three bolts and a lock on a side door leading into the saloon where said burglary was committed on the 21 day of August 1886 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Two boxes of cigars, 5 coats one vest and one hat, in all of the value of fifty dollars (of 50.00)

the property of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

James McGinnis (now here) for the reasons following, to wit: that the deponent was called and fastened the afore said premises at the door on 12 o'clock M. at midnight, and that he was awakened by Officer Hepper of the 10th precinct Police and informed that he arrested the deponent in East Houston street where the aforesaid property

John M. Kelly, born and examined in Second and Third Aves. and have lived there fifteen years. I have heard the testimony of the girl that I committed a rape on her, but it is not true. I mother "after" advice and she said to me, "My brother sent me down to look for his wife; she went up stairs and said to me, 'wait till I come down'. I waited and she asked me to take a walk toward Harlem I walked up as far as Ten Blocks and she had of back again and said, 'I don't want to find her, I cannot find her.' He came back and went down first Ave. He came up the street, told her to sit down a little while. She sat down and sat down. I was looking with this girl and the officer came along and he hit me on the back with the end of his club and said, "You are a b---, get out there." I ran down the block. He knocked the hat off my head. I went back and got my hat and he was walking up the street with her. I went down home that night; that is all I know about it.
 I lived home every night up to the time I met. I mother several times after that. I had a peddling wagon and used to give her after she told me that her mother was doing him and the officer told her if she did not

Geo. Examiné. I did not see the defendant for an exposed. I did not say, "you are the what are you doing here?" When I left the girl in her brother's room. I did not see her mother but I saw her the next day going to the kitchen with the girl and her sister. I did not see any clothing of the girl disappeared or found the pillowcase was dark. There was no lamp in that part of the street where they were; there is a lamp on the corner of the avenue Edward Brady saw a man an officer attacked to the 13th precinct and arrested the def. endant on the 30th August near midnight on Sunday. I had been looking for him since the 6th June upon the charge of rape made by Julia Harrington. I arrested him on 11th and between 9th and 10th. There were five or six young men there and they tried to rescue him; they hit me with a stone and caught my club and kicked me. Officer McDonald assisted me. I told the def. ant what I arrested him for. He said it was all fired and that he would be damned if he would go with me. Geo. Examiné. I did not have a chance to talk him a word. The defendant, his brother and his companions resisted all they could. I struck him on the leg with the club but not over the head. His brother was arrested for disorderly conduct and fined $5.

by a woman following. I could not locate where it was, but I imagined it was down at the and I went in the direction of where it came from. I was over these quarters for Westaway when I got down there I found Julia Harrington and John McElroy. He was getting up off the top of this young girl; he jumped into the
 - I want to get. I tried my stick at him but could not say whether it struck him or not. I got the young girl lying on the back of her back and her clothes up over her face I took her by the arm and asked her who this party was; she was crying. I know him seeing him in port bar or three years I took her to her brother's home in Cleveland there. She made a complaint against McElroy when I first saw her she was crying very bitterly. I did not see McElroy until the night that Miss Brady arrested him; that was on the 31st of August. I looked for him all the time on that port and Miss Brady had a warrant for him; he came down and remained with me in my post some time to three weeks in the morning. I arrested Miss Brady the night he arrested him to giving him to the station house. I saw tried to rescue him from Miss Brady afterwards arrested Brady & put him under arrest.

back he rolled down the lot. The officer said, "you see that what are you doing here?" I went then the officer saw me home. I went a week a few after I saw the defendant in 99th St. live a few days from my house. I told him my mother had caused me to make a camp went against him, that they were throwing his name up to me all the time and if it was not in that I would not have him arrested. I think the next time I saw him was on a bedding wagon. He gave a girl some apples to give to me. I was right there. I was not unfriendly with him then. It is true that I told my mother he and I were going to get married and she said I should not marry a nigger like him I have told other people that I was willing to marry him only for my mother. I saw him three or four times since he was arrested. I did not try to get him arrested.
 Pt. Mc Donald even saw a policeman attached to the 23 precinct. I remember the 6th June, I was on duty that day from 97th to 103rd it in Second Ave. I saw Mr. Kelly and John Harrington that night in 177th between 181st and Second Ave. There is a black book kept on one side of the street and it is vacant on the other. They were on the sidewalk in front of the vacant lot. My attention was attracted with my feet because he got his knees on mine and I could not sit. He is not my husband I am not married, I am 16 going on 17 years old. My leg, hip and left side and arm have been paralyzed since I was two years old. very crippled. I became acquainted with the defendant at a friend in 9th St and 2nd Avenue who drove from my house. I did not agree to take a walk with him that night. I fear from holding apples, two or three times in a wagon. He gave a girl that was with me some apples & gave to me. It is not true that I went with the defendant and to find my sister in law who was drunk.

