly sworn deposes and says that on the 3rd day of July 1885 at the city of New York, in the county of New York, Rudolph Dobella (nowhere) did commit an act of sexual intercourse with Emma Eckert, a female under the age of ten years, to wit, of the age of eight years, under the following circumstances, that on the above date Defendant left the said Emma and the younger brother Henry, aged six years at home, and on the day while defendant went to church, that Defendant is informed by the said Emma that during defendant's absence the defendant placed her upon a bed and then and there inserted his penis into her private parts.

Mr. Purdy reads: Marie Eckert.

Rudolph Dobelli being examined before the undersigned according to law on the annexed charge, and being informed that it is his right to make a statement in relation to the charge against him; that the statement is designed to enable him if he see fit to answer the charge and explain the facts alleged against him, that he is at liberty to waive making a statement and that his waiver cannot be used against him on the trial. Q What is your name? A Rudolph Dobelli.

Q How old are you? A. Nineteen years. Q Where were you born? A. Germany. Q Where do you live and how long have you resided there? A. No 525 West 54th St.; seven months.

Q What is your business or profession?

A. I work in a suspender factory. Q Give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing in the testimony against you, and state any facts which you think will tend to your exculpation? A. I am guilty. I did use the child."

Rudolph Dobelli.

When the complaint and the papers were handed to Justice Kilbreth the Justice asked ~~me~~ to ask this man, it being a serious charge. "Mr. Steiner ask the prisoner if the answer to the charge that he made is true, and tell him the enormity of the offence." I then asked the prisoner some questions as to his guilt and asked him what he had done? He then stated he had the girl in bed and laid upon her stomach between her legs, but he says, I do not think that I hurt her. The girl was present behind the desk; the mother was standing in front of the desk. I was alongside the Magistrate with the little girl at the time. I have been counselor of this Court ever since I came home from the army. I am practicing mostly criminal law for the past twenty years. There was no inducement or threat held out in any way to the defendant. I tried my utmost to get the young man to plead not guilty. I told him at the time that if he pleaded "not guilty", it would not hurt him, he could always withdraw a plea if he saw fit, but I told him to be very careful about this plea at the time. The mother, the woman that was upon the stand, the little girl, and if I am not mistaken she had some

⁸ other person with her, and the man that she made a complaint against for striking her husband. He was there, but he was standing where the prisoners generally stand. The Magistrate had disposed of his cases first. Did you see her sister there, the larger girl? I won't be positive as to that person; she might have been there on the seat. My attention was not called to her.

Peter Rebholz sworn. I am attached to the 20th precinct. I recollect being in the presence of the doctor with the prisoner. I acted as interpreter. This took place in the cell at the station house. I offered no inducement to him to admit anything. I told him to be very careful what he was saying - that what he stated to me he would have to state in Court. The doctor told me to ask him what connection he had with this little girl. I asked him, and he said that at the time he was undressed himself; this little girl came to his room; he got her into his bed room with him and he put her on the bed. So he unbuttoned his pants, and he went in bed with her, and after he tried at first he could not do anything with her; he tried her again, he said, and he wet the whole of her drawers. He said that he could not have any connections with her; she was too small. He said he tried it twice.

John H. Nesbit sworn. I am a doctor and surgeon of police. I recollect examining this child on Monday morning the 20th at the request of the Police Captain. I found no evidence of any attempt at assault or rape; there was no evidence of violence. As the alleged attempt to rape occurred on the 5th and this was on the 20th if the evidence used had been slight it would have been impossible to discover it.

The Case for the Defence.

Fredeline Eckert sworn. I am a silk weaver and work for Mr. Now 58th st. I have been in this country four years. I am the father of Emma Eckert. I was living with my wife at 525 West Fifty Fourth St. on July 1st 1885. I was living in the house on the 4th and 5th of July. I went there the next day and she did not let me in. My son was arrested on Sunday. I don't exactly know the date, about four or five weeks ago. I asked her (~~Emma~~) but I cannot tell exactly whether it was before or after the arrest. I never recognized him as my son, and that is 9.

10 The reason why I didnt marry his mother because I never recognized him as my son. Emma's god mother was Emma Kensen Eckert nee Brooker; she died; it was in 1874 or 1875; I dont know exactly; there are witnesses here who know better than I when she died; she died after the German Franco war - that was after 1870.

Anna Eckert sworn. I live 710 Fiftieth st. and live with my husband I know Dobelli about five or six months. I know the child Emma, I first saw her about seven or eight years ago. Mr. Eckert told me that the woman I saw was her god mother my husband was foreman in the shop where Mr. Eckert worked in Germany. I dont know exactly when this god mother died, I was at the funeral; the little girl could not walk the time of the funeral; she was a little baby seven or eight years ago.

