That he resides at No 22 Rutgers

17 years at between the hours of 11 1/2 & 12 o' clock at night he was ~~walking~~ <sup>being</sup> through Cherry Street on his way home to No 304 Cherry Street where he lived at that time, and upon arriving about the middle of the block between Jefferson & Clinton Street, he saw a number of persons some from a fire sitting <sup>and</sup> standing by an ash box. That when defendant got opposite to them suddenly Edward Dillon the defendant came against defendant, with his hands up in a forcible manner, whether he was pushed or ran against him defendant can not say. That he had defendant in positive a shoe in his hand, but can't remember whether he had anything in his other the left hand. That depment felt a blow at the same time on the forehead which caused him to stagger back, and at the same time depment caught hold of said Seillon and held him fast by his clothing, <sup>and called for the police in a loud voice</sup> then some of the other boys interfered and took Seillon away from depmment. That at the time Seillon came against depment and he was struck and depment caught Seillon both depment and Seillon fell on the ground Seillon on top, and when both were in this position, ~~it was~~ the others came and took Seillon from off depment and from his grasp. That then Seillon and the others ran away, and depment and his son ran after them, and saw some of them run in a hall way & climb over the fence. Depment after that <sup>in the custody of an officer</sup> about a quarter of an hour saw Seillon at the station house.

That as soon as he got up on his feet after the said Seillon was taken from off him, depment discovered his watch chain hanging down the limb near the end towards the watch having been broken. Depment cannot say whether Seillon was pushed against depment or ran against him purposely.

0429

That deponent will not say that the said Seillon intended to steal his watch or do him any bodily injury. That it was a very warm night.

being duly sworn deposes and says:
That he is the defendant herein.
That he resides with his parents at No 326 Cherry Street in the City of New York, and has resided there for inwards of fifteen years. That he remembers the night of the 25 day of July <sup>1872</sup>. That during the fore part of the evening he was at Miner's Theatre in the Bowery.
That at about 11 o'clock he met in Cherry Street between Clinton & Jefferson Street, five or six young men who were standing around & sitting on an ash box about the middle of the block. That defendant had on a new pair of shoes which hurt him, and was compelled to leave the Theatre on account of the shoe of his right foot hurting him. That when he got out he took the shoe off and 0432 walked with it off towards his home with his shoe in his right hand. That when deponent got to <sup>Cherry Street behind Jefferson street</sup> the ash box and the young men were <sup>referred to in the paper affidavit</sup> one of them asked deponent what was the matter with his foot, that deponent stopped and commenced talking with them, and was standing with his back to the ash box resting the ~~shoe~~ shoeless foot on his left shoe, and was there about fifteen minutes when Jacob ~~the~~ Moses Joffe and his son came along from the direction of Jefferson Street towards Chinatown and when they got opposite the ash box and where deponent was standing, he (deponent) was suddenly pushed from behind against said Moses Joffe. That deponent had his shoe in his hand and as he felt the push he raised both hands <sup>to save himself</sup> and in doing so the shoe struck said Moses in the forehead. That he grabbed deponent & then both he and deponent fell to the ground. That deponent struggled to get away, that the other young men then interfered and pulled deponent off of said Joffe, who was calling out Police & Murder. That so soon as deponent got away from the grasp of said Joffe and for fear of arrest he ran into a hall way, climbed over a fence into Monroe Street and ran into a policeman's arms. That defendant whilst on the ground on top of said Joffe endeavored to get away from him, in every way. That defendant did not run against said Joffe. had no intention to assault him. Nor did he attempt to steal his watch and chain or any property of his whatever, but the whole thing resulted from the push he had received from the behind by one of the young men. That defendant knew the young men slightly, seeing them around the neighborhood, and when they asked him what the matter was, he stopped to tell him and rest his shoeless foot which was paining him and then he intended to go home. That one of the young men <sup>named</sup> Hygibbons who was arrested at the same time defendant was and discharged defendant knew quite well, but has since left the neighborhood and defendant has not been able to find his whereabouts, nor the whereabouts of the other who were present.

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK, } ss.2<sup>d</sup> DISTRICT POLICE COURT.

George Downs being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge: and being informed that it is his right to make a statement in relation to the charge against him; that the statement is designed to enable him if he see fit to answer the charge and explain the facts alleged against him that he is at liberty to waive making a statement, and that his waiver cannot be used against him on the trial, Question. What is your name?

Answer. George Downs

Question. How old are you?

Answer. 22 years

Question. Where were you born?

Answer. New York City

Question. Where do you live, and how long have you resided there?

Answer. No 127 West 27th Street

Question. What is your business or profession?

Answer. Waiter

Question. Give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing in the testimony against you, and state any facts which you think will tend to your exculpation?

Answer. I was with the complainant drinking in the Alhambra. I left him in a house in 27th street. I was not with him in an alley and I know nothing about the alleged robbery.

his will, by

George Barnes, now here, from the following facts: At about one o'clock on the morning of said day, in an alleyway at No. 157 West 27th Street deponent was attacked by said George Barnes and three other persons. One of the said four persons threw his arm around deponent's neck and held his hand over his mouth while the others took said property from the pockets of a vest and of pantaloons then worn by deponent. Deponent identifies said George Barnes as one of the four persons in whose company he entered said alley, and who were the only persons with deponent in said alley when he was robbed. On leaving said alley deponent found Officer Foley and informed him of the robbery.
