The People
vs.
Cornelius Jackson } Court of General Sessions. Part 7.
Jointly indicted with Albert Brooks for burglary in the third degree and receiving stolen goods. Before Recorder Smyth Feb 11. 1884.

Helen P. Case sworn. I live 105 East Seventy third St. my husband's name is Jeremiah G. Case. There is one store room for each apartment in the cellar; it is an apartment house; my store room was broken open on the night of the 21st of January; it was locked at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of that day. There were nine trunks there, a baby's carriage, a velocipede and a child's sleigh and a little willow basket.
In one of the trunks in which the locks were forced off there was ladies and childrens under wear; the breaking was discovered at 9 o'clock at night by my girl; she saw the goods scattered around. I discovered one trunk which was full of gentleman's clothing to be entirely empty. The clothing which was missing contained vests, shirts, neck ties, collars, under clothing, the wearing apparel of my husband amounting in value to about $150. I saw part of my husband's things that were taken I think the same night at the Mercer St. station house. I was notified and went down there at 10 1/2 o'clock. The defendant Jackson and

Albert Brooks were detained there. Brooks had been employed in the house. I had seen him twice, he was assisting the janitor. I think he was engaged on the 11th of Nov. and had only been discharged about a week. The 21st of January was Monday night. Peter Donnellan sworn. I am janitor of the building 105 East Seventy Third St. and was so on the 21st of January. I don't know the defendant. I know Brooks, who was with him and who pleaded guilty. I employed Brooks as an assistant from the 15th of Nov. to the 3^d of January when I discharged him. I did not see Brooks between the 3^d and the 21st of January. I did not see him on the 21st. Brooks helped me down with these trunks and had seen them stored away. I did not know Jackson until I saw him in Jefferson Market Court.

Michael J. Carey sworn. I am an officer of police and arrested the defendant on the 21st of January and a man named Brooks on Great Jones St. about 9 o'clock in the evening. I saw them passing by with bundles. The prisoner had one and Brooks had another. I questioned them and they told me that they worked for Mrs. Winfieldt at 107 East Seventy Third St.

and that they had been discharged that night and she gave them those clothes to take home to Brooks' family. I asked the prisoner; he said, he had worked there too, running around doing odd little things. I took them to the station house and they told the same story there. I went to see Mr. Weinfieldt to see whether the story was true and I found it was false. That they had never worked for her and that she had never given them any of the goods. The janitor came in (Donellan) while I was talking to her, and I asked him if he knew anybody of the description of Brooks and the prisoner, which I gave him, and he said, yes, he had a man answered the description, who worked for him and who gave the name of Johnson. I asked him to go round among the tenants and enquire if anybody lost anything. The prisoners were locked up in the station house at this time. I went back and reported the case to the Sergeant. I did not see the complainant till next morning. The property taken from the prisoners consisted of wearing apparel, ladies, childrens and gentlemen. The next morning the complainant identified the property as being hers and her husband's.

0485

Cornelius A. Jackson sworn and examined in his own behalf testified I live 2 Manhattan Lane. I work as an expressman for this Winterbottom about two months ago. I went on board of the Redfield and worked as a waiter, she runs to Hudson I live with my aunt. I know Mr. Brooks, the man who was arrested with me and who pleaded guilty. I know him about a month; he lives at the same place. I don't know anything about this burglary. Brooks asked me to go up town about 9 o'clock Monday night to help him down with some things that a lady had given him, that he left his place. I told him, yes. He paid my fare up; he said he would give me something for going up there. I came down and was captured by the officer in West Third St. as we got off the car. I went to Fifty Ninth St. and walked the rest of the way to East Seventy Third St. I went to the house Brooks went in; he told me to wait in the area way till he came out. I was never arrested before I heard Brooks tell the officer that Mrs. Weinfield gave him the things. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of the burglary in the Third degree. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

Testimony taken before Mr. Justice O'Reilly,
New York, December 27th 1883.

John Egane Police Officer / duly sworn, deposes and says:-

(Examined by the Court.)

Q. State what occurred on the — Witness— The night of this accident?

The Court— Yes, sir, — the shooting.

A. I was standing within a few feet of the boy when he was shot. He turned around to me and told me he was shot. I examined him — I wasn't positive that he was shot, and I called to Officer Finnegan for to find out who was doing the shooting — that the boy had got shot — I advanced a couple of feet to tell him that.
In the meantime that I advanced a couple of feet, there was a couple of shots fired — I think one or two — right across the Avenue from 0506

Q. That was the only place that you heard any shooting, at that time, from that direction?

A. Yes, sir.

(Examined by Mr. Tallon.)