Lorenz Eckert sworn. The last witness was my wife. I know Emma Eckert and her god mother. I think it was in 1874 or 1875 she died. I cannot tell exactly when it was. I dont know how old Emma was at that time. I did not go to see the children then. I was at the funeral with my wife. It must have been 1874 or 1875

Rudolph Dobeli sworn. I am a silk weaver. I was last employed by Sharpe and Johnson Twenty ninth st. I saw the little girl, the complainant in this case. Did you have any connection with that girl or did you attempt to have any connection with that girl on the 5th day of July or any other day? No sir, I did not.
Cross Examined. I have known this girl since I lived in the house, I knew her the Emma Eckert. What day were you arrested?
It has been three weeks that I have been locked up. I recollect the man who talked German to me in Court, but do not know his name. I told him that the big girl came to me twice, I was in bed; she came to me and she requested me to go to sleep with her. When this man talked to me I was not confused, I don't know exactly what I said. There was only one girl spoken of, Emma the little girl was in Court at the time. The conversation related to the big girl; she was not there. Did Mr. Steiner who was interpreter in the examination before the Magistrate point out this little girl Emma as the girl you were charged with having sexual intercourse with you? He pointed 0447

12 to the little one, but I did not say that I had anything to do with the little one. Did Emma's mother say anything to you about assaulting Emma at any time before the arrest? No, she never said anything to me of the kind. I left the house of Emma's mother ten days before I was arrested; she chased me out of the house because I told the father that she was locked in three times with another man, and I asked her what she did there. She said, it is none of my business. I was arrested on Sunday. I was confused when I testified before the Magistrate. I had to do with the big girl, not to do with the little one. It is possible that the Interpreter translated it to me.

Joseph Steiner recalled. Emma the little girl was in the Court and it was about her he answered the questions which were put to him.

Annie Eckert sworn. I am 13 going on 14 years old. I know the defendant, he never had connection with me or slept in bed with me. I was never in bed with him.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.

vs.
John Doyle,
Walter Tate and Dennis O'Day.

Court of General Sessions, Part 1.

Before Judge Gildersleeve.

Jointly indicted with Edwin F. Rogers for burglary in the third degree.

August 19, 1885.

Frederick M. Stetler sworn and examined. I am in the warehouse business 77 & 79 Beach Street, it is in the 5th Ward, the premises were broken open on the 12th of July, they broke the sky-light in the rear; they got a crow-bar in the lumber yard it appears, they broke the screws and bolts and took a ladder from the lumber yard.

There was half a dozen different trunks broken open in the place, I did not know what the contents were but I do know now; a sword and a spy-glass and one suit of clothes
was recovered; there was about sixty stolen altogether.

I understand there was a violin and copper coins recovered.

This was not my property but it was in my custody. I have to deliver the same number of packages that are left and if I do not I have got to pay for them.

Selden A. Woodruff sworn. I am a police officer connected with the fourth precinct; the burglary was reported in the Station House and the Captain sent me down there to see what I could do, I went in the lumber yard in the rear of this place and stowed myself away behind a pile of lumber, I thought probably these boys would come back again and about three o'clock they did come back, Doyle and Tate and another boy by the name of Quinn but I did not get him; they saw me and ran out and I afterwards arrested them on the 19th of July, I arrested Tate corner of Hubert and Washington Streets almost opposite the lumber yard, I says , I suppose you know what I want you for and he pretended ignorance, that he did not know anything about it, I took him to the Station House and went down to Franklin Street dock and got Doyle. Doyle said that they were there, that Rogers Tate, O'Day and Conners were there; he said that he and O'Day and Rogers were outside receiving the goods and Tate and Conners were inside handing them up. Conners I never got, he went to Jersey. Doyle told me that he found the coins in his pocket at home, he told me also where to find a suit of clothes and he went down with me to the corner of York Street, he sold it for an dollar and thirty odd cents; the clothes were brought to the Station House and identified by the parties who owned them as part of the goods that were taken. The next day I told Doyle that the best thing he could do was to make a clean breast of it and tell all he knew about it. He said Doyle, O' Day, Rogers and Conners was with him - Tate said that. I found one coat and two vests and three pair of pants in a pawn shop in Sullivan Street; they were identified at the Station House by the young man who represented the firm as part of the goods that were taken. I have no evidence against O' Day, he had no goods only they implicated him in their confessions.

Cross Examined. I have been an officer for thirteen years. I do not know of my own knowledge that they had been in the place where the burglary was committed, I saw Doyle and Tate about half past three on Sunday afternoon, the 19th of July in the lumber yard; they did not do anything then because they saw me and ran out before I could get hold of them, I told them it would be better for them to tell me all about it, they told me where they sold the goods and what they got; they said the next morning that they were together. I went to O'Day's house and told his mother I would be obliged to arrest him, she told me she would bring him herself, he is a telegraph boy. I saw Doyle and O'Day and Tate sign their names to the paper before the Magistrate; the statements were read to them by the clerk.

