I wore the coat, vest and one of the pairs of pantaloons on the night of the 26th of September 1881, and when I went to bed shortly after 12 O'clock I hung them, the clothing, on the Q Were you present this morning when Francis Mehan was arrested in Fittell's house?

A I was, I saw Mr Fittell have him in charge in the first hall way. Officer Dapping came and took Mehan to the Station House where I saw him searched and upon his person was found a bone comb and a trunk key with a string attached, now here shown, which I fully identify as my personal property.

 had been drinking all the

I will swear to two dollars I will not swear that I did

I cannot identify the in the bar room at the time I lost my money was Myrtle Parzer and the proprietor of the saloon one room and the waiters were sitting in the same room. I made Myrtle acquainted the same night.

Three minutes after Myrtle put his arm around me I missed my money - just at the time the money was missing Parzer went out.
I rushed to the door & locked it and sent for officer. Myrtle did not attempt to go out; Myrtle was so close to me that no other man could have taken my money. Parzer was behind me, and could have taken the money. At the time Myrtle was hugging me Parzer could have taken the money from my pocket.

Dear Sir

You will have the case before you next week of Henry Madigan 14 years old the youngest of 16 children, brought up in Conn.^t He is well connected and of course his sisters feel very bad about it. He has a Brother in Arizona a large Contractor, who will take him care for him - and his Sisters who will be in Court will send him out. I understand the Court does not care to prosecute and I think will commend the above course.

I leave the City Monday or I would not trouble you with this letter. I feel an interest in this family who have never had any trouble of this kind before.

Respectfully Yours
S. Cutler

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant is a worthy young man and in the manner I think I was as much to blame as he was.