Q. Officer! What time of the night was this?

A. I should judge about eight o'clock.

Q. Was that a dark night or a bright night?

A. Well, it wasn't a very dark night.

Q. You know where this man lives?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. On the corner of Second Avenue and 114th Street - from where you were standing, could you recognize the person in the window?

A. Well, I didn't recognize anybody that night.

Q. Did you look up to that window?

A. I looked just for a second, and seen the flash, - that was all.

Q. [By the Court.] You saw the flash come from there?

A. I saw the flash come from there.

Q. Did you see anybody in the window then?

A. I didn't take notice. I put my attention to the boy at the present time.

Q. Do you remember whether the boy was shot before you saw the flashes?

A. Oh! yes!

Q. The boy was shot before that?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you hear two shots that were fired before you saw the flashes?

A. I seen the flashes too.

Q. [By the Court.] How many shots were fired?

A. I should judge about two.

Q. And was it it before those two shots were fired that the boy was shot?

A. Yes, sir.

(Examined by the Court.)

Q. How do you know it was before, - you say that was after -

A. After the boy got shot I turned to Officer Finnegan and I told him to see who was doing the shooting, that this boy got shot - and at the same time a shot was fired from the window and all the people around there heard it.

Q. You say the boy got shot previous to the time you heard those shots from that window?

A. Yes.

Q. You say you heard no other shots at that time, excepting ^{there} from that direction from that house?

A. Yes, sir.

(Examined by Mr. Fallon.)

Q. You didn't hear any other shots, I understand you to say, - but before you saw these two shots, this boy had been shot?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long were you in that neighborhood that night, - wasn't it the night before election? Wasn't there some political gathering?

A. There was some kind of a political ~~gathering~~ turn-out; I should judge I was there about in the neighborhood of one nearly an hour or so, or more.

Q. Are you positive that you didn't hear any other shooting around there that evening?

A. Well, there was shooting pretty much every night -

Q. Do you mean to say that you don't now remember of any shots being fired that evening, or do you mean to say that there was no other shooting that you heard?

0509

A. Well there might be other shooting.
(Examined by the Court.)

Q. Might be? But was there any other shooting. You stated a few moments ago that there were no shots fired that evening, only what came from that place - from that house. Now was there any other shooting ~~from that direction~~ that evening?

A. Well, to the best of my opinion, there was not.

Q. Not that! Do you know positively whether there was or not? Go on and state!

A. Well, sir, to the best of my opinion, I know that there was shots fired. It is very seldom in the evening that there isn't shots fired. Of course, I didn't take note of it then.

(Examined by Mr. Fallow.)

Q. You made the remark when the Court asked you a question in your first examination, that you did not believe that it came from that window, because if that shot had been fired from that window you would have been shot instead of the boy?

05 10

A. Yes.

Q. Why?

A. From the fact I was facing pretty near the position to the window when the shots were fired from that window.

Q. Was the boy behind you?

A. He was in front of me.

Q. You were looking toward 2nd Avenue?

A. I was looking toward 2nd Avenue and he was facing -

Q. He was facing towards you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were between him and that window?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Therefore if the shot came from that window, it would necessarily strike you before it would strike the boy?

A. Yes, sir.

(Examined by the Court.)

Q. Were there many people there that night?

A. Quite a crowd were standing around.

Q. Were you standing on the side-walk?

13

A. I was in the middle of the street.

Q. You were in the middle of the street, and these boys were around there?

A. We had beat back some of the crowd from the side-walk -

Q. How many were in the street?

A. I should judge there might be a hundred and fifty ^{perhaps} or more.

Q. This boy that got shot, was he in the street?

A. They were all in line; they were going to march, and he was falling in line. He had one of those capes on, a sort of uniform.

Q. He had a cape on!

A. Yes, sir.

(Examined by Mr. Fallou.)

Q. It was a political meeting - wasn't it, - something of that sort?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was there a good deal of noise around there?

A. Oh! yes, - plenty of noise.

(Examined by the Court.)

Q. How did you come to take notice more of that boy than of the others around there?

Witness - That boy?

05 12

The Court - Yes, sir.

