The People
Joseph Menely
Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree Michael Balz sworn and examined. I am a carman and keep a stand in 81 Pearl St. in this city. I saw the defendant on the 30th of August; the paper now shown me is the one he gave me; he stopped me in Hudson St. and asked me if I would not take four cases from West Broadway to 39 Green St. I told him, "no," I wanted to go to my stable. He said I would oblige him; that he was a shipping clerk and their carman was blocked up in the line and the goods must on the People's line. He handed me the order and he jumped on the wheel and I went to 40 West Broadway and got the goods. I started for 39 Green St.; when I got in Franklin St. he jumped on my truck and said his carman was going to meet us in Hudson St. and take the goods off me. When we got in Hudson St. I asked him where the carman was, and he said, "may be he is on his stand already."
When I got to the corner of Broome and Sullivan Sts. the carman had not got there yet, and the defendant told me to put the goods on the sidewalk and assisted me in doing so; when he got on the truck he gave me 50 cents; I left the four pieces with him. I saw the paper now shown me before (Exhibit B) I signed my name to it. Cross Examined. I never saw the defendant before he gave me that order, I have seen him twice since, once at Police Headquarters and once at Jefferson Market. He was talking to me about five minutes in Hudson St. I am positive that the paper now shown me was the one he gave me. I signed for four cases. I cannot read English very good. I delivered the paper which the prisoner gave me to Mr. Simenson and he gave me the goods. I gave it first to a clerk and he handed it to Mr. Simenson. He said to deliver the goods and take a receipt for it.

G. Metcalfe Simenson sworn. My place of business is 38 & 40 West Broadway, and am a packer and shipper of goods. I had a business transaction with Schwab & Co to deliver them some goods. I remember the 30th of August. I have seen the paper shown me before; it was handed me by the carman, the last witness. I handed it to my delivery man and told him to deliver the goods and take a receipt for them. The goods were four pieces of brocaded cloaks valued at about from three to four hundred dollars; they belonged to Landsburgh

+ ~~Pro~~ Washington; they were in my custody for them and had been several months. I considered the paper which I received to be an order from Schwabe & Co to deliver the goods I had on hand. It was on the supposed genuineness of that paper I parted with the goods. It was several days afterwards I heard about those goods, but I have not seen them since. The paper now shown me (Exhibit B) is one of my receipts torn from my book. The carman, the witness here, says he signed it. That was the receipt I received on delivering up the four pieces of brocaded silk to the carman. ~~Cross~~ Examined. It was some time in the afternoon that the goods were delivered. I remember this particular transaction. I received it personally and handed the order to my man. I cannot remember exactly the time, but it was somewhere between three and five o'clock in the afternoon. I ship a great many goods. The Peoples line of steamers go out at six o'clock and they receive goods up to the time of leaving. I was not the owner of these goods, but they were in my custody and control at the time I delivered them. They were worth from three to four hundred dollars. Counsel moved to dismiss the indictment because it alleged the property belonged to G. Metcalf Simonson, which was denied and exception noted.

Benton Cohen sworn and examined. I am connected with the house of G. Schwabe & Bros. I remember about the 30th of August last. I did not know of any goods at that time in the custody of G. Metcalfe Simonsen. I never saw that order before; that order is not from our house or from any one connected with it.

Our house had no goods with Mr. Simonsen. The goods was the property of Landsburgh Bros. of Washington; they were not our goods.

The Case for the Defence.

Benton Cohen recalled. These four pieces of goods Schwabe & Bros. have never received up to this day. We knew those goods were in the possession of Mr. Simonsen. How did you get that information? Piza, representative of Landsburgh Bros., who was at our place on or about the 30th of August; he gave us instructions to send an order down to Simonsen to deliver the goods to us. Were they held by Mr. Simonsen subject to your order? From the information received by Landsburgh's representative undoubtedly they were. You don't know anything of it yourself? I do not pretend to keep control of Landsburgh & Bros. calls.

The following is Peoples exhibit A New York, August 30, 1886.
Mr. G. Metcalfe Simonsen. Please deliver to bearer the balance of silk to us and oblige G. Schwab and Bros. Per C.

