Police Court 2 District.City and County } ss.: of New York.of No. 88 VarickMargaret Hoogoccupation Keep houseStreet, aged 32 years,deposes and says, that the premises No 88 Varick — being duly swornin the City and County aforesaid, the said being a three story brick Street,building in partand which was occupied by deponent as a place of dwellingand in which there was at the time no human being, ~~by means of~~were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly raisingthe window leading from the streetinto the basement of said premiseson the 16th day of May 1889 in the day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:One suit of boys clothing. two clocks.

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by John H. Lake. and John Cassidy(both now here)for the reasons following, to wit: that at the hour of 7 O'clockA.M. said date deponent went to workleaving her apartment which is the basementfloor of said premises in the charge of herson Lawrence Preacher and leaving saidproperty in said apartment. and when deponentreturned at the hour of 4:45 O'clock P.M. someday, deponent found the front basement doorwide open the noising having been removed from the inside. And discovered that all of said property was missing from her apartment. And at that time there was no person in her apartment. And defendant is informed by her son the said Lawrence Preacher that at the hour of 3.45 O'clock P.M. same day the defendant Lake came to him and asked him if he wanted to make two dozens. And sent him to see a Mrs Hartwick at no 116 West 25th St. and while the defendant Lake was taking him the said Lawrence to the Elevated R.R. Station at Grand St and South 5th Avenue they met the defendant Cassidy who then accompanied Lake. he Lawrence then took the elevated R.R. train and went to 116 West 25th St. where Lake had informed him he would find a Mrs Hartwick. but instead of finding a private dwelling at that number and a Mrs Hartwick, he Lawrence found that the premises no 116 West 25th St. were used and occupied as a Chocolate Manufactory. And when he Lawrence left defendant's apartment he left said basement window closed but not latched. Defendant is further informed by Officer Thomas Perry of the 9th Precinct Police that he arrested the said defendants together and in company with each other at the hour of 8 O'clock P.M. May 21st on Long St. and when he searched the defendants he found in the pocket of the coat worn by Lake a piece of cloth. Defendant further says she has since seen said piece of cloth so found in Lakes possession and fully identifies it as her property. And as a portion of the property aforesaid. Wherefore defendant charges the said defendants with being together and acting in concert with each other and ^{Burglary} ~~burglariously~~ entering said premises as aforesaid and feloniously taking ^{stealing} and carrying away said property.

The People
 Emanuel Laogo
 jointly indicted with Frederick Derrler
 Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Judge Cowing.
 July 19th 1884. Indictment.
 for robbery in the first degree.
 Gottlieb Schwelk, sworn and examined.
 I live 51 First Avenue and am a blacksmith's helper; on the 17th of June I lost my silver watch and brass chain which were worth $10.75. The watch was in my pocket fastened to my vest.
 This now shown to me is the locket and part of the chain. What time of night did you lose this, if night, and where were you? In Broome near Christie street in this city about one o'clock in the morning. Tell me what happened at that time, how you lost it? I could not tell you that, I did not see it.
 Were you walking along the street? Yes, I walked in the street. Did you see this man (the defendant)? Yes, he hit me on the nose so that blood came out. The defendant, Frederick Derrler, did you see him? Yes, the two were together. What happened then after they hit you on the nose? I was in the saloon and had a glass of liquor.
 I was in the saloon before I was hit in the nose. After I was struck 0607

by Laozo the policeman arrived and arrested the two, officer Skell, that is the man (pointing to the officer) How soon after? One or two minutes. How near where you were hit? In the same block. Where did you see your watch? I saw it in the Police station. Did you see from where or from whom it was taken? I did not. Had you met Laozo and ~~Demulder~~ before Laozo struck you? I did not - never ^{saw} him. You never saw them before? No. What was your condition at the time as to sobriety? I had taken a ^{few} glasses of beer but I was sober. You had not seen these two men before Laozo struck you that night? I did not. You had not seen them that night before in the saloon? I did not. Cross Examined through the Interpreter. Ask him if he is sure about that, if he was not in a saloon drinking with this man and the other man? He were. Where did he meet the two men? I cannot tell whether they were in first or I was first in the saloon. How many drinks did you have together? I had one beer and paid for it. What were those men doing in the saloon there?