A. He was standing right in front of me, - he kept abreast of me

Q. There were others that had coped in,
as well as he?

A. Oh! yes, sir.

Testimony taken before Mr. Justice O'Reilly,

William M. Laughlan, duly sworn, de-poses and says as follows:—
(Examined by the Court.)

Q. Now state what occurred that night
A. Well, about half-past ~~five~~^{seven} or a quarter to eight, I went around to Henry Corner's at 114th street and Second Avenue, and there was to be a parade that night, and we have a club-room up-stairs, and we were to go in the parade. So we all got white coats on. We were to get out on the middle of the street to form in line. So we just fell back about a hundred feet from Second Avenue, and we were standing there to get in line.

Q. At the corner of Second Avenue and 114th street?

A. Yes, sir. We were trying to get in line, and all of a sudden there was a shot fired off. I pulled up my cape and I showed one of the boys - told him I was shot and showed it to him. Officer Egan happened to be standing near me at the time. I called out to him and told him that I was shot. So he called Officer Finnegan, and says, "Finnegan look around to see those parties shooting." So my brother-in-law happened to be standing over there at the time. He came running over and asked me what happened. I told him that I was shot. So he said, we had better go up to the station-house to see the surgeon. So we were just walking over to take the Second Avenue cars when I heard two more shots fired from the top-story window -

05 14

Q. On 114th Street?

A. Yes, sir, - North-east corner. So Officer Finnegan ran up and we went up to take the Third Avenue cars, - we thought it would be nearer; and we went right up to the station-house. The surgeon wasn't there, so we went right down to our own doctor's, and I went home and to bed.

05 15

Q. Where was Officer Egan standing when you got shot - how far from you?

A. About five or six feet from me.

Q. Five or six feet from you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Which side of you was he standing, - East or West?

A. He was standing on the North side of me.

Q. North side of you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Between you and the shots - where, those shots came from?

A. Yes, sir.

(Examined by Mr. Fallon.)

Q. Now, you say, you were shot, and that you called Officer Egan's attention to that fact?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, at the time that you were shot, did you notice where the shots came from?

A. I did not, for I -

Q. That is enough! It was after you were shot that you saw a window lifted up on the top-story, at the corner -

A. No, sir.

05 16

18

Q. You heard two shots - you saw two shots; - didn't you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Coming from that corner?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was after you were shot?

A. After I was shot.

Q. How long after you had been shot, did you notice these two shots fired?

A. I can't remember, - five or six minutes.

Q. Five or six minutes?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't notice the cash being raised up?

A. No, sir.

Q. Could you notice, when you saw these flashes - could you notice or see the person that fired the pistol?

A. No, sir.

Q. Was it too dark to recognize a person from where you stood, up in that window?

A. Well, I couldn't recognize him; I didn't know anybody else.

Q. [By the Court:] You were looking up at that time when your attention was called, - could you have seen the person at the window?

05 17

Q. Yes, sir.

Q. But you could recognize his face; couldn't you?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you notice in what direction those discharges came, - whether up in the air or how?

A. I couldn't tell.

Q. You didn't notice that?

A. No, sir.

(Examined by the Court.)

Q. Where were you shot, ~~in the side?~~

A. In the side.

Q. The left-hand side?

A. Yes, sir.

(Examined by Mr. Fallon.)

Q. How many times did you hear the shooting that evening?

A. Oh! There was - they fired a cannon off before these shots were fired, at all.

Q. Around in the neighborhood?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Well, there were other pistol shots around that evening?

A. Well; I didn't hear any except two -

Q. How many did you hear altogether?

A. I heard three shots altogether.

05 18

20

Q. Three?

A. That was one that struck me and then two other shots that I heard afterwards.

Q. You say Officer Egan was standing between you and the corner of the house where these shots were fired, how far away?

A. He was standing between me and the house, I know - he was standing about five feet north of me.

Q. You said to the Judge that he was between you and the house where this shooting was going on?

A. I told him he was between me and the house, - yes.

Q. Show us the position of the house and where you were and the officer - point out, in any way?

A. [Witness here, stood up in front of the Court, facing the entrance door to the Court room, which he indicated as about the position of the house, and indicated the position of the officer as about five feet to his left.] I happened to turn around this way, to fix my cape or something I had on me, when I heard a shot and found out that I was shot.

05 19

Q. By the Court, you had partly turned around when you were shot?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Wasn't the Elevated Railroad between you and the house also?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you think it possible that a pistol-shot discharged from that window, with that Elevated Railroad between, could have struck you?

A. Well, it was the top-story window.