Michael Hart sworn. I am in the clothing business at 610 Broadway; we had goods stored, boys' clothing, with Mr Stetler, I went with the officer to the pawn shop to identify some goods that we had stored in this warehouse; the goods belonged to the firm of Heaverich, Hirschberg & Co.

The Case for the Defence.

Dennis O'Day sworn and examined I live at 84 North Moore Street and am a telegraph messenger at 40 Broadway and have been employed there nearly a year; on the 11th of July I was not in the neighborhood of Beech Street and I do not know anything about the taking of property, I went to the Station House with my mother and gave myself up; the officer asked me if I knew anything about it and I told him no. I know where this lumber yard is in Beech Street, I know Doyle and Tate about eight months and I saw Rogers down at the dock when I would be going down there, I was working on the 12th of July on the Postal Telegraph at the Hoffman House till four o'clock on Sunday, I did not go out that night, I was home and in bed.

John Doyle sworn and examined. I am thirteen going on fourteen years of age and live at 381 Washington Street, I go to school and am on my vacation now, I live with my father and mother; on the twelfth of last July Tate and I hired a row boat and after we got out of the row boat we were going up Hebert Street and we met Connors and Rogers and they had bundles, they were the boys who broke in the place, I only know them about three or four months. They asked us did we know any place to sell clothes, that they got clothes at a fire; we said, why don't you fetch them to a pawn shop and then we went up with them, they said they would give me twenty-five cents if I went up with them, I went up with Connors and from there round to York Street and went in with him, so when I came out he gave me twenty-five cents, that is all I got out of it. I had nothing to do with committing the burglary, I was not outside while the other boys committed the burglary, I received no stolen property from them, only showed them where to sell it, I said to the officer that I met Connors and Rogers, I told the officer where the clothes were, I did not know what the paper was I signed before the Police Magistrate.

Cross Examined. I don't know what date this robbery was committed, I met these boys about three o'clock; they told me that the fire where they got the clothes was in Ninth Street, I went up Canal Street with them to the pawn shop, this was on Monday that I went to the pawn shop; when I met them on Sunday they told me to meet them to-morrow morning at nine o'clock and they met me. I do not remember telling the officer that Tate and I waited outside while Rogers and the other boy went in the place. I ran out of the lumber yard because I thought the man who owned it was coming. I have lived in the officer's precinct three or four years and have seen him on post many times but did not see his face this Sunday. The clerk at the Magistrate's Court said that I should sign the paper. I never told the officer that O'Day was with me, if I said so I did not mean to say so, he asked me whether O'Day was there and I said I think he was, Conner and Rogers told me that O'Day was with them when the place was broken open.

Walter Tate sworn. I am fourteen years of age and live at 26 1/2 Hubert Street, on the 12th of July I was in a row boat with John Doyle and was on the water about three or four hours, I did not see Rogers and Conners that day, I met no boys with a bundle of clothes, I got out of the row boat with John Doyle and went up Hubert to Washington Streets, we saw Rogers and Conners and they said they had some clothes they wanted to sell and asked us if we knew where they could sell them; we said, why don't you fetch them to a pawn shop. They says all right, I says, you can't send them now you have got to wait till to-morrow morning. They said, will you meet me around Washington Street and I said yes, at seven o'clock; they said all right and I went home. I was not working lately, I did not go to school, I worked with the B. & O. Telegraph Company. I did not break in this place on the Sunday and did not receive stolen property knowing it to be stolen. The officer took me from Washington and Hubert Streets and brought me up to the fifth precinct he told the judge that he had me on suspicion, the officer said to me, tell all you know about it and I will do all I can for you. I says, I know nothing about it only we told him where to sell the clothes up in a pawn shop in Sullivan Street and in York Street. Conners told him that he sold a sword to a man in Franklin Street and a microscope to a man in North Moore Street, they told him they had a fiddle too. When we first met them they told us they got this property at a fire. When I signed the examination before the Magistrate stating that I was guilty I did not know what I was signing. I did not tell the officer that O'Day was with me. Rogers and Conners said they broke into Stetler's Storage House alone.

Cross Examined. I was arrested on the Monday week following, I did not want to tell on anybody, I thought they would get me into a hole, I got twenty-five cents from the boys. When I was in the lumber yard I heard three pistol shots, I did not see anybody and I ran. I was arrested once before on suspicion of the same thing and got out of it, I was ten years old then. I did not say before the Magistrate I was guilty of this charge; they said it would be better for me if I would plead guilty. The other boys did not tell me how they got into the sky-light.

John Doyle recalled. Conners gave me the coins which were found in my pocket; my father sent me to the Catholic Protectory five months for disobedience.

Kate Sims sworn. I am the sister of John Doyle, my brother is a good, quiet boy and these other boys led him into this trouble, he has always attended school, my father put him in the Protectory for no limited time. I think Tate is bad. My mother is about to sail for Ireland and she was going to bring John with her.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty against Doyle and Tate with a recommendation to mercy and a verdict of not guilty in the case of O'Day.