0608

They wanted me to treat. Did you treat?
I did not. Ask him again. Does he say that he saw this man strike him the prisoner? Yes. Were you not examined in the Essex Market Police Court?
I was. Ask him if he did not say that he did not know who struck him?
I am sure that they were both together.
I am under the impression that I said that I did not know but that they both struck me. What is your impression now, that both struck you, or did one strike you, and if so which one? I cannot say. Do you know whether anybody stole your watch or took your watch away from you that night? I am positive my watch was taken. Do you know who took it? I do not. Ask him if he knows the sister-in-law of Deemler?
I do not. Have you seen his brother?
Do you know this man's brother at all. Ask him if the brother and brother-in-law of this man Deemler did not come to his house the Sunday after this loss? He remembers it, they did. Did you have a talk with them? I did not know who they were, but they asked me how it 0609

occurred. And you told them? I did.
Did you go out and drink with them?
I did not go out with them - they left the house. Did they pay you any money? They did not.
Israel Rosenberg, sworn and examined, testified. What is your business? I am a printer at No 78 Clinton St. Are you in business for yourself? Yes sir.
How old are you? Twenty one. Were you present upon the night of this occurrence? I was going through Broome street between twelve and one o'clock.
I was on the north east corner of Christie and Broome Sts. in front of a saloon. As I was going along this man, the complainant, coming out of the storm door of the saloon.
The prisoner Laoro struck him in the nose with his fist. I was only a very short distance from them.
Were you sober? Yes. Did you see besides the other defendant? He was not there at the time, he was not so close to the man that struck him. Was he there, did you see him?
Yes sir, he came there after. How long after? About two minutes.

0610

Where was he when Laozo struck the complainant? I believe in the saloon. You did not see him at that time there? No sir. Tell me then what occurred? He struck him on the nose and took his watch with the other hand. I saw that. What pocket did he take it out of? That I cannot specify. It was from his vest pocket. Did you see the watch afterwards? Yes, I saw it in the station house. Then what did you say or do? I told the Sergeant at the desk what I had seen. Did not you call an officer? Yes. After I had seen him do this they walked up the street, both Laozo and Derrler. I saw an officer on the opposite corner. I ran over and said, "Here are the two men that robbed the man." He ran up with another officer and caught him. How long after? About three or four minutes. I went and told officer Nell, he was on the opposite corner. He ran up Christie St. and called another officer and they both caught Laozo and Derrler walking together arm in arm. Did you see what they did to them? Yes, they walked together arm in arm. Did you see what they did to them? Yes, they walked back towards the saloon and the complainant was not there. I saw him go away, he was slightly under the influence of liquor. I told him to go back; he did go back, he felt for his watch and it was gone. What did the officers do, did they search the man? Not on the street, not until they got to the station house; the whole six of us went to the station house and there the charge was made and the defendant searched. On search was found the watch in the inside pocket. I saw it taken from him, the officer had the chain they took off the complainant's vest. Cross Examined. It was between twelve and one o'clock, it was not about eleven o'clock; the complainant was not very drunk, he was walking out of the saloon when the defendant struck him in the face and took his watch; he was struck on the nose and it may have staggered him; he made no outcry. I never saw the man before, he may possibly have been in my place.

0611

0612

Charles Nell sworn. I am an officer attached to the 11th precinct. I arrested the defendant and Demler in company on the night of the 17th of June about one o'clock in the morning. I was on post in Christie St. going towards Broome St. and when I got to the corner I saw the defendants walk up Christie St. towards Delancey St. They were arm in arm. Rosenberg ran over to me and complained about the robbery. I ran up Christie St. and there met another officer. We ran up and caught the two men. We accused them of taking the watch and they denied it. We brought them back towards Broome St. and there Rosenberg found the complainant near the corner of Broome and Christie St.; we all went to the station house; the complainant's watch was gone, a small part of the chain was attached to the vest; the complainant had some blood on his face around the nose. The complaint was made and I searched the prisoners and in Demler's possession I found the watch. I had no conversation with either of the defendants. Cross Examined. The complainant was slightly intoxicated.

0613

I made a charge of intoxication against him and locked him up that night to hold him as a witness. I took him before the Magistrate the next morning and explained the case to the Judge and he discharged him. The complainant spoke in a strain as though he would not appear in Court the next morning; he got talking about losing time and I was afraid he would not appear. I charged him with being drunk and locked him up.