 I don't know whether she was drunk or not. I told the defendant that my brother sent me to look ~~for my sister in law who was on a road to~~ see if I could not find her. I went to 706 4th St and Second Ave. I did not go in the place where I thought my sister was because the gas was out. It was about 10:30 when we got to the lot in 101st St. Between 1st and Second Ave. there was gas light around there; he sat me down on the street and pulled up my clothes. I sat with him a few minutes before he laid me down and pulled up my clothes. I commenced to scream right away and in five minutes after the officer came; he was on top of me when the officer screamed & the officer struck him on the

John W. Kelly
County General Session. At 13.188.
I was at 9th St. New York at the time. I knew the defendant to speak to him but on three times before his recurrence on the street. I saw him on the 6th June about four o'clock in the afternoon on the corner of 9th St. and Second Ave. I saw him again at the doorway of my house about half past ten at night. Both days walked up to 106th St. he wanted me to go through a lot and I told him I did not want to go. He caught me by the waist and sat me down. I told him I wanted to get home. He took me and laid me down. Then he lifted up my clothes and committed a rape upon me. He opened his pants, I did not see his person, but I felt it in my person. He put his fingers into mine I felt from there. I commenced to scream and then he put his face over my mouth to prevent me from talking. Then a policeman came to my assistance. He hit Kelly on the back with a club and he got away. I felt he me I did not want him doing it. While he was doing this he had hold of my hands and the other hand in paralyzed and I can use it but a little. I made no resistance make a charge against me she would be settled for perjury. It is not true that I held her arms, put my knees on her knees, so as to keep her legs open, and when she tried to scream I put my face over hers to stop it. She might have been crying when the officer got her, but I did not see it. Cross Examined - The no. of the house I live in I think is 225, 8.5th st. between Second and Third aves. I live with my mother. I was asked questions in the Police Court. I stated there that I lived in East 99th st. for eight months. I drove a truck there, but I never slept there only one or two nights with Mr. Thorne. I decline to answer whether or not I have ever been in the State Prison because it might disgrace me. I decline to answer whether I was convicted of highway robbery. I was never convicted of felonious assault. I was never sent to the penitentiary for six months for an assault upon a woman. I decline to answer how many times I have been in the Island. I drive a truck for a woman named Campbell hauling dirt out of a cellar in Eighty First Street. I also worked for Mr. Post and Miss McCormick driving a truck and worked for Mr. Hunt six years. I have not been out of the city in fifteen years to pass from Barclay Bridge to the City Hall. I decline to state whether I ever rode in the

Hudson River Railroad Co. in fifteen years because the answer might tend to degrade me. I had met that girl about six times before that night; then I met her 1/4 before 11 o'clock at her own door. She asked me to take a walk towards Harlem to look for her sister-in-law. I asked her to sit down; we sat down on a kind of a load of dirt was dumped there; the lot was vacant behind us; we were sitting there five minutes. I was fooling with the girl. I had my hands around her, but I did not have her clothes raised up. I did not do anything but put my hands on her; she laid back, she kind of fell back and the officer came over and had my hand round her neck; he said, "You son of a b---, get out of here," and he hit me with a club. I don't know in what condition were her clothes, I did not look at her clothes, I got knocked down the bank. I did not kiss her. I did not hear her scream or cry. I could not say how deep the bank was. I decline to state whether I was ever measured. After I got up I went home. I did not know the officer was looking for me. Officer Brady knocked me senseless when I was arrested. The girl said she was willing to marry me only for her mother. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. He was sent to the State Prison for sixteen years.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. Waverley 262 West 21st Street, aged 32 years, occupation _____ being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 25th day of September 1886 (at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property viz :

Two Pocket Books containing private papers of the value of one and  $\frac{10}{100}$  dollars

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by James McQuade and William Gleason

(both now here) from the fact that deponent was informed by officer Thomas Crystal of the 64 Precinct Police that he saw said defendants in the act of taking stealing and carrying away said property from the bodily clothing worn by deponent on his person while on the South West corner of Canal and Forsythe Street in the City of New York

Deponent therefore asks that said defendants be held to answer for feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property from the bodily clothing worn by deponent on his person.

That the defendant now admits in Court that he did so take and steal said property and sold it to a man for five dollars and deponent believes the same to be true.

A P P E A R A N C E S.

Assistant District Attorney Gunning S. Bedford, for the People; Mr. McFeeters for the defence.

-----000-----
JAMES DOYLE, the complainant, being duly sworn, testified that he lived at number 37 Rutgers Street.

