Pursuant to request of the District Attorney I called on Mrs. Laura M. Thorp at her residence 206 West 21st City on May 14 at 9 a.m. I found her propped up in bed very pale. She told me she had gotten up yesterday for the first time and had found the excitement too much and was advised by her Physician not to leave her bed at present. She thinks she may be able to ride out for a little fresh air on Monday and may be able to come to Court in two weeks.

She says that on March 28 at 11 a.m. the door bell rang she went to the door in person and Walsh came in asking her if Tom was there. She said no. He said yes he is and so want to see him. He said I'll look through here going towards her bedroom (she protested and said he was not there that she would not tell him a story that she was all alone.

He said "you are alone are you ~~but~~ then take that" and fired at her. She sprang over the table into the hall and fell down the stairs into the basement saying to a servant run for a doctor George Walsh has shot me. The servant ran next door and got a doctor then Mrs. Sharp sent the servant for the gentleman whom Walsh had asked for. He came with a man named Thompson ~~a police~~ and another man and about that time the police came. Thompson went up stairs and got the pistol from Walsh and when the police were looking for the pistol and 0640 asking for it and it was not to be found there.

~~Walsh~~ said that soon there it ~~sent~~ ^{sent} to Thompson and he gave it up there.
She says she had seen Walsh but only as the messenger of the gentleman.
never socially or intimately.
She says Walsh kept his hand in his overcoat pocket until he fired at her. She says Walsh never was in the habit of carrying a pistol.
She thinks he was incited to the act by some one else.
She says Walsh was perfectly sober.

a statement at your house before the coroner?

A Yes sir

Q Was your memory then quite good and distinct?

A I think it was.

Q And where did this occur, the date?

A The 28th of March last.

A I cannot be positive who was present. I don't know how many were in the room at the time.

Q Do you remember any of the persons who were present?

A Doctor Fell, Mr Thomas Adams. I think that's all that I recollect. I didn't look around the room at the time.

Answer

Q Counsel Reading from a paper?

Q "On Friday evening I felt lonely and was sitting in my parlor and remained there until about 10 o'clock or 10:30 P.M. I said all right come in he then entered my parlor and said he wanted to go to my bed room. I said no under no circumstances. He then Walsh stood in the centre of the parlor and said I am a man and pulled his pistol out of his pocket and shot me."

Laura M. Sharp.
Did you make that statement?

0644

Q I did not

Q You did not make that statement?
A I don't recall making it.

Q Then if you made that statement it has escaped your memory?

A It has, I don't recollect saying that

Q Do you say it's incorrect?

A Murray here said it, but I didn't say it in those words, I didn't say so much as that.

Q Do you remember what you did say?

Yes sir

Q Give it to us as you recollect it.

A I recollect I was lying on the floor and the coroner was sitting or standing behind me and he asked me to make the statement, I said that George Walsh had rung the bell and I went to the door and he asked me if Tom was there and I said no he said that he was and he walked in and he looked around and he insisted upon saying that Tom was there and I said no I am ^{all} alone and he said all alone and with that he shot me

Q As I understood you now you say that the statement which you have just made is the one that you made before the Coroner?

A That is what I recollect saying
Q you mean to give that as the statement that you made before the Coroner as you now recollect it?

A Yes sir as I recollect it.

Q And the statement that I read to you you declare is the statement that you didn't make?

A I don't recollect saying that at all.

Q I will read it again, Counsel Reading
"On Friday evening I felt lonely and was sitting in my parlor and remained there until about 10 o'clock or 1030 P.M. March 28th 1884 when the bell rang and I went to the door and George Walsh stood at the door and said he wanted to come in I said all right come in, he then entered my parlor and said he wanted to go to my bed room, I said no under no circumstances. Q Did you use the word Adams?

A I don't remember that I did I remember using the word Tom. I don't recollect using the word Adams.

Q Did you use the words Tom at all. didn't you try conceal his name?

A I didn't.

Q you are clear about that?

A Yes sir.

Q positive of that?

A Yes sir. He was sitting there (showing) I was so faint I could hardly speak and he repeated every word over to me

Q Then it was repeated to you word for word by the Coroner?

A Yes sir.

Q who is Tom Adams.

A Objected too.

By the Court. I want allow it.
Mr Shaffer? To the Court

Q don't you think I have a right to show the history of this body?

A Yes sir.

Mr Shaffer

I want to suggest to your honor it's not a matter of mere curiosity which induces me to ask this.

question, but if this examination is worth anything its material for this accused to know who this witness is and what her life has been, we would be permitted on the trial to show what her character and history are. Why not here, ~~However you may conclude to lead the accused to the end,~~
 In other words this examination amounts to nothing whatever unless we can obtain facts as ^{would} enable ^{to show} us on the trial. However you may conclude to the ^{questi} ~~accused~~ ^{by the Court}.

