John McKee.

District Attorney, N. Y. City.

Dear Sir:

I did not get word
of being wanted to appear before the Grand Jury to give evidence in the complaint pending against Joseph Priestis until Friday last at 7.45 A.M. If I must appear I am very sorry I could not have known of it last week,
for I am a lecturer on Anatomy, Physiology and Medicine, and the lecture season commences
about the first of September.
I was in hopes the Grand Jury

would get along without one, if should they find a bill, I would have a man agree and of course another to appear as witness in the event of general seizures against Porto.

Of course I will not shrink responsibility in the matter, but trust you will consider the circumstances in which I am placed, and make me but one trip to New York, if possible. Dr. Osborn of the 99th Street Hospital is the principal witness in the case. My affidavit which you have bring out about all I know of the affair, excepting seeing the cloth drop from under his coat, when we apprehended him, and the return of the watch the next day. An exact copy of the letter accompanying the <sup>watch</sup> ~~letter~~ you have.

It seems to me you can get along without me before the grand jury. You have Dr. Osborn and Detective Haight, also the assistant Police of the City of Richmond. If the evidence you have is not sufficient to indict Porto, my evidence will not convict him. Dr. Osborn saw the prisoner working in the vicinity of my watch, with a cloth over his left arm and both hands. My watch was taken then and there. I felt the prisoner, but did not notice his hands. Within one hundred feet he was arrested, and the cloth dropped from under his coat. Dr. Osborn also saw a man with him, close at his side, to whom, of course, he handed the watch. And the watch was returned as before stated.

0222

Should you want me, or if you cannot get along without me, let me know just
when you want me to be there,
and I will come. Give me what time you can, as I can reach New York. A letter mailed there in the P. M. before 6 o'clock
I will get the next morning at 7.45; unless it should be miscarried.

Yours Respectfully

P. W. Errens Esq. D.

Dear Sir.

Last evening a young man was arrested, charged with the larceny of your watch. That man is innocent of the theft of your property.

The sender of this note having possession of your watch, and not wishing to have another suffer for his offence, takes this manner of restoring your property, hoping it may induce you to cease the prosecution of the man you have now under arrest, which in his case would be a precaution.

Without exacting a promise from you in this matter, I leave it to your honor, as a gentleman, to cease moving any further in it.