The following is Peoples Exhibit C.

H. Bolz.

Joseph W. Menzley, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I live 259 West Seventeenth St. I have lived there six months with my brother; he is in court. I was employed with Townsend and Yale, corner of Franklin and Church Sts. then; they have since moved to Broadway and Leonard St. I was employed by them nearly three years. I left there last summer, I was sick and went away in the country about the month of August, the latter part. I was not in New York on the 30th of August last; on the 28th of August I left New York and went to Amsterdam, N. Y. I have relatives living there. I returned about four weeks after that. I had malarial fever and went up there to recuperate a little. I was arrested the day after I returned. I heard the testimony of this carman, Mr. Bolz.

I never saw him before I saw him in Police Headquarters after my arrest. I never saw him in my life to my knowledge. After I left Townsend and Yale I worked a short time for Maurice Griffin, a carman who worked for G. Schwabe & Bros. he had a vacancy. I was not doing anything, and sooner than do nothing I went to work for him. Griffin has known me about six years. I have heard the testimony about the papers and about the goods I don't know anything whatever about them. Cross Examined. I worked for Griffin two or three times; it was two years ago since I worked for him first. I could not say how long I worked for him then. I worked for him this summer about six weeks driving a truck for him. During the time I drove a truck for him I had occasion to go into the house of Schwabe & Bros. I could not tell you when I quit work for Maurice Griffin exactly, but I think it was about the 24th of August; he had no more work for me and I left him. I was in New York until the 28th of August and then I left for Amsterdam in this State on the 28th. I was doing nothing between the time I left him and the time I went to Amsterdam. I have been to the house of Simonsen & Co with an order for goods for

Schwabe & Bro. Maurice Griffin gave me the order and I delivered it to Mr. Simonson. I could not say what it was. I did not see it, only the envelope it was enclosed in. I recollect getting two pieces of goods, but I don't know what they were, I did not see inside the box. I could not say how long that was before I went to Amsterdam, but it was inside a month. I was living that time at 259 West Seventeenth St. I lived 252 Madison Avenue and 650 Hudson St. with my mother. I lived one or two places more, but it is a good many years ago. I lived with my brother in 257 Seventeenth St.; he is not married. I had a furnished room there with him. I could not say whether or not it was the 27th day of August last that I went to Mr. Simonson and obtained the goods on an order from Schwabe & Bro. If I went there on the 27th of August I was not in the employ of Maurice Griffin. My occupation in Townsend and Yale's was stock clerk. I told them in the Police Court that I lived at 259 West Seventeenth St., but I see by this paper they put it down 495 West Seventeenth St. I know it was on Saturday the 28th of August I went to Amsterdam. I received a letter from there a day or two previous to that. I went on a train at the N.Y. Central depot; my brother was employed there then. I took a train from Albany to Amsterdam. I did not meet anyone in Albany. I have an aunt in Amsterdam. I was there before last summer when I was sick for a month. I could not tell you exactly the day I returned. I came back Friday morning on the Albany boat and was arrested on Eighth ave I met my brother corner of Hudson and Spring sts. I wrote to him that I would meet him over there and he met me there. I went to the room 259 West Seventeenth St. and changed my clothes and was going to the theatre when I was arrested. The first night of my return from Amsterdam to New York I slept with a friend of mine James McCrea in Harlem; he lives at the foot of 155th st. and Harlem river. I have slept there before. I did not know the police were after me till my brother told me that night; he said Maurice Griffin had told him of this stuff and a detective had come and spoken to him several times about it.

Maurice Griffin sworn. I live 167 West 30th St. and am a truckman and do business for Schwab & Co. I know the defendant nine years and his reputation for honesty is good. I think it was a Friday in August when I last sent him to Simonson's. The shipping clerk came a week after that and asked me if I had sent for the goods. I only sent him once there with an envelope Spencer C. Kerr testified to the good character of the defendant.

Walter Meneley, the brother, testified that he came in on a Friday night with a letter and he left next morning to go somewhere; it was between the 26th and the 29th; we have an aunt living in Amsterdam.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

On the occasion of the assault