The character of the ^{Complainant} ~~body~~ is not at all in this case the mere question before me is whether a crime has been committed and if a crime has been committed by who, the character of the body cannot be questioned in this court, it may be raised on the trial of the case.

Now will you be kind enough Mrs. Thompson to state to me just what did occur from the time ~~to~~ ^{the} ~~end~~ ^{of} the ringing of the bell until the shooting state it all to me as though you never before had stated it;

Q The door bell rang I went to the door and he was standing there and he asked me if Tom was there and I said no and he walked into the house and insisted upon saying Tom was there and I assured him I was all alone and he stood in the centre of the room and said that he had his hat on and his hand in his overcoat pocket.

Q Is that all that was said or done?

A That was all that was said or done. Mr Walsh was not in the house five minutes before I was shot.

Q He didn't mislead you in any way

A No sir

Q He simply asked if Tom was there?

A Yes sir

Q He did not in any way make any improper suggestions to you? as between you and him?

A He never made an improper suggestion to me in his life

Q He simply inquired for Tom and insisted that Tom was there?

A Yes sir

Q He insisted that Tom was in your 0652 bed room?

Answer

Q Didnt he want to go to your bed room
A I dont know he didnt mention bed room.

Q He did not?

Answer

Q He first entered the parlor?

A He first entered the parlor

Q And from there he went into the dining room?

A He walked around the parlor?

Q And then he went into the dining room

Answer

Q Where was the bed room?

A The bed room was back of the dining room.

Q So he wanted Lane to go through the dining room in order to get to the bed room?

Answer

Q And he insisted that Lane was in the house?

Answer

Q Didnt he say that he was in your bed room?

A I dont recollect him saying anything 0653 about bed room at all

Q He said Tom was in the house?

A And I said Tom was not in the house

Q Did he act disagreeable in any way

A Of course any man would be disagreeable if he insisted a person was in the house when he was told he was not

Q That was all there was as to the disagreeableness?

Answer

Q When you used this expression he said he wanted to see Tom and I accused him he was not in the house and he said yes he is and with that he looked around the room and acted disagreeable and I told him he was in my house, this is what you term disagreeable that he acted disagreeable?

A Mr Walsh had been in the habit of acting very friendly; he didn't take off his hat, he kept looking around; you might come in and act very disagreeable, I cannot explain to you what I mean?

Q And you mean in the expression of the word disagreeable that there was no personal offense to you?

Answer

Q There was no unprofessional conduct on the part of Mr. Walsh that he intended to insult you?

Answer

Q You had been friends?

A Very friendly indeed

Q Do you remember Mr. Walsh and yourself and Mr. Adams taking a trip to Philadelphia?

Answer

Q And Mr. Walsh was a friend of Mr. Adams?

Answer

Q He did accompany you on a trip to Philadelphia?

Answer

Q And you saw him there and conversed with him?

Answer

Q And he was very friendly and gentlemanly to you?

A Mr. Walsh was always very friendly to me on account of Mr. Adams

Q And Mr. Walsh accompanied you on a trip to Washington and stopped 0655 at the Ebbett house with you? And being on the floor of the house of representatives?

A I recollect being in Washington with Mr Adams but I don't recollect words I remember being on the floor of the house of Representatives

Q You remember yourself Mr Walsh and Mr Adams taking a trip to Rochester?
A Yes sir

Q And he had been in the house with Mr Adams?

A He never came without Mr Adams unless Mr Adams sent him with a note, he never called on me personally.

Q Your relations with Mr Walsh were friendly?
A Yes sir

Q And he was a friend of Adams?
A Yes sir

Q And when he came there he insisted that Adams was in the house and wanted to see him?

A Yes sir

Q And did you employ Mr Walsh to sell your horses and carriages?

A I did not Mr Adams did, was to sell 0656

my horses. my carriages
Mr Shaefter under your honors ruling
I have no further questions to ask.
Respectfully

Q Your examination was taken by the Coroner, how long was it after the doctor told you, you had half an hour to live?

A It was shortly after.

Q What doctor was that?

A Both doctors.

Q Name them?

A Doctor Shave and Sell.

Q Who was your first physician?

A Doctor Sell.

Q And who was it that told you you had half an hour to live?

A Doctor Sell.

Q Did Doctor Shave continue his attendance upon you?

A Yes Sir.

Q For how long ago a time?

A Up to a week before he went to Europe and then he put me in charge of another physician.

