After examining the complainant's story it appears that defendant Murphy took part in this transaction was altogether innocent. Complainant Murphy had been intimate friends for twenty-five years, & it appears quite clear that Murphy was fooling with complainant and did not intend to deprive him of his money. Complainant is of this opinion also.

For these reasons I think that the indictment against Murphy should be dismissed.

of No. 442 West 5th Street, aged 58 years, occupation: boat builder being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 9th day of August 1889, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, I went into the fish market of Walter Murphy at no. 500 West 5th St.

I made the remark ^{to Murphy} that I had been paid a bill which was owed me, and took ^(thirty dollars) the money out of my pocket and showed it to said Murphy who was standing behind a counter in said store. Murphy then said to one Jacob Bowman, an employe that "Davy's got a boodle; let's go through him." Then Murphy came from behind the counter and took hold of me, and Bowman came from the back of the store and took the thirty dollars out of my pocket, Bowman then threw the money to a third party ^{who is} unknown to deponent. I then demanded my money and it was refused me. I then went to the station house and told the above story to the sergeant at the desk, who thereupon sent out an officer, who brought said Murphy & Bowman to the station house. There Murphy offered to ~~return the money~~ & Bowman denied taking the money. Then Captain Killilea asked me to sign a statement denying that I had been robbed by Murphy & Bowman; upon my refusal to do so, we were all locked up. Several times through the night, said Murphy offered to return the money, if I would not press the charge. I said that if the money was paid me, I would withdraw it.
When the case came up in the Fourth District Police Court, it was dismissed and since then Murphy has refused to pay me the money.