On the 27th of July, he met the defendants in the saloon at number 28 Division Street. He, the complainant, entered the saloon with a man named Charles Bardoff,. They had two glasses of beer in the saloon. Bardoff and a man named Alfred Elsey, who had taken a drink with them commenced to sing plantation songs, and the two defendants were playing cards at a table, with two other men. The prisoner objected to the singing and told Bardoff several times to shut up. Bardoff told the prisenor to go to Hell. The proprietor got up and went behind the bar to take some money from a man that came in. That stopped the game of cards. Then the prisoner got <sup>up</sup> and said that they could fight. He, the complainant got up and said: "Gentlemen, there won't be no fight; stop your fighting," and told Bardoff to sit down.

The prisoner came out to the front of the bar. Hoffman got <sup>within</sup> ~~within~~ 3 or 4 feet of the bar, and then struck him the complainant, with his left hand in his right eye. He, the complainant, followed Hoffman who ran up Division Street to Christie, then he returned intending to go into the saloon to get his hat which had fallen off in the scuffle. When he was in front of 38 Division Street, Hoffman jumped out and grabbed him by the shoulder. Meyers then came behind him, the complainant, and stabbed him in the head, and on the arm and in the eye, and left the knife sticking there.

It was in the left eye - Meyers stabbed <sup>him</sup> three times on the head, and then ran away. He, the complainant, went into the saloon to wash his face.

-----000-----

3

Under cross examination the complainant testified that he had been drinking in the afternoon. He had taken four glasses of beer, but he was perfectly sober when he entered the saloon. Bardoff was slightly intoxicated.

-----000-----

Dr. EDWIN V. BRENDON, being duly sworn, testified that he was a practicing physician, in the city of New York, and had been for a number of years. He was the senior physician of the Gouverneur Hospital. It was about a quarter to one on the morning of July 27th, when the complainant James Doyle, was brought into the hospital. He was suffering from loss of blood and shock. He had three small stab wounds on his head and one on his arm, and a large lacerated wound on the head, and a fracture on the outer table of the skull.

He examined the complainants left eye and found the blade of a knife sticking out from his eye., and took it out; the blade did not go towards the eye so much as to median line. It went right through to the base of the brain. He had to exert great force to draw it out.

4

ALBERT OELZE, being duly sworn, testified that he lived at 37 Henry Street, ~~and that~~, and that he was in the saloon in question on the night in question. He was a glass ware <sup>salesman</sup> ~~salesman~~ corroborated the complainant's account of happened in the saloon.

-----000-----

SAMUEL BANDA, being duly sworn, testified that he was a baker, and lived at 127 Delancy Street. At the time of the assault, he worked at number 6 Bayard Street.

It was pretty warm that night and he was out on the sidewalk and he saw the assault, made upon the complainant.

++++++000+++++

FRANK X . SEMMELMAN, being duly sworn, testified he lived at 28 Division Street, and that ~~he~~ <sup>she</sup> was in the saloon at the time of the beginning of the difficulty. He was at the table reading the newspaper.

-----000-----

Officer RICHARD BERKLEY, of the 10th Precinct, being duly sworn, testified that he arrested Meyers about five minutes after 12 o'clock, on the morning of the 27th of July. He saw Meyers run around the corner of Division Street into the Bowery, followed by Oelze. Meyers said that he had had a little fun around the corner and he, the witness, said that they had better go around the corner and see what the little fun was.

-----000-----

For the defence, GEORGE MEYERS, being duly sworn, testified that he and Hoffman played cards on the afternoon in question with another man and the proprietor of the saloon. The complainant Bardoff entered, and commenced to dance around and sing. One of them knocked Hoffman's cards out of his hands and Hoffman told them to be careful, and one of them said "What does this Dutchman want?" Oelze jumped from the bar with an umbrella in his hand and pushed it into his, the defendant's face, then Oelze said, "If you want to fight come on."

He, the defendant tried to get out of the saloon, but the complainant and his friend kicked and hit at him. He succeeded in getting out and Doyle got hold of Hoffman, finally Hoffman cut him. He, Meyers, had no coat or hat on. He saw Hoffman running down the street. He, Meyers came back for his hat; the crowd was still in the saloon and he would not go in. Hoffman came along and he had no hat nor coat on. Hoffman said, "Wait until the policeman comes, and we will get him to get our clothes." While they were speaking, Doyle sneaked up behind them; he rushed at Hoffman and struck him. Hoffman jumped into the Street. He could not catch Hoffman then Doyle attacked him, Meyers, and hit him in the face, and nose, and mouth, and knocked him against the wall. He fell down, and being dazed, he drew his knife and used it. He wanted to get away from Doyle, and did not look where he struck with the knife.

CHARLES HOFFMAN, the complainant, being duly sworn, corroborated Meyers .