Q You mean he attended you from the time you were shot up to a week

As the month is nearly closed I suppose this case will have to wait another term.

I supposed from my last conversation with you that it would be tried this month, but I take it that other cases more pressing upon your office and of greater moment to the People has prevented you from bringing Mr. Walsh to trial.

I enclose note this day recd. from Mrs. Thorpe & desire to inform her what are the prospects for the trial in the future and if you can give me any

Dear Sir

I take the liberty of writing to you directly to ask whether there is any good reason why the case of Throp

should not be will understand how much anxiety and

May I therefore ask not be possible to have the case

long a delay is ne-

I have known Mathew Webb Jr. for several years and have always thought him a good and honest boy.

He was connected with a class in South Baptist Sunday School. of which I had charge for more than a year and, was, always punctual, attentive, and well behaved, and with one exception I considered him the best of the class. During this time he made a profession of faith and connected himself with the Church. I would have recommended him highly for any position he was capable of filling as to honesty and good moral principles.

I had several years acquaintance with Matthew Webb Jr. during the time I was a Pastor of the South and West 33rd St. Baptist Church in New York. This is to certify that I have known Mr. Matthew Webb, Jr. for several years. During my pastorate of the Sixteenth Baptist Church in New York City, Matthew was a member of the Sunday School, and an attendant at the services of the church. I have never heard a word spoken derogatory of his character but on the contrary, many warm expressions of approval and esteem. I always regarded him as a young man of honor and integrity and felt willing at any time to trust him. I remember him as ~~an~~ a young person who impressed me as an enterprising, industrious, amiable, honest and upright young man. It is my hope that this opinion may never need to be changed and that - founded as it is on years of careful observation - it may be of service to him in time of need.

Mr Matthew Webb Jr.

My dear friend.

I was very much troubled the other day in observing in the columns of a newspaper. the great trouble into which you had fallen... I always discount heavily the stories I read in the newspapers, and so hope that the offense charged - of offense there is - is of a comparatively trifling nature, and one that may bring you but little inconvenience and distress. Still as I do not know the details of the charge and have no means of knowing at this distance from New York. I send you these lines to express the interest I have in your welfare. to mention my esteem and regard, and to assure you of my willingness to do all in my power to help you. I beg that you will feel at liberty to write to me, and to point out any way in which I can reasonably be of service to you. I am so sorry that you are in trouble, but feel hopeful that in a little time, you may escape out of all your trials and be at peace.

0710

If you feel disposed to write me a full and frank statement of all your trouble, I shall be interested to read it. I am very sure that if you have been led astray into wrong doing - and who of us is not liable to be tempted to do this - some older persons, without heart and without conscience have been the instruments of your temptation. I remember you as a child as a young man under my care, as a useful worker, and as an enterprising and active business man. I remember with pleasure your kind wishes for a happy New Year, and feel very anxious that you may be delivered out of your present straits. Had I known of your whereabouts last Monday morning (when I was in New York) I should certainly have called upon you, and assured you in person of my sympathies. I only wish that by my advice or influence I could keep you in this your time of trial. Trust in God. Look to him in prayer for guidance, and believe me

Sincerely your friend

This is to certify that I have known Matthew Webb Jr. for several years. For some years while I was Pastor of the Sixteenth Baptist Church in New York City, he was a member of the Sunday School and an attendant at the services of the church. I regarded him as an honest, upright young man enterprising and industrious, and believe he enjoyed the respect and approval of those who knew him best. I never learned or suspected anything that would lead me to distrust him, and would at anytime have gladly commended him to the confidence of any who were seeking a person to fill a position of trust and usefulness. It is my earnest hope that this testimonial, heartily given, may be of service to him, and that nothing may ever occur that may lead me to change an opinion, formed during a prolonged period of observation.

I remember 13th of July 1888 —

The Complainant Julia Van Dyne went

I saw ^{her} there about 4³⁰ o'clock — ~~her condition~~ ^{she} was intoxicated at

I endeavoured to get her outside the saloon —

There was a stranger standing at the bar and she offered to make a bet of some money in regard to a fight that had taken place between two young men; the names were Peter McCarty and Harry Bell. that she was present at the fight in the back yard of John O'Connor's saloon on Hudson Street, between Lang and Ed Hubert Street.

Cross Examined by ~~her~~ prosecuting attorney —

I know she was intoxicated because she acted in a boisterous manner.

I ~~was~~ was obliged to put her out once before for intoxication.

I did not knock her down
she fell down accidentally —

It required another man with me to put her out —

She took no liquor while I was in the store — The Complainant came in the next day after the occurred and asked me if I did not know

I have not been to the Complainant's

I offered to settle this matter with the
