To the Court

Q Was this prisoner and the man who looked like him both on the playground when you were robbed?

A. Yes sir.

Q Will you swear positively that this defendant or the other man who looked like him was the one who robbed you?

A. I will

Counsel moved to strike out the above two questions. (overruled)

Cross Ex.

Q Do you now swear you could tell the man who pushed you from behind?

A. I do. There was one man only. I do not know how many people were behind me.

Q Was there more than one?

A. I cannot say.

Q Did you see the two men who came in the car converse with each other?

A. I cannot swear that I did

Q Can you tell what kind of a looking man showed you from behind

A. It was the other man with the black beard.

Q Are you positive the two men got on the car together

A. No Sir.

Q Did you see either of those men who looked like each other get off the car

A. No Sir.

Q Have you seen any persons before or since the occurrence that looked like the prisoner?

A. There is a collector of my club and if I did not know him I might take him for the defendant.

Q Is there anybody else that you have seen like the prisoner?

A. I saw a man on Monday night in the S. W. Blount Road going up town who in my mind so much resembled the defendant that when I arrived in Court this morning I asked

Judge Patterson whether and person have been killed, and gave as my
 reason therefor the above
 occurrence and the consequent impression.

Q Who of any person did you see that the other than Judge
 Patterson

A No one

Sworn to before me this } H. Black
 11th day of January 1882

J. W. Patterson, Police Justice

Hugo S. Mack, the Complainant sworn and cross examined by Counselor Oliver, -

Q. See by the Complaint that you do not charge the prisoner
with taking your property?

A. From the circumstances of the case I suspect from the circumstances that he did
steal it

Q. Was it in the night time?

A. It was.

Q. Was it dark?

A. Certainly

Q. How many people were in that car?

A. There were twenty-two people
in the car

Q. Did you look at the different passengers on the car?

A. I did and can identify three persons on the car.

Q. Was there any people on the car resembling the prisoner?

A. There were two men on the car who looked like
brothers and the prisoner

in my opinion was one of them.

Q Are you now willing to swear which of the two men, the prisoner or the other man, was the one who sat along side of you?

A. I cannot state positively.

Q Can you state in looking over what you call the Rogers-Garay whether the picture you saw represented the prisoner or the unknown man?

A. The picture I there saw resembled both.

Q Did you feel anybody take your watch?

A. I did not.

Q When have you seen your watch last previous to your leaving the car?

A. Ah, about twenty miles from Jersey City at 10 minutes to 10 o'clock P. M.

Q That was the last time you saw your watch from that time to this?

A. That was the last time.

- Q Did any one sit next you in the Cars coming into Jersey City?
- A No sir.
- Q Was there a crowd when you got out of the Steam Cars to the Ferry?
- A I don't ~~think~~ think there was not, I walked alone from the Cars to the Ferry.
- Q Are you prepared now from any circumstances that have taken place since you lost your watch to swear that the prisoner is the man who climbed on the Car.
- A I have seen people since who looked very much like the prisoner, but my impression is that the prisoner is one of the two men who were on the Car. I will swear the prisoner is one of the two men who were on the Car.
- Q Will you swear now that the prisoner is the man

- Who crushed you on the platform?
- A. He was one of the two men.
- Q. Will you swear that is the man (meaning the defendant) who stood in front of you and crushed you on the rear platform of the car.
- A. He was one of the two men on the car.
- Q. Will you swear the defendant is the man who stood in front of you on the platform?
- A. He was and so was the other man on the platform when I got off.
- Q. How many people were on the platform when you got off?
- A. There were seven altogether including myself. I charge the man who stood in front of me on the platform with stealing my watch.
- Q. Will you now swear that the prisoner is the man who pressed against you in front on the platform?
- A. I can't swear positively.