Emanuel Laogo, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified:

I did not take the defendant's watch and was not engaged with the other defendant in doing it. I was in the liquor saloon on the 16th of June corner of Christie and Broome Sts.; the complainant came up to the bar and ordered drinks and then walked away from the bar, and the barkeeper wanted to know who would pay for the drinks? I told him, the other man who ordered them and who walked out. The barkeeper asked me to hold him and he made a run for the door. I was going to the door; the man pushed away. I thought it was not my business. I did not pay any more attention to him. As I was leaving the place with Demler I was struck. I turned around to defend myself when Demler gave me a push into the street and said the man was drunk. We walked down Christie St. until we got in the middle of the block and I said to Demler, asked him where the other party was, his brother-in-law's brother, a stranger to me? He said he left him in the saloon. I said, Come back and get him, he may get into trouble." We were about to turn around when the officers arrested us. A taller man arrested me. I did not have the complainant's watch. Demler had it. I don't know where he got it. When I was brought into the Eldridge St. station house and was locked up in a cell I asked Demler, where did you get the watch? He said to me, "Did you see ~~the~~ ~~complainant~~ buy it at the bar off the complainant?" I said, No, I did not see you buy it. I was ~~arrested~~ once for larceny and the jury disagreed. I pleaded guilty to petty larceny and got three months by Judge Gildersleeve on the 22nd of May. That is the only trouble I was ever in, and I was not guilty of that charge. I am a painter and was working for myself at the time of my arrest. I am 23 years old and have lived in New York 22 years. I was born in Hoboken, N. J. and my father was a Cuban. I worked for a man named Tobias. I left him two weeks before I was arrested. I was painting his place. I learned my trade with my father-in-law. I am married but have no children. The name of my father-in-law is ^{Mr.} Bach. Cross Examined. I have been married since the 9th of June 1886. I was married when I went to the penitentiary. I pleaded guilty to petty larceny by advice of Counsel. I did not see Dennis buy the watch. I did not hit the complainant in the face. Mr. Rosenberg came falsely when he said he was very near me when he saw me take the watch. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of robbery in the second degree.

0615

Court of General Sessions

The People etc
vs.
John W. Long

Report.

The defendant is indicted of Larceny in the 1st degree, for having on the 25th of June, 1889, in the night time, stolen from the person of the complainant, Frederick J. Welgin, a watch, a chain and a cord of the total value of $125.

The case has been referred to me for the purpose of ascertaining whether the facts and circumstances therein are such as to justify the granting of complainant's petition for a dismissal of the indictment.

My examination has satisfied me that the defendant, when he took complainant's property, did not do it with a felonious intent. Complainant and defendant had been friends and chums for years and on the said night had been on a spree together. ^{The defendant was drunk at the time.} The complainant at once stated to the police that he did not attribute any criminal intent to the defendant and refused to make a complaint against ^{him}; the officer deemed it however, his duty to bring the parties before the Police Magistrate. Here the complainant again refused to prefer a charge against the defendant, but the Magistrate compelled him to lodge a complaint against him. The defendant is a man of family, has heretofore borne an excellent reputation, and has been in prison since the 23rd of June, 1889.

I am of the opinion that the ends of justice will be better served by the granting of the complainant's prayer. than by the trial of the defendant, with a pretty sure prospect of an acquittal

I, therefore, recommended the dismissal of the indictment herein.

Charles J. Wade, being duly sworn, ^{he is a detective employed with the 18th Precinct} says that on the 26th of June, 1889, the complainant came to the Station House and stated that he had been robbed of his watch and chain and one diamond stud, and that he suspected his friend John W. Long to have taken the said articles, because he had been drinking with him during the preceding night. That both he, the complainant, and the defendant, had been drunk at the time of the robbery. That he supposed the defendant had taken the jewelry in fun merely, as they had been good friends with each other for years. That he believed the defendant incapable of committing a crime. That the defendant, when arrested by me, at once asserted that he had taken the said articles for fun only and without any criminal intent. That the complainant declared his unwillingness to make a complaint against the defendant, but as the defendant had admitted having taken

0669

the said jewelry, I had to assign him in the Police Court. That there, before Mr. Justice McMahon, the complainant refused to make a charge against the defendant, but the said judge compelled him to make one.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Larceny.

John W. Long

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I have known the defendant intimately for about two years and have been in his company frequently during that time, and am also acquainted with his friends and acquaintances.

On the night or morning in question both defendant and myself had been drinking together for a number of hours and under the influence of liquor. The defendant took my jewelry while in that condition, but I do not think he intended to rob me of it, nor do I think he intended stealing same, but thought it was nothing more or less than fooling.

I did not intend prosecuting him, nor do I ~~now~~ and I so told Justice W. Mahon at the time of defendant's arraignment before him. The defendant is a married man with a family dependent upon him for support, and I am also acquainted with his family who are highly respectable people.

For the reasons above stated I respectfully ask permission to withdraw my complaint since only believing the defendant intended committing no crime.
